It is known, however, that he is here looking after his interests in some real estate which had been bequenthed to him, but which had been sold during his absence. In 1871 his father presented a petition in court, stating that he believed his son was dead, and later took out letters of administration and sold the property, which consisted of the valuable lot in the center of the town now owned by Charles Duffy, also a farm of 179 acres of land one mile north of the borough, on which the oil well of Gibson & Co... about which there is so much excitement at this

VESTEEDAY'S ASSOCIATION GAMES. 2 Columbus Athletics . .12 Louisville. St. Louis...... 6 Washington..... 5 Boston 6 Cincinnati 1

Our sluggers lost one of the poorest played ball games yesterday ever seen on the home grounds. It was so badly played, not only on their part but on the part of the visitors, that it would require an infinite amount of nerve to make an excuse for it. It was a bad affair from beginning to end, and that's all there is about it. The mistakes and blunders, as far as the home team were concerned, were scattered among our best men. Of course, that is just what would be expected from such Jonahs as the Phillies. And the mistakes, often made by reliable men, were just made in time to give the visitors some runs.

Beckley's Bad Error

For instance, one time when two men were out the batter knocked up a foul fly and strange to say, dropped it. Beckley very rarely, indeed, does a thing like that, but as fareit, indeed, does a taning like tank, datas fate would have it he committed the blunder, and instead of the side being out two runs were the result. And so it went on. But King also pitched a very ragged and unreliable game. True, his support was bad, but, as in Friday's game, when matters were close, the first and last runs were the result of bases on balls. Looking at the game in this light King couldn't very well complain of defeat.

The weather was excellent, lots of sunshine and a refreshing breeze. There were 1,400 people present, and that wasn't bad considering it was Monday. Once or twice there was some enthusiasm among the spectators because of the closeness of the score, but the home talent performed with so much unreliability that one was almost afraid to shout. Reilly was the bright particular star of the day. He fielded in very brilliant style, and on one occasion Carroll unde a splendid throw to the plate, heading de a splendid throw to the plate, heading

The home players began in the first inning as if they were going to gobble up Harry Wright's lot without sait. Miller got his base on balls and got to second and third on a passed ball. Beckley then scored him on a single to right and a hit by Shugart and an error by Allen scored Beckley. Two sacrifice hits by Bierbaner and Mack and Hanlon's single scored Shugart. In the next uning Bellly led off with a single and King got his base on balls. A passed ball, a sacrifice hit by Miller and errors by Allen and Clements scored both the runners. In the sixth linning Allen's fumble allowed Carroli to reach first and he scored on the sacrifice hits of Reilly and King and Miller's single to left. This tied the score and there was any amount of rejoicing. ome players began in the first inning

How the Game Was Won

The visitors made one in the first on Hom. filton's base on balls, a wild pitch and two sacrifice hits. In the third Gleason made a single, and then Hamilton and Thornton were retired. Delchanty came with a double to right, sending Gleason to third. A single by Clements after he should have been out on a foul fly which Beckley dropped, scored the two runs. In the fourth inning Shindle led off the second half with a double to right, and then second half with a double to right, and then Brown's fly was caught by Shugart. Allen followed with a fly to Miller, and the latter dropped it, allowing Allen to reach second and shindle scored. Gleason followed with a lit to center and Allen scored, Gleason going to second on the throw in. He stole third and got home on a wild throw to third by Mack.

The score was tied until the ninth inning, but in the eighth the home players had three but in the eighth the home players had three men on bases with two men out. Shugart was at the bat and the best be could do was to knack a long fly, which Delehanty caught to kneck a long fly, which Delelianty caught and the side was retired.

In the second half of the ninth inning with the score tied, Clements led off and got his base on balls. Then Myers fouled out to fleckley, but King also gave Shindle his base on balls and Big Bill Brown ended the argument by cracking out a single past King into center field, Clements scoring the winning run. Their Club Must Be Taken by the Association or Sold Publicly. LOUISVILLE, KY., July 13.-It is reported here that a proposition has been made to the American Baseball Association to transfer to the Association the franchise and players of the Louisville club to be oper-ated during the remainder of the season. With the Falls City Bank failure it becomes necessary to pay the debt owed by the club to that institution. The amount is $6,500. None of the directors nor stockhold-ers have been found willing so far to ad-vance the money and there is no such amount in the treasury. The club will prob-ably be sold or the Association take charge.

