THE DRIFT OF A DAY IN THE COURTS

Yesterday was a pretty busy day in the Criminal Court. John Shaub was placed on trial for receiving stolen goods in the shape of a lot of oil well supplies stolen from Suess & Hayden, of Ross township, last February. The evidence in the case was not sufficient to show the defendant had been guilty of receiving stolen goods, but it lid show that he was guilty of the larceny of the goods. According to instructions from Judge Stowe, the jury returned a verdiet of not guilty, and the defendant, instead of being discharged, was ordered placed under $500 bail to answer at the next wilty on a charge of selling liquor without license before Judge Stowe. The prosecutor was Mrs. Eliza Slattery. The result of this mit ends rather a peculiar story. Charles Welsberg and James Slattery were formerly unductors on the Pittsburg and Birmingcoursel in which Weishers was badly chief Engineer of the Fire Bureau. Scores on the opassible choice have most add on which he sued Stattery for aggravated assault and battery. This case was tried about two weeks ago, when Statery was convicted and sent to the work-house for one year. Mrs. Stattery took up he fight in behalf of her son, and as a result moceoded in convicting Weisberg, who will probably be sent to keep his former companion company.

An Interesting Case for Jewelers.
There was a case tried before Judge Stowe, the result of which will be interesting to all jewelers hereabouts. It was that of Harry Cohen, a Chartiers township Jeweler, who was sued for farcing by brilee. The prosecutor in the case was William Lancy, and the evidence as adduced showed the following Some two months aged this watch, to be repaired. About a week later Mr. Lancy called at the store for his watch. Mr. Cohen informed him he could not let him have it, as the half loaned it out to another man who had left his watch to be repaired. Some days after a month of the same value as his own, $25. Mr. Lancy refused his watch, and was once more informed his watch, and was once more informed his watch to be repaired. THE County Commissioners and Controller met vesterday as the Salary Board and formally reappointed P. W. Siebert, H. T. Rowley and W. W. Murray as the clerical force in the County Commissioners' office. In the equity suit of J. M. Oakley and others against the Duquesne Traction Com-pany, in reference to the smokestack of the Duquesne power house, a rule was issued on the defendants yesterday to plead, answer or demur within 30 days.

STEPHEN COLLINS yesterday filed a defense to the application of his wife, Marie Collins, to the application of his wife, Marie Collins, for maintenance during divorce proceedings. Mr. Collins says he has been unable to obtain work, and the only income he has is $1,000 a year, which he gets from the Jr. O. U. A. M. for services. This, he says, will cease september 1 next, and that as he has already received $900 of the amount, he can't be expected to give very much toward counsel fees. The rule will be argued this morning.

CANNOT BE HURRIED.

The Appointment of a Chief Engineer Will Not Come for Some Days Yet-Underwriters Pleased With the Provisions of the New Ordinance.

Chief Brown does not propose to be hurried in the least in the appointment of a Chief Engineer of the Fire Bureau. Scores of speculations on the possible choice have not advanced the appointment a day. The City Ordinance. A great many people, while anxious to see the unsightly and dangerous telegraph, telephone, street car and electric light wires come down, are not satisfied to have them come down, are not satisfied to have them buried, as at present is the plan. They say telephones would be practically useless as at any moment they might be forced by the burning out of a wire to borrow their neighbor's instrument for perhaps an hour or 35 hours before the injury be repaired. Business and professional men who have discarded old-time methods of doing business could scarce get along without the telephone
