OFFICE OF PITISHING DISPATCH | MONDAY, July 20.

There were 146 carloads of cattle on sale at the East Liberty yards this morning against 112 loads last Monday and 20 the previous Monday. Quality of to-day's offering was Monday. Quality of to-day's offering was below that of last week. Prime beeves were in scant supply, and low grades were far in excess of the requirements of our local trade, Ohio and Indiana were the main scarces of supply. There were about 22 carloads from Indianapolis and some 14 loads from Chicago. The remainder were chiefly from Ohio. Buyers were on hand in harper force than usual, but the heavy rin was in their favor, and they made the most of it. It was evident at the opening of the market, that sellers were more anxious than hayers, and this feature of trade became more and more promounced as the day aftended. The reneral range of prices was fully 25c per cwt. below last Monday's range, the sound more and more promounced as the day aftended to supply were generally being a corner in that month, as September and October only advanced 55 mark. Paris was 10920 centimes higher. Around 86c and 865c Pardridge's brokers bought in a great deal of short wheat for him during the day, and these purchases sustained the market in the face of the heavy receipts. The Drygoods Market.

New York, July 29.—Business in drygoods opened without change. The mail order request was very fair, but transactions on the spot were moderate, though in some cotton specialties there was more activity. Staple cottons have a good share in the general movement, and are in good shape as a rule. Jobbers also were having very fair mail returns from salesmen on the road handling fall fabrics. The spot trade was fair for the period. Jobbers began the opening of new goods in store, but the showing did not extend beyond prints and a few dress goods. No very active trade is looked for this month at either first or second hands. Clothiers were buying more generally, but the orders were very light.

ELECTRICITY AND MATRIMONY.

At the Present Rate the Current Will Soon Be Doing Wonders in the Houses. New York Sun. ]

Now that the electrical dish washer, by which a child can do 10,000 plates and cups in a day, has been invented, that washing and ironing and the scrubbing of floors and windows may be accomplished by electricity, and that ingenious man has invented a machine for the sewing on of buttons and the incubator for the rearing of infants, doubtless the noble institution of marriage will be once more revived among even advanced thinkers, who wait only for the conception and perfection of the electrical spanker and the automatic arrester, which, at the appropriate time, will propel the husband home from his club in safety, deposit him on his own stoop, instead of his neighbor's, and control the vagaries of the keyhole while he lets himself in.

The phonograph will be an important feature of the marriage of the future, for when a wife is detained at her club past the dinner hour, or is occupied with her duties at the seat of civil government, the phonograph's button can be touched by the waitress when she brings in the soup, and the husband can hear all about the cook's impertinence and Johnny's running away from school, that the coal is out and the water pipes have burst, that her bonnet isn't fit for a Christian woman to wear even to sleep in, that the doctor's bill is due, that her mother is coming and the won across the way has a new gown nicer than any his wife ever had in her life, and all the other little pleasantries wherewith a fond wife makes the dinner hour a per-petual festival of hilarity to her tried

To Keep Business Moving and No Fear of a Stringency.

The week opened auspiciously in financial circles. All of the regular lines were active, and there was a good cail for loans. Some of the banks reported such an increase in dis-counts that their surplus was fast approaching the reserve line. Others not so fortunate, or more conservative, had plenty of money or more conservative, had plenty of money to spare.

While business is undoubtedly expanding there is, on the whole, an abundance of funds to handle it, and no fears are entertained of a stringency. Failures abroad are offset by the heavy crops at home and small ones in Europe, which will turn the balance of trade in this direction. The ruling rate on all classes of loans is 53/467 per cent, with the bulk of business at 6. Exchanges were $2.256.865 53, and balances $470.302 97.

