

BARDSLEY A CONVICT. He is sentenced to 15 Years in the Eastern Penitentiary. IMPRISONMENT BEGINS TO-DAY.

The Ex-City Treasurer Smarts Under the Judge's Severe Rebuke. NO PALLIATION FOR HIS CRIME FOUND.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—Sentence was today passed upon John Bardsey, ex-City Treasurer of Philadelphia. The fact that he had been doing 30 barrels a day was not generally known, so that when District Attorney Graham rose to address the Court, and asked that sentence be passed on the prisoner, there were not more than 50 people in the court room.

The Mental Torture of the Prisoner. While his name was speaking Bardsey sat with bowed head, nervously tracing imaginary lines with the back of a pen upon the table before him. As Bardsey got up Judge Wilson beckoned to him and he started while he delivered the lecture and words of admonition. Judge Wilson's severe words caused Bardsey the most palpable distress. He shut himself and the man awaiting his sentence, Bardsey, to sink to his knees and wept convulsively, his face flushed and pale, and his head sank on his breast.

Doomed to 15 Years in the Pen. The sentence pronounced by Judge Wilson was that Bardsey should serve 15 years of confinement in the Eastern Penitentiary, and that he pay a fine in the sum equal to the amount of his embezzlement to the city of Philadelphia, and that he be imprisoned for the same amount. He is to be confined in the Eastern Penitentiary, and that he pay a fine in the sum equal to the amount of his embezzlement to the city of Philadelphia, and that he be imprisoned for the same amount.

M'CURDY ONCE MORE. PATTERSON & JONES' NO. 7 DOING SEVENTY BARRELS AN HOUR.

The Butler Lot Well at McDonald Holdings. Up—Changes in Northeast Wildwood Property—A Well Brought in at Shanopin—Oil Mines and Vicinity.

It seemed like the good old times yesterday when the report was circulated that a well doing 70 barrels an hour had been brought in. It was the Patterson & Jones No. 7, on the McCurdy farm, at McCurdy. It had been doing 30 barrels a day from the 30-foot sand, and reached the McCurdy sand early yesterday morning.

The Monitor Run. CLIFF MINES—The Fisher Oil Company's No. 7 on the Stewart farm will make a 30 or 40 barrel well. The rock well on the Marshall lot was rigged up for pumping yesterday and is now doing a 30 or 40 barrel pumper.

Wildwood—W. P. Black has purchased the two-thirds interest in A. J. Waterhouse in the Hardy farm and also a one-half interest in the Babbs farm for $4,000. Both of these farms are in the extreme northeast corner of the field, and Mr. Black is confident that there is more oil in that locality than the well of the Hardy, which is drilling on an east and west line between Nos. 1 and 2, and is now doing 100 barrels a day.

Turned Out Greasy. MURDOCKVILLE—The well of the Forest Oil Company, Kelly Bros. & Co., on the Butler farm, which was at first supposed to be dry, has been shot and is doing an eight or ten barrel well.

Another Refinery. A telegram from Butler last night stated that a refinery with a capacity of 500 barrels is soon to be built at that place.

Yesterday's Local Features. There was nothing in the market to break the usual quietude of the pit, there being neither sales nor bids. Room traders were busy in the afternoon, but the market looked blue. Befined was stronger at Antwerp, but unchanged at other points. Average daily production, 7,225; average daily shipments, 6,548; average daily exports, 5,000.