Wooster Called Down,

The following challenge explains itself We the undersigned, the Eclipse Baseball Club, of East Liverpool, O., hereby challenge the D'Nices, of Wooster, O., to play a game the D Nices, of Wooster, O., to play a game of baseball at Alliance, O., on any date suitable to both parties, for $100 a side and the entire gate receipts. The same players to be used in this game that played in the game at Wooster on July 9 and 10 between these clubs. The reason we issue this challenge is that we were robbed of one game at Wooster on July 9, and because they could not rob us on July 9, and because they could not rob us of the game on July 10 gave us $25 less than our expenses, when the agreement was we were to have expenses.

A Western Club Disbands. Kazsas Cirk, July 13.—A special from Omaha, Neb., says: The Omaha Baseball Club, of the Western Association, disbanded this morning. It is said that the owner of the club, Mr. McCormick, has lost $2,000 already this season, and the citizens of Omaha have refused to guarantee $4,000, which sum is necessary to complete the season. The players will join American Association clubs.

> Beat the Jeannettes. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

ALLIANCE, July 13.-The Jeannettes, the champion ball players of Western Pennsylvania, crossed bats this afternoon with the Union College team. The game was warmly contested throughout and resulted in a score of 8 to 5 in favor of the college team. Tomorrow afternoon the Jeannettes play the Alliance team, and, as they are evenly matched, a great game is expected.

An Important Meeting.

There will be an important meeting of the directors of the local ball club to-day. If all accounts are true there may be a lively time and something will be done regarding the management of the team. So far it has been claimed several people were managing; to-day probably the managership will be reposed in one man, and that will be a wise step if it is taken.

ustin Gibbons Comes to the Front and Offers to Fight Jack McAuliffe for the American Lightweight Championship-A Very Business-Like Challenge Issued to the Champion.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] NEW YORK, July 13.-To-day James Gibons, Charley Norton, of New York, and Malley Coffee, of Hoboken, N. J., and a delegation of New Jersey sporting men called at the Police Gazette office to issue a challenge to Jack McAuliffe, to fight for the lightweight championsnip of America. Gibbons left the following challenge, and, judging from the business-like offer, McAuliffe will have no opportuity to ignore it:

"Jack McAuliffe, of Brooklyn, holds the Police Gazette lightweight championship belt, which represents the championship of America. Austin Gibbons, who has just re-turned from England, where he was victorious over Jem Verrall, the English light weight champion, is now eager to win the lightweight championship of America, so that he can return to England when he goes to fight Dick Burge or Jem Carney, as the representative lightweight champion of America representative lightweight champion of America.

"I will match my brother to fight Jack McAuliffe for $2,000 a side, the fight to take place in any club: that will offer a purse of $3,000; in fact, any purse that will suit Mr. McAuliffe will us me. Austin Gibbons, with his backer, will meet Jack McAuliffe and his backer at the Police Gazette office at 10 A. M. on Thursday, July 16, to post $500 deposit and arrange a match. If McAuliffe is the champion he will be on hand. If he fails, my brother will claim the Police Gazette belt and the lightweight championship and fight all comers for that title. We mean business, and are not playing a bluff.

A NEW ATHLETIC UNION.

The Question of Sunday Games Responsible for This New Move.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH)
St. Louis, July 18.—A new athletic association, called the Western Association of to-day as a result of the refusal of the Amateur Union to permit open meetings in the West on Sunday. A meeting of representative athletic clubs of St. Louis, Belleville and Chicago was held, and the delegates present condemned the action of the A. A. U, in regard to Sunday games.

Such games, it was stated, are necessary to the welfare of Western athletics, and the delegation believed this point should have been conceded in the interest of harmony. Local Swimming Contests.

The swimming contests at the Natatorium last evening attracted some 500 spectators, including many ladies. The results were as including many ladies. The results were as follows: Water polo match—Pittsburg ball club versus Natatorium team, a tie, one goal each. Four lengths amateur handicap—First, W. Flowers, scratch; second, John Taylor, 3 seconds: third, C. Gipner, 3 seconds: fourth, C. Wenskowsky, 5 seconds. Won by three yards, two yards between second and third. Time, 66½ seconds. Ninety yards handicap for boys under 15 years—First, Joe McGaw, 15 years, 5 seconds start; second, Harry Goodwyn, 9 years, 20 seconds; third, Ed Menke, 14 years, 7 seconds. Won by a bare yard, four yards between second and third.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] McKEESPORT, July 13.—Patrick Morrissey, the local sprinter, says in response to the desire of Edward Kinsey to hear from some of the local runners that he will run Kinsey 100 yards for from $100 to $500 if Kinsey will allow him two yards start. Morrissey is a workingman and is engaged, but if Kinsey will respond through The Disparch he will meet him anywhere he will name. He would like to arrange a race with him at once and would like to hear from him promptly.

