Stocks are reported light in the lands of dealers except where and as the pichie senson is fully on there is little doubt that there will soon be a necessity to replanels. There are seven representatives of the Western canned meat industries in this city and Allegheny. The amount handlest by these firms is very nearly 15,900 nounds per week. Said a representative of one of these firms. "We see now selling in the neighborhood or 7,000 pounds of canned meat perweek, and this is a decided increase on our weekly sales of June. Last July we sold as high as 1,200 penuds per week, and in August last year the dealers of the city handled in all close to 5,000 pounds weekly. We hope and expect to catch up to last year's volume of trade, and the rush of the past few days gives us encouragement that our homes will not be in vain. Following are priors of canned meats: Corn beef, 2-point cans, 82 10 to 82 20a dozen; the latter prior being for eans with patent key at tached. Lunch tongue, I-pound cans, 82 5a dozen; reast beef, 81 30 a dozen; chip beef, 82 30 per dozen. These priors are fully 25 per dozen. A RANGE OF ONE CENT

Marks the Extreme Fluctuations of a Nervous Wheat Market-Corn Inclined to Be Higher, and Oats Naturally Tend to Be Lower-Provisions Weak.

CHICAGO-Wheat was chiefly governed in its fluctuations to-day by local influences, the bulls and bears alternately taking their innings. The changes in prices were mostly morrow, the outside figures of the day covering a range of about ic. At the start the tendency was influenced by wet weather in the Southwest and the low barometer in the winter wheat region, and the scalpers bought freely, while many commission houses so ned to have liberal buying orders, and December sold 5ce above last night's close. Then the inspection sheet showed 50 cars of hes winter wheat in, of which 26 cars were in graded contracts, and big re-ceipts being reported in other markets the strength quickly disappeared. The growd then started to unlead, but there were few buyers, and is ded not take long for the mar-ket to go off is from the top price. but the decrease of 1.714,000 bashel, in the

But the decrease of 1,714,000 bashel, in the amount on message and reports that it is reming in the southness, checked the decine, and under a good deal of nervous buying December was quickly advanced ic, but part of the improvement was lost. Nervousees was the feature of the market, rether than structure or weakness. July was traded in very sparingly and ranged at the 1200 c. December was the nettyre future. Assumd the opening it sold to 895 c. broke to 885 c. ralled to 895 c. receded to 885 c. advanced to 885 c. advanced to 885 c. and chosed at 885 c. Corn was notice, nervous and unscribed, but generally higher. The cold weather gave the market a rather strong start, and with shorts disposed to cover and the offerings meager, prices advanced easily for a time. July and September both selling up nearly, le above last night's close; but on indications of warmer weather and the break in wheat the buyers gradually drew out and the offerings increased. A drop of nearly a cent followed. Later, when wheat showed some recovery and the small estimates of receipts for to-morrow came in, there was nucher sport, and July sold up le from the low point and september made the same advance, but most of this was again lost. Some of the fluctuations were made on no discoverable enuse.

The changes in the price of oats were governed chiefly by those in corn, though the natural tendency is to lower figures on account of the very favorable crop reports as to this cereal.

count of the very favorable crop reports as to this cereal.

Provisions were fairly active but generally weak. Packers were free sellers as a rule. September park opened at $10.65, an advance of 5 cents over last night, and sold off without uniternal reaction to $10.40, but recovered to $10.475 at the close. The dispatch in a morning paper to the effect that there were two well-defined cases of yellow fever in the lumbor at Brunswick Ga, and that the intwo well-defined cases of yearow rever in the harbor at Brunswick, Gn., and that the in-habitants were fleeing from the town, was the chief cause of the early weakness. road to give easy access to the property. Other owners are delaying improvements for the same reason.

