During a $300,000 liquor house blaze in Dallas—The Opera House and the Windsor Hotel in Danger, But Are Saved by Hard Work.

DALLAS, TEX., 25.—At 12:30 this morning a very destructive fire broke out in J. B. Cowan's wholesale liquor house opposite the Windsor Hotel, 700 barrels of whisky, three men at the Windsor bar heard what they supposed to be a pistol shot, and rushing out found smoke issuing from the roof of the liquor house. A dense cloud of black smoke soon hung over the building, while the explosions of barrels were becoming more frequent.

A few minutes later flames burst through the roof, and at the same time they seemed to fill the inside of the building. So bright was the fire now that it illuminated the street with the splendor of day. From the liquor house the flames spread into the large two-story brick building adjoining it.

The fire department, called by the fire alarm, arrived at the scene of the disaster at 1:30. The firemen, who were equipped with the best of modern apparatus, worked for an hour and a half before they succeeded in controlling the flames.

course enjoyed by those whose busy fingers have been engaged in such willing work. Mrs. J. C. Bly, of Philadelphia, who is a member of the fashionable "Tribe Club" of Philadelphia, was the guest of Mrs. Alfred Kelley, of New York, entertained two guests in a most delightful and interesting manner on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Among the visitors to the springs none enjoys more the beauty of the mountains than Mrs. Judge McCandless. She is in her 70th year since Mrs. McCandless first began coming to Bedford. She finds the air so cool and delightful, and the view so inviting, that almost every morning a three-mile ride is taken by her to Bedford.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McKee are making their annual visit. There are none who appreciate the beauty of the mountains more than those who have more friends of long standing among the guests.

Among the recent arrivals of Pittsburghers are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dravo and Miss Dravo, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bly and Miss Bly, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bly and Miss Bly, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bly and Miss Bly.

THE BEACH IS GOING

Have of the Waves at Asbury Park—Pittsburgh People There.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 25.—Unfortunately for the devotees of salt-water bathing, the beach at this resort this year is not in the best condition. The sea keeps tearing it up, and the waves are so high that it is difficult to get on the beach.

the elders might profitably follow their example of the daughters of Mr. H. C. Frick. It is thought that the latter is a denizen of that spirit land, but even permitted to visit the earth as a guest of Mr. Frick, his arrival at the Carnegie cottage, is in attendance.

A business entertainment is on the tapis for some time next week. It is to be held in the largest hotel in the city, and the very small children will take part. The proceeds are to be devoted to charitable purposes.

From Pittsburgh have lately arrived Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Palmer, Mrs. John Ricketson, Miss Ricketson, H. Darlington, F. W. Jones, Mr. W. W. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stewart, Dr. C. Darlington, Dr. E. Pollock, Dr. E. H. McLaughlin, Rev. J. M. Lincoln, D. D., and Miss Lathrop.

nook driving of hired teams by yellow youths who come down for the express purpose of having a rapid time. As a result scarcely a day passes without reports of personal injuries, collisions and narrow escapes from disaster, and the town authorities are being importuned to impose restrictions on the use of bicycles.

A charity ball was given last night at the United States Hotel, the proceeds of which were donated to the Memorial Home for the Blind. The event was a grand success, and the proceeds were $1,000.
