DERSONAL—WHY NOT EDUCATE YOUR—SELFP Why allow your children to remain ignorant or search in vain for knowledge while the only correct reprint of the great Emyclopadia Britannica knocks at your door for admission? This work is a libeary in Itself, a weritable storehouse of knowledge, Into its treasury the crowned heads of the kingdom of brains have noured their offering. It is well termed the king of its tribe and the monumental work of English literature. Here-tofore the cost of this great work has placed it beyond the reach of most people. This bar to its popular use has now been removed by the completion of a flathful reprint of this mighty work. The 24-800 pages of text, 8,000 illustrations and 500 maps are reproduced with absolute fidelity, not a single line, nor an illustration, nor map being omitted. Our reprint is the only faithful one, and consists of 80 volumes, which includes the 5 volumes of American Supplement. Price, 8 20 per volume. Sold on easy navments. JULY, 19, 1891. Many advertisements contain glowing descriptions, but result in disappointment when investigated. We have a certain house on Stanton avenue, E. E., of which much might be written, the truth of which will be apparent on sight. It is built of brick, sets back 20 feet from street, contains 9 rooms, has hardwood finish, and all the modern conveniences. It is honestly and substantially built, and the plan is modern in every detail. We will sell it on easy terms; the price is low; we WALLS TERRACE PLAN. want your judgment on it. FREE RAILROAD EXCURSION

WALLS STATION,

ON LINE OF P. R. R.,

SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1801.

We cordially invite everybody to come with us on this important day, as you will have an opportunity of combining pleasure with business, and we are confident you will not fail to purchase a lot in the

On SATURDAY, August 1, 1891, this very pretty plan of lots will be placed before the public for sale. It comprises some 200 choice lots on a nicely elevated, gently sloping terrace: Natural drainage. The commanding view from any of these lots overlooking Walls and surrounding country is simply grand. WHERE IS WALLS STATION?

A great many people will ask. It is but 15 miles from Pittsburg, on main line of P. R. R., and is destined to be the largest railroad yards in the world. See what the Pennsylvania Railroad has done at Altoona. From present indications we will exceed Altoona,

OUR ADVANTAGES.

We do not need to contend with gas failures, factory strikes and such other matters as are usually found in other towns. No. We have the Pennsylvania Railroad to back us. The works, such as car shops, machine shops, round house, etc., are all in running order, employing at present some 1,500 experienced hands.

INDUCEMENTS.

To all purchasers of lots, if building be erected thereon within 6 months of purchase, we will furnish building stone at merely cost of quarrying, as we have both coal and stone on the premises. $100 TO $1,000 EACH,

10 per cent on day of sale, 15 per cent additional on delivery of deed, balance in 3 equal annual payments, bearing legal interest, payable semi-annually. All cash purchasers will receive a discount of 10 per

WALLS TERRACE PLAN OF LOTS Are but 5 minutes' walk from the station. The entire plan has a south-eastern exposure. Size of lots range from 25x100 to 40x100. A PUBLIC QUESTION.

Why do you sell these lots so cheap when other lots at Walls sold for twice your prices? Our reply is easily understood. We are the original owners of the land; we are no syndicate; had we been obliged to purchase this land for speculation, naturally we would have been obliged also to ask more for the lots.