At New York yesterday money on call was easy, ranging from 15/4 to 2 per cent, last loan 2 per cent, closed offered at 2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 55/467. Sterling exchange quiet and steady at $4.84/4 for 66-day bills and $4.85/4 for demand. Closing Bond Quotations.

vestors, were in no humor for trading yes-terday, and the stock calls were slow and uninteresting. The only interests handled were Philadelphia Gas and Luster, of which 240 shares changed hands. New York was dull and barely steady, so Pittsburg had good company.
Philadelphia Gas sold at 11¼ and 11¼, and closed at 11 bid—the lowest point of the sea-son, and perhaps the lowest in its history. At the beginning of last July it sold around 30%. The mills were using gas at that time, and the income was considerable. Now the dependence is wholly upon private consumption, and this being small, earnings are less than ever before. This, with a divi-dend out of the question, in conformity with the policy of the company to devote all their surplus to the extinguishment of all their surplus to the extinguishment of the debt, renders the stock unavailable for speculation, and as it is not wanted for in-vestment, there is practically no market for it. A decline under the circumstances is the most natural thing in the world. The question of supply is not involved nor does the improved financial condition of the com-pany count for anything in the absence of a demand for the stock. The slumps will no doubt be followed by a reaction, as is usual in such cases.

doubt be followed by a reaction, as is usual in such cases.

Good news must have been received from the Luster mine, for the stock sold up to 12% against 12 on Saturday, and closed strong at that figure bid. Insiders were the buyers. This is a case in which reliable information from the field of operation would be of great benefit to the investing public, and until it is forthcoming the promoters of the enterprise must expect casual and indifinite reports to be received with several grains of allowance.

Boatman's Insurance advanced to 32 bid. Central Traction closed a fraction better than the opening. The rest of the group was neglected. Switch and Signal was a shade stronger, and so also was Underground Cable.

stronger, and so also was Underground Cable.
Concerning stocks in general a New York authority says: "It is clear that the disposition to look very far into the future has been chilled almost to the extent of paralysis, and in its place is a tendency to estimate values almost entirely upon existing conditions which are still much affected by the panic which prevailed at the close of last year. Bulls now point with pride to the small offerings and assert this is unmistakable evidence that holders are easily able to carry their stocks, while bears evade this, which is not easily disproved, and point to the slow decline that is taking place in bond and stock prices and the absence of market orders to buy as a most practical negation of the claims of the bulls."

GIVE THE MARKET AT NEW YORK AN OTHER SEVERE SET BACK.

Trading Generally Was Purely Professional -The Bulls Say the Crop Condition Will Be Felt Sooner or Later Unless There is a Stringency. NEW YORK, July 20 .- The advices to-day abroad were not encouraging and the stock market met with another set back in the shape of a further export of gold to the amount of $600,000. The trading is still almost professional and this at a time when many confidently expected, to see a better state of affairs in the street is particularly discouraging. The outside conditions are as favorable as expected but the foreign situation even though their appears to be a disposition to support the weakening houses there, remains as a menace to the stability of prices and seems to be the principal check to operations in a speculative line here. is feit that any further trouble there will be followed by a heavy return of American securities to these shores and the pressure to sell which to some extent emanates even now from foreign sources prevents any ap-preciable improvement in prices. The bulls in the street are not disposed to take such a contingency to consideration and say that the crop condition will be felt sooner or later in Wall street unless a stringency in the crop condition will be felt sooner or later in Wall street unless a stringency in money, which is now expected, should occur. The shipment of gold was most effective factor on the bear side to-day, and the trading element no longer hesitated to seit the leading stocks short, Burlington, St. Paul, Atchison, Richmond and West Point and Lackawanna being specially conspicuous for the impression made upon their figures. The selling pressure brought more activity, which, however, was confined almost entirely to the few stocks mentioned, and while there was noticed an increased tendency to trade in the low-priced shares such transactions resulted in no important movement. The market was firm at the opening, but the traders sold Burlington and a few others, aided by some foreign sales, and fractional losses were scored in all the leading stocks in the early trading. A very promising rally from these prices was in progress when the announcement of the export of gold was made, and the stocks bought in for the short account were thrown over immediately and new lines put out all along the line so that before delivery hour most of the prominent shares were down about 1 per cent, and Burlington, which bore the brunt of the pressure, nearly 2 per per cent. The most denoralizing spectacle of the day, however, was to see East Tennessee first preferred sell at 44, and on the marketing of 200 shares decline to 42. The late trading was marked by a sharp decline in silver certificates to 39, but the stock list under the influence of covering rallied fractionally, and most shares were brought up to within a shade of Saturday's figures. The clove, however, was again heavy at close to lowest prices. The flaal changes generally towithin a shade of Saturday's figures. The close, however, was again heavy at close to lowest prices. The final changes generally show large fractional losses for most of the leading shares, while Burlington is off 13%, Jersey Central I per cent and silver certingates 1½, while most stocks show only insignificant losses for the day.

