PLUMBERS' GOODS AND FIREBRICK NOTES

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, TUESDAY, June 80.

The extremely low prices of Ohio cheese of salesmen who represent Western Reserve into things. Thomas H. Rose, of Cortland, O., who represents ten factories of that section: E. E. Olin, who represents the Dolph factory of West Andover, and another repre-sentative of Ohio cheesedom were in our city to-day looking up their interests. It seems that Pittsburg cheese markets are latively lower than at other trade centers of late, and salesmen are on the ground to nquire into the wherefor. New York cheese has held up better this New York cheese has held up better this season than Ohio make. In former years canad, from which has come large quantities of cheese made on the New York style, furnished large quantities for our markets. The duty of 6c per pound on foreign cheese, which the Mckindey bill established, has effectually shut out Canada cheese from our markets, and while New York has been benefited by the tariff, so far there seems to be no advantage to Ohio, from the measure of her favorite son, so far as the cheese trade is concerned.

Someomed.

The lets in dairy products are all agreed hat the bottom has been reached, and that uture changes must inevitably be toward a ligher level of prices. It will be seen by elerence to domestic market column that heice grades of creamery butter are a hade higher than they were a week ago, it is evident that the products of the dairy ave passed their lowest point, and that an an of advancing prices is at hand.

Coreals, Fruits and Vegetables.

Cereals, Fruits and Vegetables. The bulls who a month or two ago banked on an upward movement of grain are richer in experience and poorer in pocket at this in experience and pooter in pocket at this time. There were sales of July corn in the latter part of April at 88c. Market price to-day is 20c per bushel below this figure. July outs were sold at the Grain Exchange as high as 57c, and prices to-day are little above 40c per bushel. A sale of No. 3 outs at 38c per bushel is recorded in our market column to-day. July wheat is quoted in Chicago to-day at 30% per bushel, a drop of 10c within the nest arouth.

st month. e has seldom been a brighter prospect the past month.

There has seldom been a brighter prospect for a good wheat crop at this season than there is to-day. Farmers in this section are now in the midst of harvesting, and the yield promises to be larger this season than for many years past. The outlook in the Northwest is also good, but the harvesting time there is a month later than here.

A Neville Island gardener, in an interview to-day, had this to say of the fruit and vegetable situation and outlook: "The season is three weeks behind the average season is three weeks. A year ago at this time home raised cabbage was plenty. Now there is very little. Home raised potatoes have been in the market for a few days, but they were gathered before they had reached maturity for the purpose of catching the high market, home raised squash and green beans will be on hand in the next few days.

"The crop of cherries is unusually large, and is now at its best. In our section trees are so loaded and prices so low that it hardly pays to pick the fruit. A month ago we thought that the frost had knocked out the cherries. Now. our chief trouble is to get rid of the crop at decent prices."

Follow Corn.

The Grain Markets Afford a Plum for Each -Wheat Weak and Nervous, but Corn Strong and Higher-Oats and Provisions

CHICAGO-Wheat was strong and higher at the opening this morning, recording fig-ures a full cent above the last prices of yes-terday, but the advance did not hold, and after bobbing up and down a couple of times, closed weak and Mele lower than on resterday, at the bottom figures of the day. The news of the day was mixed in its The news of the day was mixed in its tenor, though most of it was bearish. The weather over the harvest fields continued favorable with higher barometer, and the tone of the cable markets was decidedly bearish indicating extreme depression. In the face of this, however, the local crowd was pervaded by a bullish sentimeat, which acted for the higher opening. They had several arguments in support of their position. The shorts were very nervous, and covered a good deal of July around the opening, because of the small stock of contract wheat in store—321,000 bushels against 1,305,000 bushels a week ago, and because of a rumor that arrangements had been perfected for receiving and shipping from 5,000,000 to 7,000,000 bushels during July, which, it was thought, must enhance the price of the cash article materially.

bushels during July, which, it was thought, must enhance the price of the cash article materially.

