

AN AUSTRIAN HALL

Dedicated at Johnstown by a Large Musical Assemblage.

THREE BANDS DISCOURSE MUSIC.

Strange Case of a Small Boy Who Predicted His Own Death.

SELECTED THE SUIT FOR HIS BURIAL

Johnstown, July 20.—This evening the Austrian Musical Society dedicated their handsome new hall. All day they have been preparing for the event, which was a brilliant one in the foreign circles here.

Consul Max Schamburg, of Pittsburg, arrived here this morning accompanied by 22 members of the Austrian Society of Pittsburg, who were at once taken in charge by a committee.

The local Austrian Society numbers about 100 members, and the hall will be used for their meetings and entertainments.

The lower floor is one large hall for dancing and other purposes, while the other is divided into lecture rooms.

At 7 o'clock to-night the exercises began with a musical number by the Huzzaar, Band, followed by a short speech, or "test" speech, was made by John Vorsetz, formerly of this city, but lately of Wheeling. This was beautifully delivered, with the American colors prominent on every side, while the tuners, the harmonie, the German violin, and the Mandolin, all in the building to overtake.

The music was excellent, and every movement of the dancing programme was encored. Mrs. Vorsetz, in her humorous recitations, was inimitable, though nothing that was said could be understood by the Americans present, with the possible exception of the music. After the regular exercises there was a call for speeches, and a number of general speakers recommended among them being Consul Max Schamburg, who made a few happy remarks upon the society and their guests.

After the elegiac dinner was served, at which a number of toasts were made, when the party joined the ladies in a dance in the new hall, the festivities lasting until long after midnight.

STATE SCHOOL FUNDS.

Some Plan to be Devised Whereby They May Be Released.

HARRISBURG, July 20.—Attorney General Husted will hold a conference on Wednesday with the State school superintendents of Public Instruction Waller, whose claim to that office was recently declared invalid. The proposed conference is to arrange if possible some means to release the State school funds, which are now tied up pending a final settlement of the dispute.

If an arrangement can be made $2,000,000 will be paid out at once. Of this amount $1,500,000 will go to the State schools, $500,000 to the graduates of the normal schools (who receive $50 each), and about $400,000 to the several superintendents to be distributed to teachers. The decision against Waller (which also declared that Dr. Snyder was ineligible because his appointment was not ratified by the Legislature) was made by Factory Inspector Watchorn, who is now spending his honeymoon in Europe, and has not yet been made aware of his unsuccess.

PREMISED HIS DEATH.

A small boy selects the suit he desires to be buried in.

FINDLAY, July 20.—A strange case, illustrating the rapidity with which death comes to many regardless of age, has just occurred in this city. The favorite child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell, aged about 5 years, was at a neighbor's house one week ago last Saturday and told a lady there that he was going to die during the coming week. The lady paid little attention to the child's prophecy, imagining it was only a break of his tiny brain. The very next day the little fellow was taken down with a trifling ailment.

The mother, however, was going to die and selected the suit he wished to be buried in. The mother was not greatly worried by his talk at the time, but she did not dream that the child was dying in earnest.

Within three days he was dead, and his little body was buried in the very clothes he had selected when he was apparently in good health.

THIRD BRIGADE IN CAMP.

Wind and Water Strike Through Their Tents Most Uncomfortably.

Mr. GRIFFIN, July 20.—Shortly after daybreak this morning the garrison of the garrison of the Third Brigade were awakened by a terrific windstorm, accompanied by rain and hail. The torrents of rain poured through the light canvas tents and thoroughly drenched the soldiers, who were hardly half awake.

Major J. H. Harrington, Captain Taylor and Lottie Hay, of Harrington, were arrested by two Pinkerton men. One of the soldiers pulled his revolver and tried to shoot the Pinkerton men, but was prevented from doing so by his companion escaped. The troops are making great preparations for the reception of Governor Partition, who is to arrive here Wednesday, to inspect the troops, and a lively brushing up of accoutrements is going on.

TRAMPS DO MORE THIEVING.

A McKersie House Robbed While the People Were Away.

McKERSIE, July 20.—A bold robbery is reported from Bissell, the terminus of the Baltimore and Ohio accommodation train, located about a mile above here. Thieves gained an entrance to the residence of Mr. Lamont and received $100 from his room boxes, and from the boxes of his son, who had been saving up the money to take a trip to the old country.

The family were away from the house at the time, and the robbers found the door open and trunks, drawers, etc., had been forced open. It is believed that the robbers were men who have been hanging around in the vicinity of the house for the past few days.

ANTI-LICENSE VICTORIOUS.

Another Attempt to Change the Existing Law Defeated.

MORNINGTON, July 20.—The Town Council of Mornington, W. Va., voted yesterday to last of this month a license members ordered an election to be held on Saturday, the 18th, to decide whether or not license to sell spirituous liquors be granted.

Last night the election was held in February, and the action of Council created the greatest excitement ever known here among the anti-license people, who turned out in force, and after a fierce contest defeated the license ticket by 37 votes.

CRUSHED BY SLATE.

A Miner Plotted Down by an Unexpected Slid His Room.

McKERSIE, July 20.—John Porterman, an old resident of Buena Vista, was found to be missing Sunday evening, and as he worked in the coal mines it was supposed that he had met with some accident.

A searching party found him in his room in the pit plotted to him by a heavy fall of slate. His leg was crushed, and his legs were broken. Death was instantaneous, and the fall of slate is supposed to have occurred soon after he went to work.

LOOD POISONING SET IN.

Survived Five Bullets, but Succumbing to Their Effects.

BETTER, July 20.—John Mininger, who was shot five times by his brother five days ago, is now in jail and suffering from a severe case of blood poisoning, which may result in his death.

A few days ago John's brother was admitted to jail and as soon as he was at liberty he had his bullet-riddled brother, who was severely disabled, to walk about, committed to jail for the safety of the public. Yet the blood poisoning set in and to-night the afflicted prisoner was in a critical condition.

BLAINE THE ONLY MAN.

West and Northwest Eager for the Nomination of the Manne.

CHICAGO, July 20.—"During the last six months I have visited two-thirds of the Northern States, and at every point the people were enthusiastic for Blaine. The West is for the Maine man, and with the popularity everywhere else, it makes that during this convention will be a Blaine mass meeting."

John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, delivered the foregoing when at the Grand Pacific yesterday. Mr. Thurston has been kept busy during the last few months delivering busily the political dexterity, party management, nor official enthusiasm either. Administration is in every home, you might say, and the family party is the life of the country, and during these trips has made a careful survey of the political situation.

"The enthusiasm for Blaine," continued Mr. Thurston, "is such that I do not believe the party managers or even Blaine himself could prevent his nomination. The time is ripe for the party to nominate, and the party is strong enough to do so."