Mailroad bonds were a little more, but without any material change in temper from that ruling for the last two weeks, but the transactions were enlivened by heavy trading in the Atchison incomes which was the result of the declaration of a dividend of 2 per cent upon them. They rose, however, only ½ per cent on sales of $245,000 out of a total day's business of $763,000. The rest of the market showed a widening tendency, but with a firm tone no important changes were made. Government bonds have been dull and heavy. State bonds have been dull and stendy.

The Post save: It is asserted on good and steady.

The Post says: It is asserted on good authority that the Bank of France is at pres-MEMPHIS—New York Exchange selling at checks in gold, a policy due to its own wish to anticipate or prevent a general hoarding of precious metal by private holders. The step would not be unusual, for the tendency of the French people in this direction has always been marked. The assertion is rendered more plausible from the fact that for nearly a month the weekly statements of the Bank of France have shown net loss on the silver balance, coincidentally with gain in gold. On this theory the present and recent shipments of gold to France have nothing whatever to do with the foreign exchange market. So long as the bankers acting for the Bank of France have French credits on which to draw against this country—and they are not yet exhausted—the transaction would amount simply to a sale of silver against purchases of gold. Of course there would be a loss in the transaction, but if the situation were regarded as critical the institution would certainly not stop for that.

Along with this curious condition of affairs critical the institution would certainly not stop for that.

Along with this curious condition of affairs in Paris has come a steady and rapid marking up of the etreet rate on time money in London. To-day both short and three months' bills are quoted at 2½ per cent, or on a par with the official minimum discount rate of the Bank of England. This is an advance of more than 1 per cent within a week, and probably foreshadows an early advance in the bank rate. The peculiar situation in relation to the gold supply is responsible for this. Even if Russia's demand is soon to be satisfied in full, it is believed among the London bankers that Spain will be forced to draw gold from London in considerable quantities to protect its own bank in the new issue of note circulation. At the same time, in spite of the disbelief existing here in a return of gold to us from England, the London financial authorities show singular unanimity in taking such shipments for granted.

COUNTRY PRODUCE-(Jobbing Prices): Monday is uniformly an off day in farm and garden product lines, and to-day was no exception to the rule. Apples and watermelons are in bountiful supply, and buyers have the field. Blackberries were so plentiful at the close of last week that large quantities were necessarily held over, and are a drug to-day at nominal prices. There were sales this morning as low as 5c a box, but this price was for overripe stock. Tropical fruits are forced to the rear of late by reason of large receipts of domestic fruits. Lemons have proved a great disappointment to jobbers the past few weeks. There were predictions a few weeks ago that lemons would go to $10 the past few weeks. There were predictions a few weeks ago that lemons would go to $10 per box. Present prices are not above half this figure. For some reason which this editor will not attempt to give, lemons are lower than they have been for years at this time. Bananas are also in supply far above demand, and, as much of stock is overripe, buyers are able to name their prices. Not less than 30 carloads of bananas have been beyers are able to hame their prices. Not less than 30 carloads of bananas have been received this week and fully 16 cars are on sale at this time. Coffees are steady, but the outlook is for lower prices. The new coffee crop, which is large, must inevitably bring with it lower prices. Present prospects are for higher priced sugar and lower priced coffee.

For a week past jobbers have been cutting on flour, and our reduced quotations are in accord with what has been practically the market for several days. At the reduced rates, it is difficult to see where there is any profit to the flour jobber, since the lay-down cost of faucy patents is now $5 25 per barrel.