Further decline was checked by the clearance of 4,000 bushels; by reports that buying orders were being received at the decline, and that 18 boatloads had been taken for July shipment. July sold anywhere between 80% and 81% around the opening, went off to 10% around the sold around the opening, went off the advance. The receipts were about 50 carloads short of the estimates; those for to-morrow were extremely light; stocks in store were only 753,000 bushels. There was an active demand for cash corn at higher figures and the weather was decidedly cooler and not so good for the growing crop. The result was an active demand to cover shorts, and the old bull contingent was also buying. The offerings were light, and the result was that prices were easily advanced. July opened at 53% (20%) against 5% at the close yesterday, advanced gradually to 55% before noon. Then the shorts having covered, and wheat having weakened, corn also grew weak, and with immaterial reactions, declined to and closed steady at 54% c. Oats followed corn, closing with a gain of % c cent over yesterday.

Provisions were fairly active and firm in Ye cent over yesterday.

Provisions were fairly active and firm in sympathy with the advance in corn, and the advance of scents in live hogs at the yards, but weakened later with that cereal. Pork closed with a gain over yesterday of 23cc.

Flumbers' supplies have not been in as cool demand this year as last. The reason or this is obvious. The strike of carpenters, which has now been on for more than two months, has had the effect of curtailing lemand, and there is no longer a possibility of reaching hast year's volume of trade, no matter how favorable the situation may be for the remainder of the year.

Said a leading dealer in plumbers' supplies:

The strike has seriously affected our trade for this year. It is a good thing for us that Pittsburg's strike troubles do not reach to the whole country. If they did we might as well shut up shop. Our trade, however, goes far beyond this city, and demand from afar is fully up to that of last season. Prices of lead and copper, which are the main elements of plumber's goods, vary very little from prices of a year ago."

A year ago at this time manufacturers of fire brick were unable to fill orders, and large concerns like the Edgar Thomson were forced to wait. There is no

THE BEST FIELD FOR ENTERPRISE.

Very Quiet Day on 'Change and a Lower Level of Prices Established.

OFFICE AND STREET NEWS AND GOSSIP

A Canton, O., correspondent asks: "What A Canton, O., correspondent asks: "What is the highest price ever paid for business property in Pittsburg! I may invest." The best recorded sale was that of the Tradesmen's Bank property, corner of Wood and Fourth, about two years ago. It brought $4,200 a foot front. It could not be bought at anything near that price to day. There have been sales on Fifth avenue at about $3,500. Smithfield street property is stiff at $2,500 to Smithfield street property is still at $4,000 to $3,500. Fourth avenue frontage, between smithfield and Market streets, is valued at $3,000 to $3,500. The appreciation of business property in Pittsburg, owing to an active demand, is so constant that the prices of to-day afford no erriterion of those of to-morrow, and the purphess as a general thing, must and the purchaser, as a general thing, must come up to the views of the owner or do without. There is practically no shaving of values on down town business property.

Best Field for Enterprise. Each succeeding year strengthens the claim that Pittsburg possesses unequaled advantages as a manufacturing and commercial center. Her position in respect to fron and glass, coal and coke is so well established as to be unassallable. In the last few years she has become one of the principal distributing points for drygoods and lumber, the total sales of which last year aggregated. distributing points for drygoods and lumber, the total sales of which last year aggregated about $30,000,000. Other industries are springing up which in a short time will assume great importance. All kinds of manufacturing and mercantile pursuits can be carried on here on a more economical basis than at any other place in the country—a fact so well recognized that real estate brokers are overrun with applications from outsiders for sites and stands. The latter are scarce, but sites are abundant and comparatively cheap, ranging from $500 to $1,000 are scarce, but sites are abundant and com-paratively cheap, ranging from $500 to $1,000 an acre, with railroad or river frontage, gas, coal, etc. Many of these are in the city proper, but if the outskirts be preferred, they exist in profusion in and near the score of new towns that environ the city on every side, and offer an unlimited field for capital and enterprise.

Just Enough Doing to Keep up Quotations-Continued Faith in the Tractions-The Duquesne Will Increase Its Speed-Why Gas Stocks Are Weak.