It Was a Tie.

The polo match played last evening at the Natatorium between the Natatorium team and a team selected from members of the tested and exciting contest. Each side had a goal to its credit when the alloted time was up. The Pittsburg ball players' team were Beckley, Berger, Carroll, Baldwin, Fields and Graves.

Hammond Will Run Cramer. Tom Hammond, the sprinter, of Duquesne, writes this paper to the following effect: He will run John Cramer, of Pittsburg, 100 yards on even terms for $250 a side; or he will concede Ed Kinsey or Beatty each one and a half yards start in 103 yards for $250 a side. An answer through this paper will be attended to.

Lena Weinberg, for 30 years housekeeper of, the old Huff House, and the discovery after her death of about $12,000 in gold coin stowed away under false bottoms in her trunks. With this money she was about to return to her native land, Sweden, and had shipped the trunks to Baltimore, but in a moment of insane frenzy took her own life just as the time arrived for departure. The money was paid over to her heirs in Sweden.

A sequel now turns up scarcely less interesting than the initial. On Saturday evening her executor, E. A. Goedtzen, had his attention drawn to an old piano stool that had been used by the woman Lena and taking it to pieces there was found a further sum of $13,000 in gold which the miserly housekeeper had evidently stowed away. There are various themes as to where she obtained so much money. One of them is that the real owner is Colonel Cockrell, the former proprietor of the Huff House. It is probable a lawsuit will follow. THE Reynoldsville ball team defeated the Brook-villes yesterday by 1 to 0. THE Twilights defeated the P., V.& C. Brakemen resterday in a ball game by 20 to 13. "JOCKO" FIELDS was unconditionally released by the local ball club last evening. He will be a useful catcher for some team. John Hrally, who is at home in Cairo, Ill., reports that his knee is mending slowly; that it will be some time in August before he will be able to play again. He is to go to Hot Springs.

THE scullers' race which was fixed to take place to-morrow between Albert Denmarsh and P. Pickett has been postponed for two or three weeks owing to the sickness of Denmarsh. LUTHER CARY'S record of 9½ seconds for running 100 yards may not be allowed by the Amateur Athletic Union after all, for many people who witnessed the trial think that the Princeton demon got a start that assisted him considerably. Among those who are of that opinion is "Sam" See, who officiated as timer. See says that he did not like the start at all. He says that when the pistol was fired Cary was already in motion, and believes that he got at least two yards the best of the start. Mr. See's time for Cary's effort was 94-5 seconds. He believes that Cary is a great runner, but he thinks he cannot do better than the time anonunced by him under any conditions. FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.1 Washington, July 13.—It is only a ques tion of a few months when the type-setting machine will be given a trial in the Govern-ment printing office, and if the machine can do all that is claimed for it, it will unques-tionably be adopted by Uncle Sam. Several weeks ago Public Printer Palmer and Cap-tain Brian, Foreman of Printing, went over He Returns to Claim Possession of a Valuto New York for the purpose of inspecting the workings of the Morganthaler and the able Property Left by His Father-He Thorn type-setting machines. They remained in New York almost a week, wit-Served in the Civil War and Is Now a nessed the work of the machine and were surprised at the perfection attained. Neither Public Printer Palmer nor Fore-BUTLER, July 13.—Considerable excitement has been created here by the return of W. R. man Brian have committed themselves on Crozier, a native of this place, who has been subject. They speak in high terms of supposed to be dead for upward of 20 years, the Morganthaler and the Thorn machines. In 1864 he left Butler to attend a fair held in Pittsburg for the benefit of They did not see the Roger typograph machine, which has been adopted by the leading papers of New York, and therefore were unable to make a comparison of its work with the other machines.

In speaking of his visit to New York, Public Printer Palmer said to The Dispartic correspondent: "The geatlemen interested in the type-setting machines gave us all the information in their possession on the subject. They did not seem surprised at our visit, but intimated that the time was soon at hand when the Government would be called upon to give the type-setting machine a trial. The machine is truly wonderful, and sets type with almost human intelligence."

