In all three games Dame Fortune has lavished her radiant smiles on the visitors. They are great players, no do bt, but in all three instances the home sluggers have held them down so close and tight, that for them the luckiest and most timely errors and hits have just managed

CADETS GET IN TROUBLE.

They Joke With Several Negro Bootblacks and Are Attacked.

Indianapolis, July 6.-Among the contestants for military honors here during the past week were the Macon Cadets. This morning, as several members of that com-pany were walking along, one of their number said in a joking way as they passed some bootblacks: "Don't you know we are going to kill a lot of you." Then they saw a col-ored man named Tom Brown getting a "shine," when another remarked, "We are going to kill a lot of you," whereupon Brown jumped up and struck one of them in the face and started to run.

The cadets followed him with drawn knives, and one of them slashed him in the back of the neck. Brown then ran into a colored saloon on Kentucky avenue, when a gang of colored toughs started out to make it a free-for-all fight, using chairs and billiard cues as weapons. In this melee Cadets Edwards and Willias were severely injured, and Brown and Lynch were badly hurt. The cadets threaten vengeance before leaving town. "shine," when another remarked, "We are

NEGLIGENCE OF DREW

Plainly Shown Up by His Faulty New York Advertiser. Report to Washington and

HIS HUMBLE PLEA OF GUILTY. Correspondence With the Treasury and Drew's Dismissal.

PRESIDENT ASKED TO CAPTURE MARSH

Washington, June 6.—The following cor-espondence explains itself. Under date of June 29, Comptroller of the Currency Lacey wrote to J. W. Drew, National Bank Examwrote to J. W. Drew, National Bank Examiner at Philadelphia, as follows:

"Inclosed herewith you will find certified copies of your report of January 24, 1891, as to the condition at 10 o'clock A. M. on that day of the Keystone National Bank, of Philadelphia, and of your letter of the same date referred to in said report. An investigation of the affairs of said bank discloses the fact that at the date and hour of said that at the date and hour of said report the bank was indebted in the account of the Clearing House certificates in account of the Clearing House certificates in the sum of $544,551 46; said indebtedness being secured by pledge of its notes and bills amounting to $729,308 33, which assets were then held by the Clearing House committee, and were not in the custody of the bank.

"You will observe that this indebtedness of $544,851 46 is not stated among the liabilities of the bank, nor is any mention made in either the report or letter of this large indebtedness, nor of the absence of so large a part of the assets. You are requested to explain the cause of these omissions at your earliest convenience."

Reply of Examiner Drew. To this Mr. Drew, under date of June 30, after quoting the substance of the Comptroller's letter, replied:

"I was confounded at the omission, and I can account for it only that, purposely not including it in the report, I intended to include and explain it in my letter, which it appears I failed to do, although the memo-randa for my letter contained reference to the subject. In my later reports it was not the subject. In my later reports it was not omitted.

"To be complete in the statement of the accounts the report of January 24 should have methoded the amount of the certificates as an additional liability, and a corresponding amount should have appeared on the debt side, either in 'stocks, etc., on hand,' or in a 'deficit account,' or in both. The omission was clearly an accident, but was no less calculated to mislead.

"As stated in my letter of transmittal, the report was informal and incomplete in many respects, owing to the fact that many of the accounts were then and for some time afterward undergoing verification, but notwithstanding these embarrassments the omission referred to should not have occurred and would not have occurred except by accident, as stated. I need not add how greatly I regret the inadvertence."

Drew's Resignation Requested.

Drew's Resignation Requested. Comptroller Lacey's answer to this letter, under date of July 2, is as follows:

"I have placed your communication, together with all other facts bearing upon the transaction, before the Secretary of the Treasury and the same have had very full and careful consideration. As a result, the conclusion was reached that so important an conclusion was reached that so important an omission, after 15 days' investigation of the bank, is not consistent with the confidence which must necessarily be reposed by the department in the reports of those appointed to make examination of National Banks.

"By direction of the Secretary, I have therefore to request that you forward to this office your resignation as an examiner of national banks. I cannot close this communication without assuring you of my sincere regret that anything should have occurred which would render necessary the severing of your official relations with the bureau."

severing of your one can received to this bureau."

No response has yet been received to this last note. Bank Examiner Sheppard, of Pittsburg, was at the Treasury Department to-day in conference with Comptroller Lacey and he and Bank Examiner Betts, of Cincinnati, will continue to conduct the affairs of the office in Philadelphia until a successor of Mr. Drew shall have been appointed.

For the Capture of Marsh. A dispatch from Philadelphia says: Mayor Stuart to-day made public the following let-ter relative to the apprehension of Marsh, the fugitive President of the Keystone Bank, which he mailed to President Harrison on Friday:

to pay my guests for coming." Simpler german favors may be the thin edge of the needed wedge. "I have the honor to herewith transmit you a copy of a resolution of the Select an Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, entitled, 'Resolution of request to the President of the United States relative to the apprehension and extradition of G. W. Marsh.'