Ilalf a mile or so this side of Hazelwood the rugged bluff disappears, and a succession of gentle slopes imparts beauty and diversity to the landscape. These, for the most part, are crowned with handsome residences occupied by some of Pittsburg's most distinguished people, among whom may be mentioned Banker Scully, J. R. Eythe, the Vankirks, Hugh Burgwin, Ira M. Burchfield and others. For beauty of location, picturesque scenery and immunity from smoke and noise this quarter of the city is surpassed by no other.

The value of land along Second avenue is an unknown quantity. There is no fixed standard. It varies according to locality. In choice situations building lots have been sold as high as $2,500. In the neighborhood of the mills and on the hillsides near the railroad tracks prices range from $150 to $1,000. There is considerable vacant land, but it is in strong hands. The Blair estate, one of the largest in the county, is in the Twenty-third ward.

The towns of Hazelwood and Glenwood, which are practically one, are busy, pushing places. A considerable number of buildings are under way and others are projected, among them two or three business houses and a hotel. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will soon begin extensive improvements at Glenwood, which will give it a still greater forward impulse. "To lets" are as rare as in the business quarter of the city proper. A Glenwood merchant said yesterday: "Our greatest drawback is the scarcity of houses. Several hundred people would come here at once if they could find shelter, Please lay this fact before the capitalists and builders and urge them to supply the want."

Nearly $1,00,000 worth of property has chauged bands in this quarter of the city Nearly $1,000,000 worth of property has Nearly $1,000,000 worth of property has changed hands in this quarter of the city within the last two years, and several big deals are under consideration, one of which involves over 100 acres. All that remains to insure quick development is the introduction of rapid transit, and as two or three roads are under contemplation, the probability is that this requirement will soon be filled.

Yesterday was the last day for surrender The Second Avenue Electric Railway ing Westinghouse Electric under the original traverses one of the most picturesque, if not one of the most pleasing, districts of the conditions prescribed by the Reorganiza tion Committee. In the afternoon a dis-patch was received from Mr. Westinghouse one of the most pleasing, districts of the city. Some of the greatest iron works are located in this quarter, among them the Linden Steel Works, Moorhead & McCleane's big plant, the American Iron Works of Jones & Laughlins, connected by a bridge over the Monongahela with their mammoth concern on the Southside, and others of almost equal magnitude. None of them use smoke equal magnitude. None of them use smoke consumers.

The electric railway is well equipped, but is susceptible of improvement. The tracks cross each other at two places, causing frequent delays, to the annoyance of passengers. This defect could be easily remedied. The cars are short and have a rocking motion that is not always agreeable, and schedule time does not seem to be strictly observed. It is a good road, however, and as improvements occur to the management they will no doubt be adopted. There is talk of pushing a branch of this road out into the Twenty-third ward, so as to secure a part of the Schenley Park traffic. It will start, if it starts at all, at Four Mile Run. This would be of great benefit to the Twenty-third ward and in a scarcely less degree to the adjoining wards by opening to settlement a large area of city. inues to exhibit a strong undertone but develops no activity, and the interest in the inte speculative leaders of the market seems to be declining. The interest in the stock speculation is entirely local, and the late leading speculative stocks are becoming quieter with the rest of the list, though the Grangers still maintain their prominence in the dealings.

London was apparently a seller of stocks demand of sufficient magnitude was met to cause a moderate upward movement in prices during the forenoon. All interest was taken out of the trading later in the day, however, and dullness again became the most conspicuous feature of the trading; but dullness now is accompanied by a stubborn istrength, instead of the weakness which marked all cessations of buying some time ago. A slight increase in the dividend rate in Jersey Central had the same effect as it did on Long Island and advanced the stock materially, a rise of 5½ per cent being the result. A limited amount of buying in the forenoon after a rather heavy opening sufficed to establish advances in all thacetive stocks in large fractions.

A HEROIC ENGINEER.

He Saved the Lives of Many Passengers by Losing His Own.