His father was opposed to his leaving home again, and, learning that he had secured passage for Pittsburg in the stage that ran through here, took his valise from the coach, hoping to thus prevent the boy's going. The young man went to the city, however, and not until to-day did his family hear of

He was known to have left Pittsburg a few days after, probably enlisting in the service, but of this nothing definite was known. Mr. Crozier now says that after leaving here he assumed the name of Boyd, which he still adheres to, and under which he draws a pension of $30 a month for service. Now, he walks the streets, after an absence of years, and but few of his old friends are living, and even of those there are still fewer who recognize in the battle-scarred veteran the bright young boy who left here so many years ago. And to make the mystery still deeper, he not only refuses to give any history of his life, but he also declines to be interviewed as to his real identity. Opinion of an Old Printer. Representative James D. Richardson, of Tennessee, an old printer and member of the House Committee on Printing, has given onsiderable thought to the subject. He said to your correspondent that he was aware that while Public Printer Palmer and Captain Brian were in New York they had examined the type-setting machines and were much pleased with their operation. "I cannot say at this time," said he, "that the type-setting machine will be adopted by the Government for use in the printing office. I have heard some talk, however, that it was possible that the various type-setting machines would in the very near future be given a trial there. I think Congress will consider the question next winter. In my judgment the Committee on Printing, in conjunction with the Printing Committee of the Senate, or perhaps a special committee to act with us, will be appointed to examine into the practicability and workings of the different type-setting machines. Expert testimony would no doubt be taken as to the durability of the machine and the cost of operation. tain Brian were in New York they had ost of operation.

which the oil well of Gibson & Co.. about which there is so much excitement at this time, is located.

It is altogether likely that the queer affair will be brought into court, as the supposed dead man intends to establish his right to the land in question. It is said by lawyers that time did not debar him from the lands he once owned, as his father had a life estate in, and was in possession of the property until the time of his death, which occurred four years ago. The strange Mr. Crezier, or, as he is called, Mr. Boyd, is attracting a great deal of attention, and when the case gets into court an interesting history will certainly be brought out. The Claims Made for It. "It has been stated that one type-setting nachine can do the work of three or four nen and at a very low cost. If the experiment proves successful and it can be demonstrated that the Government can save a considerable sum, then in my judgment Uncle Sam will avail himself of the benefit of the labor-saving machine. It may be that

It will not limit production, but on the contrary will increase it. The type-setting has produced wonderful results.

Printing Will Be Cheaper.

Printing Will Be Cheaper. "I think that in a few years the majority of our newspapers will be set up by the type-setting machine. It will cheapen the cost of production and the workingman and farmer will receive the benefit. The appropriation for the printing office has steadily been on the increase, caused by the growth of the of the Haitian capital on sunes. Capital McKay went ashore and found the city perfectly quiet and peaceful. He said that the inhabitants seemed to be just recovering from the effects of the massacre of Maying for the Government in the cost of printing, you may depend on it that Congress will carefully consider all the facts to be had on the subject." McKay went ashore and found the city perfectly quiet and peaceful. He said that the inhabitants seemed to be just recovering from the effects of the massacre of May 28. Traces of the shooting were plainly visible in the streets and on the houses.

There is no doubt now that 300 persons were killed during the week beginning May 28. It is also known that 4,000 troops were stationed in the courtyard of the Palace on the morning of the outbreak, and that it was they who were turned loose on the town to shoot at will when the prison was attacked.

The Athos met the Haitian gunboat Deseline at Conaives on a secret mission to Cape Haiti. There was but one man-of-war, a Frenchman, in the harbor during the stay of the Athos.

It is said that Senator Hawley is largely interested in the Thorn machine, and that he regards that machine as coming nearer to perfection than any other type-setting machine. Senator Hawley is a member of the Senate Committee on Printing, and will no doubt have considerable influence in securing a trial for the machine in the printing office. One authority estimates that the introduction of machine type-setting at the Government Printing Office would effect a saving of over $1,000,000 a year. saving of over $1,000,000 a year

In regard to political affairs, Captain Mc-Kay was very reficent. He said that the public opinion of the United States representatives, and especially of Bassett, was substantially as had been stated by the Haitian refugee whose views were recently published in the Sun. He added, however, that public opinion is often wrong, and declined to give his own.

With regard to Minister Douglass, he said that the Haitians had no respect whatever for him. He drives around town in what is called a "one-horse buss," and does not live in the dignified style becoming a representative of his order. His only entertainment of visitors consists in offering them Jamaica rum. The report was current that Mr. Douglass had left Port au Prince because the Government of Hippolyte did not care to have any more diplomatic intercourse with this country.