The city of Philadelphia, through her representatives, thus earnestly petitioning the National Government, feels thoroughly assured of the same active aid, assistance assured of the same active aid, assistance and co-operation in this respect as has been accorded her in all the provious proceedings in this matter, and it is in this belief I have the honor to transmit the enclosed."

The resolutions referred to request the Mayor to express to the President of the United States the earnest wish that he should inform the several Ministers and Consuls of the United States of the desire of the Government to secure the arrest and Consuls of the United States of the desire of the Government to secure the arrest and extradition of the said Gideon W. Marsh, and that in the event of its being ascertained during the recess of said Councils that the said Gideon W. Marsh is within the jurisdiction of any foreign country, that such measures as may be practicable to secure his arrest and extradition should thereupon be taken, whether under the provisions of any treaty obligation, or in the absence of such.

A SOLDIERS' GAMBLING DEN.

St. PAUL, July 6 .- Colonel Edwin C. On investigation the discovery was made that gambling had full swing within a stone's throw of Colonel Mason's quarters on government property and under his jurisdiction.

Last evening I found that the gambling center was a room formerly used as the adjutant's office. At 8 o'clock in the evening not a single sentry was seen. Walking along the side of the stone building an open doorway was observed, from which streamed doorway was observed, from which streamed a ray of light. Entering unchallenged, I found myself in a room lit with hanging lanterns. Two baize covhanging lanterns. Seated around the table and standing up against the walls were privates standing up against the walls were privates and non-commissioned officers in uniform. The tables had evidently been prepared for playing, having a circular place cut out where the banker sat with an open drawer in front of him, which contained on one side money and on the other stacks of white and red chips. The games were played in regular fashion, the banker, as usual, getting a big rake off. In a small cupboard were three kegs of beer, which were served out freely by a soldier in uniform to the players.

He Treated Her With Scorn, and She She Him Down.

LITTLE ROCK, July 6 .- From an Indian Territory special it is learned that a Choctaw Indian named John Lowerman, living near Oak Lodge, was assassinated by a woman of the name of Nellie Bowenkamp, to whom he was recently engaged to be married. The engagement was broken off and the two became estranged, although the woman strenuously objected to his paying attention to other women in the neighbor-

A MARVELOUS JERSEY ECHO. The Human Voice Repeated Thrice at

Place Near Paterson.

An atmospheric phenomenon that has for years been a source of wonder and speculayears been a source of wonder and speculation to New Jersey people is to be found at what is, known as "Big Notch," a mountain pass two miles south of Paterson. The mountain, which is known as the Garret Range, is at this point broken through as though by the action of an extinct glacier.

On each side of this deep valley, which expands toward the easterly portal, cliffs almost perpendicular rise up for several hundred feet. They are partially wooded, which breaks an effect which would otherwise be rugged. The rear of the pass opens into another narrow valley, walled up at the west by a lofty mountain. A few hundred yards before the eastern portal of the "notch" stands a hill of pyramidal shape and bearing outward evidences of glacial creation. This natural condition of things forms a large triangular area with a stuforms a large triangular area with a stu-pendous passage to the rear valley through the "notch." As a natural result the whole has a wondrous effect on the human voice. Let one stand in a certain position and hallool and his voice will reverberate from the opposite side. REFORM IN FAVORS.

Not to be So Expensive as to Preclude Dan

ing, Except for the Rich. comes from over the water that there is to be a reaction in the matter of cotillion favors, says the New York Times. Parisian hostesses are setting the sensible fashion of very simple favors—a boutonniere for the gentlemen and a sachet or bouquet for the ladies. This reform, if it is kept up until the real dancing season of another winter is upon us, will be a welcome and needed one to transplant to New York drawing rooms. It has become very expensive to give a cotillion over here. The fashion of costly favors has grown beyond fashion of costly favors has grown beyond all reason; none save the very rich can af-ford a large cotillion and, like the luncheon and dinner favors, there seemed no limit to the emulation aroused. As one sharp-tongued young woman said last winter: "I can't give anything but teas, they are the Tough Crowd Tore His Coat From His Back and Beat Him.

BALTIMORE, July 6 .- This morning Offier M. T. Carney shot and almost instantly killed a negro named Charles Ringgold. In the negro's house lived a number of colored women, who were all intoxicated and made considerable noise.