There was only a small showing of activity on 'Change yesterday, just enough to make nominal quotations as a basis for busi-ness and to serve as a guide to bankers in making loans on stock collateral. The result of the day's limited operations was a lower range of prices. There was some im-provement in New York and London was stronger, but these influences were unheeded

The fact is, as often stated, Pittsburg in vestors are carrying about as heavy loads as they can comfortably manage in the present condition of the market. If they were to undertake to realize they would depress values, and as they are not compelled to sacrifice their holdings, they can do no better than watch and wait. Men in this position cannot be expected to do much buying—none, in fact, except when necessary to sustain their special interests.

There was no news of importance and very little gossips. Occasionally a broker ventured a remark about the Traction's confidence in the future, which is steadily gaining strength. They are so closely identified with the material growth of the city that all who have closely investigated the subject look upon their success in time as already settled beyond the reach of hazard. The earnings of all the lines are being steadily augmented and expenses cut down. The Duquesne people, it is said, have decided to adopt the triple motor system, but whether Thomson-Houston or Westinghouse is still an open question, nor does this concern the public so long as the requisite degree of speed be attained. This, it is said, will be secured and speedy and certain transit assured.

Philadelphia Gas made a further conceswere to undertake to realize they would de-significant. This is the time of year when the earnings of these corporations are at the lowest and when they present the least inducement to speculators. That they practically hold their own shows a strong undertone and sufficient confidence to keep them affoat. The supply of gas is more than sufficient for present requirements, and a number of good wells are held in reserve for next fall and winter.

WALL STREET CHEERS UP.

PROFESSIONALS BEGIN BUYING WITH HOPE OF A RISE.

Material Advances in Stocks All Along the Line - International Markets Especially Strong-Industrials and Coalers at First Inclined to Be Sluggish.

New York, June 30 .- The feeling in Wall street to-day was decidedly more hopeful owing in great part to the liberal purchases London and consequent forcing of portion of the short interest to cover, while the near ap proach of the liberation of a vast amount of funds, of which a great portion must find its way into speculative channels, was not without its influence. The market again displayed considerable animation, and there was an absence of bad news, which encour aged some new buying, and the easier con was an absence of bad news, which encouraged some new buying, and the easier condition of foreign exchange gave promise that after all no further shipment of gold would be made this week.

The market was still narrow, but the disposition to buy in anticipation of a turn in the course of the market was decidedly more pronounced among the professional element, and stocks which are held largely abroad felt the stimulus to a greater extent than usual of late. The Western stocks, as usual, led the market both in activity and strength. The movement was steadier than during any of the late rallies, and while no marked spurts were seen during the day the aggregate at the close of the day was seen to be very material, all of the leading shares at the best figures showing gains of over 1 per cent. The Industrials and Coalers were inclined to be sluggish in the beginning, but Chicage Gas, and afterward Sugar, felt the stimulus, while the Coal stocks, with the exception of Reading, were dull though exhibiting a strong tone.

The opening displayed a marked change in sentiment since yesterday, first prices being all fractionally higher than last evening's final prices. Stocks with an international market were specially strong, and Louisville and Nashville and St. Paul were specially prominent in the upward movement. The rest of the list saw no setback whatever, and material gains were scored even among the inactive stocks. The market finally closed quiet but steady at top figures. The changes are all advances, and while most stocks are up large fractions, Jersey Central rose 2½, Chicago Gas, 2½; Union Pacific, 1½; Missouri Pacific Deferred, 1½; Atchison, Chicago, Columbus, Cincinnati and St. Louis, Northwestern and Southern Pacific, 1½; Missouri Pacific preferred, 1½; Atchison, Chicago, Columbus, Cincinnati and St. Louis, Northwestern and Southern Pacific 1½; Running and Lake Erie, 1½; Burlington and Richmond and West Point, 1½, and Cordage, New England and Pacific Mail, 1.

land and Pacific Mail, 1.