Chicago, July 7. — A sensational train wrecking is being investigated by the officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad. The wreck occurred near Lansing, Ia., July 4, and has, up to this time, escaped publication. One prisoner was to-day taken into custody at Lansing, and the officials are on the track of his three confederates. The McGregor passenger train, bound for La Crosse with several cars heavily loaded with passengers, when near Lansing, struck an obstruction placed upon the rail, and the engine was hurled over the the ran, and the engine was nursed over the bank of the Mississippi. Fortunately the cars remained on the rails, the engineer, Charles Todd, giving up his life to save those of the passengers. Todd's fireman jumped and was saved. Todd feit his engine going, but he re-mained to set the airbrake, shut off the steam and onen the sand valves, so that the mained to set the nirbrake, shut off the steam and open the sand valves, so that the cars might stay on the rails. He went down with the engine. His first question when rescued from the engine, badly scalded and writhing in agony, was: "Are any of the passengers hurt?" Upon receiving the negative answer Todd smiled as he looked around and said: "Well, this is a glorious Fourth we are having, isn't it? I am afraid I had too many fireworks." Todd died shortly afterward. The perpetuators are said to be farmer boys. The one under arrest is only 12 years of age.

Of Interest to Mothers. The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pa., in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says:, "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my hus-band being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colle, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I know of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled, and cheerfully recom-

The Supply of Raspberries Beyond Capacity of Our Markets.

DAIRY PRODUCTS FAIRLY STEADY

Corn and Oats Advanced, and Other Cereals Are Strong.

NO NEW FEATURES IN GROCERY LINES

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, TUESDAY, July 7. COUNTRY PRODUCE (Jobbing Prices)—The supply of raspberries to-day was the largest of the season, and proved beyond the power of our markets to absorb. There were not less than 1,500 crates in the hands of commission men this morning, and markets weak ened on the too heavy receipts. Shippers of fruits will find little encouragement from results of this week. The expected advance in Elgin creamery butter failed to materialize. At Eigin last week's prices were reaffirmed at the M enday meeting. New Swiss cheese is now coming in freely, and the old has passed away for this season. Ohio cheese is still abundant and quiet. Fresh eggs that are above suspicion are firm at quotations.

The untimely cool weather of late has checked the upward movement of lemons, and prices are a shade lower. Oranges are scarce and firm, and bananas are steady. California oranges are close to the end of their career for this season.

CONTROLLER GRIER OUT.

The County Commissioners Refuse to Settle With Him for Outside Attorneys Fees-He Will Probably Push His Claim-Other Court News.

Clouds have again risen to disturb the serenity presumably existing between the County Commissioners' and Controller's offices. Yesterday the commissioners refused to issue a warrant to reimburse Controller Grier for the attorney's fees he paid in the trouble over the matter of the county depository and in doing away with the pos tion of Deputy Coroner Berry. In the depository and in doing away with the position of Deputy Coroner Berry. In the Berry case Messrs, Robb & Pitzsimmons were retained by the Controller and their bill was $500, which the Controller paid out of his own pocket. The same lawvers received $250 fees in the case brought against the Controller, Trensurer and Commissioners by Alex Glifillan over the question of selecting a county depository. There was also a bill for $41 for printing the paper book for the Supreme Court in the last named case.

Both cases were won by Controller Grier.
He paid the bills and yesterday made a request for a warrant for the amount. The commissioners, however, refused to issue it.
They gave a warrant for the Controller's counsel fees in the amicable suit with the commissioners over the salary board question, but the other two cases they declined to pay. The reason they advanced was that the county had a regular Solicitor, who is paid a salary, and they had no right to pay outside lawyers in suits incurred by the Controller.

Controller Grier, thought, the county

outside lawyers in suits incurred by the Controller.
Controller Grier thought the county should pay the bills. In both cases the county's interests were at stake. In the case of Deputy Coroner Berry the county was saved a matter of about $300 a month in the deputy's fees, while in the Gilfillan case the safety of the county's funds were at stake, a depository at once being a necessity. He retained Attorneys Robb & Fitzsimmons because he thought they could win the suits, and they did. What action the Controller will take he has not decided.