Officer Carney warned them several times. He met Ringgold on the steps and ordered him to keep quiet, and attempted to place him under arrest. Ringgold grabbed the dragged him through the women, and assisted by the women, dragged him through the parlor and dining room back into the yard. They wrested his club from him, tore his clothing and cut his face and hands with a cuspidor. Finally Ringgold got a long carving knife and ran at the oficer, when Carney pulled his revolver, fired two shots for assistance and finally shot

Curious Vagaries of an Insane Individual in New York. NEW YORK, July 6.-A gray bearded, neatly dressed man entered the Church street station last night and told the sergeant he was robbed of a gold watch and $300 in money in a lodging house on Greenwich street. A detective accompanied him to several lodging houses, but finally gave up the search, having become convinced that the man was crazy.

On being questioned he said he was Dr.

John Baptist Browns, a physician of Chicago. He added that he was one of the cago. He added that he was one of the greatest trance mediums in the world and had been in a trance ever since he came to New York. He was searched and on him were found a pistol and a big knife, which he said he carried to defend himself from Anarchists who were trying to kill him. He was committed for examination as to his PROHIBITIONISTS RALLY. Their Annual Meeting at Wheeling Not a Great Success as Yet.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) WHEELING, July 6 .- The annual meeting of the Prohibitionists of this section, which opened Friday, was rather better attended yesterday. The opening day was very discouraging, only a few being present, though the party owns at Moundsville one of the finest, if not the finest hall in the State. The meetings are to continue until July
13, and quite a number of prominent speakers have been engaged, including Senator
Peffer, who is to appear on Farmers' Alliance day, July 11. On that date it is expected the full force of the Prohibition element in the State will be shown.

RADICAL SOCIALISTIC REFORM.

Universal Suffrage Demanded for Both Men and Women.

BERLIN, July 6 .- The Socialists have published an official programme which is more like a scheme of Radical reform than a Socialistic manifesto.

In it they demand universal suffrage for both men and women, a capitol and succession tax, the abolition of the standing army, the abolition of fees in courts of law and the granting of free medical assistance.

CALLING IN ALL THE BANK DEPOSITS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CUMBERLAND, MD., July 6.—Secretaries Rusk and Foster arrived here at 7:10 in ex-Senator H. E. Davis car "West Virginia" after a visit since Saturday with S. B. Elkins at his home, 130 miles south of here, at the present terminus of the West Vir-ginia Central Railroad. United States Sub-Treasurer at Baltimore G. L. Welling ton, who lives here, chartered an observe tion car on the new electric railroad, and took the party, consisting of the Mayor, members of the Council and the press, on a trip through the celebrated "Narrows." Afterward Hon, Lloyd Lowndes entertained the party at his home.

Secretary Foster in discussing his report where it dies in a hollow murmur.

The effect of the experiment is as beautiful as it is awful. The voice seems to live except about $15,000,000 to be distributed among the banks where there are internal revenues. He claims a cash balance of over $50,000,000 although he admits that under the system inaugurate by Cleveland of auditing cash liabilities his June deficit of $600,000 was correct, and that he has reverted to the method of accounting prior to Cleveland's administration and thereby made a better showing. In the matter of extension of the $25,000,000 4 per cent at 2 per cent he claims results beyond his ex-

The suggestion of ex-Secretary Windom as to the inter-convertible bonds and the adop-tion by a Board of National Control of certain States, municipal and underlying rail-road bonds in place of the Government bonds when they shall be retired as a basis of the national bank circulation, is a pet scheme of Mr. Foster's and he may ecommend its consideration. He also co siders the department overburdened and thinks two-fifths of the 26 sub-de-partments under him should go elsewhere. He also suggests that the auditors duties in his department are su-perfluous and that a saving of nearly a mil-lion could be made by doing away with them.
The Cabinet officers left at 11:20 on the Baltimore and Ohio in the "West Virginia," accompanied by C. M. Hindley, private secretary of Mr. Windom, now with Senator

Small Child Trampled to Death by Frightened Elephant. DENVER, Col., July 6 .- This afternoon

There is a me-nagerie at the beach, and it had been advertised that children would be given a ride on the back of an elephant. The elephant had made two trips, and was just returning to the animal house with eight children on his back when the balloon started up. The keeper of the elephant then stuck a pitchfork into the animal's trunk and was thrown high in the air by the enraged brute, but, however, was not seriously hurt. By this time several other attendants arrived and managed to secure the elephant with chains. The parents of the child killed are nearly frantic with gruef. with grief. WHEN rivermen are not taking out coal, they are "scrapping" with bridge projectors and owners to compel them to obey the law. Under a recent decision of the Secretary of War, any piers or abutments that are a menace to navigation can be removed by process of law. The navigation can be removed by process of law. The navigations are now taking testimohy to show that the Tenth street and Psuhandle bridges and the railroad bridges at Bellaire and Stenbenville, as constructed, are dangesous and impede navigation. They hope to have the mid-river piers taken out, and in the case of the local bridges they claim they are too low and must be raised. The complaint is made generally that most of the bridges are not high enough, and where any improvement can be made the rivermen will not be slow to sue for it.
