

ONE MORE RAILROAD.

The Pennsylvania System Secures an Entry Into McKeesport

BY THE COMPLETION OF A BRIDGE.

A Cigar Box Containing a Little Corpse Is Found in the River.

MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.

MCKEESPORT, July 14.—The first passenger train to pass over the new bridge of the Pennsylvania Railroad system, by which the McKeesport and Bessemer line reaches the city, was last evening when a new engine hauling a pretty good load of freight...

HOPES FOR THE HUN RIOTERS.

One of Three Condemned to Death Has a Mysterious Double.

BRADDOCK, July 14.—Strong efforts will be made to save the three Hungarians under sentence of death for the murder of Michael Quinn last New Year's day. Besides a letter written to the Pardon Board by the dead man's sister, there are other people interested in the affair...

AN ENGINEER'S BRAVE ACT.

He Climbers Out on the Pilot and Throws a Child Off the Track.

FREEDRY, July 14.—At Desher this morning a freight train ran over two little children of Charles Gilmore, killing the younger, aged 3 years, and injuring the other severely, her only being saved by the heroic action of the engineer...

A FLOATING CIGAR BOX.

It Contained the Body of a Newly Born Infant in the Youngbloods River.

MCKEESPORT, July 14.—About 2 o'clock today several small boys captured a suspicious-looking cigar box floating near the shore in the Youngbloods river, at the foot of Third avenue. Upon inspection it was found to contain the body of a newly born infant...

A RAPID TRANSIT TRICYCLE.

The Rider Can Wheel It 40 Miles an Hour, With Better Possibilities.

MR. PLEASANT, July 14.—Frank Gruffy, of this place, is the inventor of a peculiarly constructed machine, built on principles somewhat similar to those of a tricycle. It has five sets of gears, so arranged as to be most conducive to safety...

FITZGERALD'S CHANCES FOR LIFE.

His Case in the Hands of a Jury, With Chances in His Favor.

YOUNGSTOWN, July 14.—Judge Robinson this afternoon handed over to the jury the case of William E. Fitzgerald, charged with the murder of Officer Freed, and at 2:30 o'clock sent them to their rooms.

PARKERSBURG'S STRANGE MYSTERY.

A Man Found Unconscious Several Days Ago Dies From Unknown Causes.

PARKERSBURG, July 14.—Charles Penno, the young painter, who was found unconscious in bed at his boarding house several days since, and whose case mystified the whole medical fraternity, died yesterday.

ONE OF LIGHTNING'S PRANKS.

It Shocks a Little Girl Lying on a Sofa, Destroying Her Clothing.

FRANKLIN, July 14.—During an electric storm this afternoon lightning struck a wire clothes line in the yard of the residence owned by Charles Stone. The fluid then ran along the wire, entered the sitting room and jumped to the sofa where Mr. Stone's little daughter was lying reading. The little girl's clothing was completely destroyed, and she was severely though not seriously shocked.

FEW CHANGES IN THE SCALE.

Committees of the Flint Glassworkers Busy at Steubenville.

STUEBENVILLE, July 14.—The convention of the American Flint Glassworkers' Union is still in session here and the many committees are quietly at work.

A TRAGEDY AT MANSFIELD.

William Snyder, a Local Literary Light, Meets Death by Accident.

MANSFIELD, Pa., July 14.—William J. Snyder, aged 21 years, had his foot caught between the rails in the yard of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and was run down and terribly crushed. He died soon after. The young man was employed as a yard clerk. At the literary entertainment to which he was to be one of the chief attractions.

A Fatal Stabbing Affray.

PARKERSBURG, July 14.—John C. Chas. of Chas. & Co., and James Cash, of Shinn & Co., merchants at Chas. & Co., about 14 miles from here, had an altercation which ended in Chas. & Co. being stabbed to death.

Killed by a Snake Bite.

PARKERSBURG, July 14.—Mrs. A. Archer, wife of a farmer in Jackson county, was bitten by a copperhead snake a day or two ago. All known remedies failed to give relief. The woman died yesterday in great agony.

Bradock's New Street Railroad.

BRADDOCK, July 14.—The first cars will run over the new street railway here on Saturday next. The first cars will be put on to run between Rankin and Bessemer, the route being about two miles.

A MILLIONAIRE TAX DODGER.

His Returns to the Assessor Were Only on a Gold Watch and Two Buggies. AKRON, July 14.—In a suit just filed against Thomas W. Cornell, President of the First National Bank, and the richest man in this city, County Treasurer Seymour asks Judge...