Private letters to the firm of Jimenes, Haustedt & Co. state that all is peaceful in Haiti, and that the Jacmel massacre was purely fiction. It is reported that the Baltimore Fruit Company has failed.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] WASHINGTON, July 13 .- One of the heaviest place in the Government employ is scheduled for August 1. At that time 1,000 clerks will be discharged and ten days later 300 or 400 more will be released from the Govern-ment service. The force of the Census Office will be somewhat attenuated as compared with what it was, but there will still be left quite a respectable force. After the time mentioned there will be some 400 clerks in the population division, 200 in the division of farms and mortgages and 300 in the other divisions, making a total of 300 clerks. The highest number employed in the Census Office has been about 3 200, but since June 1 the force has been reduced from time to time.

In addition to the discharges which have been made, and which are mainly confined to the three-months force, there has been a general reduction of salaries, so that those who are exempted from sitting in the chair of the electrocutionist have undergone a process almost as painful, in the loss of a certain proportion of their monthly pay. The reduction has followed along the line of the various grades. the various grades.

At the club house of the New York Yaent Club the yeartsmen floated in during the afternoon with solemn faces, for although Mr. Burgess was not a member of the club he had great weight in its deliberations and was loved by all yachtmen who knew him. It was a noticeable fact that his rivals in the field of yacht designing have always manifested the greatest fondness for him.

In yachting the name of Edward Burgess is known the world over. As a designer of three successful cup defenders, the Puritan, Mayflower and Volunteer, he acquired an international reputation that will always remain a prominent St. Louis, July 13 .- The Knapp-Stout Lumber Company, about whose sale to the English syndicate there have been many un founded rumors lately, has entered incorporation, with a capital stock of $6,000,-000. CORONER LEVY WILL CONSULT BE-FORE HE DIGS SMILER'S BODY UP.

Attorney General Tabor Says He Has No Right to Touch the Body of a Man Killed by Process of Law-The Case Beyond His Control. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH,)

ALBANY, July 13 .- Attorney-General Tabor said to-night to the reporter that in his opinion Coroner Levy would be guilty of a misdemeanor if he digs up the body of murderer Smiler, killed by electricity at Sing Sing. The Coroner, according to the Attorney. General, had no warrant or authority for his contemplated action.
"It is utterly beyond his control," said Mr. Tabor. "There never was, so far as I can find out, a law requiring a Coroner to hold an autopsy on an executed murderer. Now, find out, a law requiring a Coroner to hold an autopsy on an executed murderer. Now, in the present case, the law requires that a post mortem by a competent surgeon shall be held after an execution and the result attached to the certificate which the 12 witnesses are required to sign, and this document is filed with the County Clerk of the county where the prison is located. Nothing else is contemplated by the law, and a further post mortem after all the requirements of the law have been met would be an impertinence.

"More than that, the dutles of a Coroner to day are limited and expressly fixed by statute. He may inquire into the deaths of suicides, physicians found murdered, and the like, where the cause is unknown; but the execution of a criminal according to law, after his case has gone through the highest courts in the land, is not a subject of Coroner inquest.

"Everybody knows how this man came by his death, and if Coroner Levy persists in digging him up, he is guilty of a misdemeanor under the section of the code which makes it a misdemeanor for any one to disturb or dissect a body without authority of law. Coroner Levy has no such authority and would render himself liable to a fine of $250, a year's imprisonment, or both.

"I do not say Governor Hill would remove him, if he does it, but I do say that if I was Governor I would remove him as soon as he had thus wilfully exceeded his powers. In England, a century or so ago, the Coroner was a very important personage and his powers great, but to-day, under the present status of the law, scarce a vestige of that great power remains, and Coroner Levy or any other Coroner who aggregates to himself unwarranted authority will certainly get into trouble. I think he will find that witnesses he may summon will not answer his queries, and if he subpoenas Warden Brown I shall advise the Warden not to go."

A dispatch from New York says: When the dispatch came from A libany a reporter showedit to Mr. Levy. It took the Coroner by surprise. He decided on the spot that

New York, July 13 .- Cables from Chile to day state that an attempt to capture Gov ernment cruisers "Almerante Lynch" and 'Almerante Condell" at Valparaiso bribing the crews was discovered by the Government, and the leaders of the scheme put in prison. On Tuesday and Friday of last week the insurgents engaged the Government forces in battle at Coquimbo and were defeated with great loss of life.

They resolved upon the attack as soon as they heard of the recent decision of the French courts releasing two of the Government's ironciads, and thought that if battle was not given at once before the arrival of the ironclads there would be no chance of victory. All the insurgent vessels left liquique and Nitrate ports for the south with the result given above.
