DRAPED IN MOURNING.

Clearfield Youths Bury Old Patriotism for a Joke.

GRANGERS OFPOSED CELEBRATING

And the Young People Were Dissatisfied With Them.

ADVISED TO GO TO AMERICAN TOWNS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CLEARFIELD, PA., July 5 .- There was a rather unique Fourth of July passed here, especially by the older and more conservative citizens. Yesterday morning the people were startled to see the entire town draped in mourning

There were hundreds of yards of crape on every business place, tree, sign post, awning and fence corner, and innumerable inwas printed: "$2,000 goes out of town every Fourth of July, with the exception of 1889, when $3,000 came in-difference $5,000."

The notices were evidently put up by the younger element who were greatly dissatisfied with the way the Grangers had been running things, in making no provision for any patriotic celebration here; rather the reverse-they discouraged it, and seemed to think it a worul waste of money to explode a firecracker with no other result than to make a flot of noise.

The joke was carried out all day on the streets to an extent laughable and annoying. Every young fellow eaught in town was charged with having no money to get away, and kind offers were made for transportation to more enterprising and American locali-tics, while a lugubrious vehicle was dragged nd with the avowed intention of burying Old Patriotism, who had died here.

THE RINGING HILL WITCH.

Her Neighbors' Superstitious Hatred Has

Driven the Lady Insane. SVILLE, July 5 .- In THE DISPATCH Inst Wednesday morning there appeared the story of a witch excitement in a country com munity beyond Ringing Hill. A child in the neighborhood was hopelessly ill, and an old grauny, reinforced by a "hex doctor," declared that the little one was not only be-witched, but that a certain woman in the neighborhood was the guilty witch. That, woman is an estimable lady named Miss Mary Ruth, and as a result of the enmity of the superstitious folk of the place, brought upon her by the quackery of the granny and her associate's story, she is now insane.

Miss Ruth is 30 years old and lives with an older unmarried sister named Hannah. The two have for many years nursed an invalid mether, who died recently. When one is thought be witched the people consult Dr. Otto Nagermin. of Reading, who has the reputation in that neighborhood of destroying the powers of witches. His accusations preyed on Miss Ruth's mind and she suffered untold mental tortures. Then, as she seemed to realize the enormity of the accusation, she became a raving maniae. She was until the total the sale of the storage company of the storage company. Mr. Mary Ruth, and as a result of the enmity she became a raving maniac. She was un-able to eat or sleep for several weeks, spend-ing most of her time in pacing up and down her room. She threw furniture out of the window, fore her clothing into shreds and attacked her sister Hannah wit h a butcher lynife and a chair.

HIS FRIENDS WERE SHOCKED.

The Result of an Ohio Senator's Visit to the Pacific Coast.

NEWARK, July 5.-The news received here of the suicide at Seattle, Wash., of Hon. Rob-ert F. Beese by cutting his throat with a razor, was a great shock to his many friends here, he being very well known in this vicinity. To none was it a more terrible shock ity. To none was it a more terrible shock than to his two bright and lovely daughters, aged if and if years. These young ladies are stopping with their aunt, Mrs. F. S. Wright. They had just come from Columbus, where they were attending school at St. Marys, and were only told the sad news to-day.

Mr. Beese had been visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. Wright, cashier of the First National bank, during the winter, and returned to Seattle in February. Mr. Beese was imand was the right hand man of Oliver Payne. The news received states that he committed suicide while suffering from tem-porary insanity. The remains will be buried there.

NOT THE MISSING MARSH.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, July 5.-Great excitement is reported from Chaneysville over the supposed appearance of Gideen W. Marsh. Someone had a newspaper containing a portrait of the fugitive President of the Keytone Bank, and he discovered a striking resemblance between the portrait and a stranger who made his appearance at that stranger who made his appearance at that place. As there is a standing reward of $5,000 for Marsh's arrest a great deal of excitement was aroused in the little town.

The stranger pretended that he was hard up and Squire Adams gave him his supper and allowed him to sleep in his barn. The excitement grew in such rapidity that some time during the night it was decided to risk making his arrest. A posse was gathered together and the barn was surrounded. The stranger made no resistance. He was taken before 'Squire Adams and a careful comparison made with the printed description. The stranger, however, did not till the bill and he was discharged, but there is no doubt that he was a crooked character. He had about $100 on his person and 23 door keys.

The other funerals will occur to-morrow and Tuesday. The scene of the wreck to-day was the Mecca for hundreds of pilarims, all curious to see the spot where so many lives were lost and so much ruin done. The road has been repaired and trains are now running regularly. General Manager Ferris is expected here to-night to look into the matter.

The tragedian was in misery and took little interest in the festivities. He nearly fell from Mr. Jefferson's carriage in attempting to alight unaided, and walked about very slowly, leaning heavily upon a cane, speaking only in monosylables when addressed, and shunning society. "He is most absent-minded and broods a great deal," say the residents, who are daily watching him.

LOTS OF ENGLISH MONEY

Is Being Invested in Enterprises in the Heart of Chicago. CHICAGO, July 5.-English capital has again invaded Chicago, this time to the extent of $4,500,000, and the property pur-chased is the Chicago Cold Storage Ex-tiated the sale of the storage company. Mr. Beloin has just returned from London, where, after two months of conference where, after two months of conferences, negotiations and consultations with English capitalists and lawyers, he closed the deal. The purchaser is the London and Colonial Finance Corporation (limited) and the price is $4,500,000, half in cash and half in the stock of the English company. The completion of the terms of the contract and final payment of the purchase price is to be within four months. The deal will net about $200,000 profit to the sellers and they will preserve a half interest. PREPARING FOR SUBSIDIES.

hip Lines That Can Comply With the Law Will Secure Contracts.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] WASHINGTON, July 5 .- The Postmaste General's time was occupied for a very large part of last week in considering the scheme for carrying into effect the postal subsidy Seattle in February. Mr. Beese was immensely wealthy, and his last letter told of his purchase of 250,00 acres of land for farming. He was a member of the Ohio Senate during the exciting canvass of H. B. Payne, and was the right hand man of Oliver and was the right hand man of Oliver Tuesday and again later in the week. The result of all these consultations is believed to be as follows:

All the lines on the Pacific coast and on the Atlantic from Norfalk northward, who can comply with the terms of the law, will be forwarded contracts under the terms of the advertisement required to be made by law. In the South only Norfolk, Tampa, New Orleans and Galveston will be provided for. There was a proposition to in-clude Sayannah, Charleston and Mobile, but in neither case, it is said, were sufficient guarantees given. Of course the project is subject to change, as the law does not fix any specific line on which contracts shall be entered into within the next five years, but it is not thought that the present scheme will be altered much if any within the present fiscal year.

A BIG FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

Labor and Trades Assembly Members Have a Very Lively Meeting.

CHICAGO, July 5 .- A disgraceful free-forall fight was the feature of the regular weekly meeting of the Trades and Labor Assembly.