Railroad bonds did not share in the activity in stocks, and they did not feel the stimulant of the new deal, and the tone was firm throughout the entire day. The Atchison incomes made a sharp advance, but no other movement of importance was seen during the day. The sales amounted to $645,000 with no special animation in the list at any

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION. What the Half Year Shows-The Outlook Full of Encouragement. Money continues plentiful in this market with a moderate borrowing demand. Bankers yesterday reported a fair routine business and rates steady on the basis of 51467

Balances for month 10,734, 631 I: Exchanges for month of 1890 64,145,923 7. Exchanges for month of 1888 77,264,841 6Balances for month 1888 77,990,623 6

The half year expires to-day. While re ports show a large falling off in the volume of transactions as compared with 1890, they already settled beyond the reach of hazard. The earnings of all the lines are being steadily augmented and expenses cut down. The Duquesne people, it is said, have decided to adopt the triple motor system, but whether Thomson-Houston or Westinghouse is still an open question, nor does this concern the public so long as the requisite degree of speed be attained. This, it is said, will be secured and speedy and certain transit assured.

Philadelphia Gas made a further concession, due to the general apathy of the market, and the rest of this group followed suit, but declines were in no case important or funds not only to move the crops, but to facilitate the expansion of business in all parts of the country. The country is ready for an upturn, conditions favor it, and obstructionists might as well get but of the way.

At New York yesterday money on call was easy, ranging from 2½%4 per cent, last loan 3, closed offered, 2½. Prime mercantile paper, 5½%7. Sterling exchange quiet and weak at $4 85½ for 90-day bills and $4 87½ for demand.

The school board has taken 21 ballots without result, and the body is now taking its wind, and on Friday evenis now taking its wind, and on Friday evening another attempt will be made to get a until only about four or five remain.

There appears to be no scandalous fight, so far as can be learned, and each director claims that his action is based on his desire to do the best he can for the school.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCE, TUESDAY, June 30. COUNTRY PRODUCE (Jobbing Prices)-Con trary to general expectations, choice cream-ery butter is a shade higher this week than last. At the Monday sales at Elgin markets were firm at 1/2c advance on last week, when markets were weak. Demand for country butter is improved this week, a fact which is probably due to the extensive cake baking for Fourth of July. Eggs are moving freely, and outside quotations obtain for strictly fresh stock. Berries and melons are coming in in quantities beyond the capacity of our in in quantities beyond the capacity of our market to absorb, and prices are tending downward. Commission houses were overstocked with raspberries this morning, and prospects at noon were that there would be some unloading at a sacrifice to the shipper. Home grown raspberries are now to the front. One commission firm reported receipts and sales of 100 crates of home grown raspberries this morning. Southern potatoes are plenty and lower. Watermelons abound, and the outlook is for lower prices in the next few days.

AWAKENED BY A BURGLAR.

One of Bellefield's Pests Gets Away With Only a Pair of Pantalo Only a Pair of Pantaloons.

Mr. H. J. Fishel and family, of No. 22 Mawhinney street, Bellefield, are the last of a series of victims of nocturnal thieves. There has been a number of houses robbed lately on that street, which fact may explain why Mr. Fishel's slumber was light. Between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Fishel awoke just as a well-dressed man struck a match and stepped into the chamber on the awoke just as a well-dressed man struck a match and stepped into the chamber on the second story. Mr. Fishel demanded what was wanted, when the burgiar extinguished the light, and at the same time grabbed a pair of pantaloons from the top of a trunk behind the door, and left the scene with considerable celerity. In the pantaloons were some keys, a silk handkerchief and other traps that a man ordinarily carries about him and about $8 or $10 in cash.

The fellow was so cool in his movements that at first Mr. Fishel scarcely comprehended the nature of the situation, but as soon as he did he skipped downstairs and investigated. The ware in the china cupboard was piled up ready for removal, but was not taken for want of time. There were more thieves than one, or else the one was a vast eater, as a cake on which the family had made a portion of their supper the previous evening, leaving half or more, was entirely devoured, and the crumps showed that it, had found a home market. Mr. Fishel-thinks the thief an expert, as he was cooltand knew how to get out of the house without making any noise.
