

SECRET OF THE STRIKE.

Rules That Were Adopted by the Carpenters and Contractors—Both Have Ignored—Apprentice Rules Included for Comparison.

On Tuesday evening, April 4, the Carpenters' District Council held a meeting and adopted finally the working rules which have created all the trouble. On Thursday evening of the same week the Master Builders' Association met and discussed the rules, the latter having been officially conveyed to them from the carpenters.

Working Rules. Rule 1.—Eight hours shall constitute a day's work, and all overtime shall be paid at half rate.

CONTRACTORS TO THE WALL. How the Strike Has Forced Small Men Out of the Business—Mr. McKee Claims the Strike Has Not Caused Much Loss.

Mr. McKee, of the East Pittsburgh Improvement Co., who has been one of the most active in the strike, says that the business has been forced to give up the strike.

BOSS' APPOINTMENT RULES. Preamble.—The intending of apprentices being the business calculated to give that efficiency which is the basis of the industry.

GREAT RELIGIOUS WIRE PULVING. Another Lost Misette Discovered Which Somewhat Changes the Matter.

In the days when, between the Church and His Satanic Majesty, heretics are hunted back and forth like butterflies and shuttlecock to discordant strains of doctrinal controversy, and creed is set against again, like Greek against Greek, it is little wonder if some changes displease while others gratify, or that claims are made that political methods are introduced and practiced by churchmen instead of the Golden Rule.

How the Recollections of Slave Days Stick to the Older Ones—The Children Gladly Being Lifted Above Ancient Ideas—Education for Workmen.

When Master Workman Powderly was in the city a few days ago he said a number of things that were not published for lack of space. Mr. Powderly impresses the interviewer as if he were withholding his views on important public questions for the purpose of reserving the rewards offered by magazines for articles on those questions.
