And it was that kind of a defeat that caused the 1,187 people who saw the contest to wonder how in the name of everything human the Reds could ever get a game at all from the sluggers who hail from Pittsburg. Of course in yester-day's argument the fellows from down the Ohio were not in it by any means from start

THE WONDER EXPLAINED.

But the wonder already referred to is easily explained, As a rule when the home New talent win a game they put up a fine article of ball playing, and naturally people who see them win see them perform in a way see them win see them perform in a way that would down almost anybody. But the trouble is that this form is not sustained. For instance, the team played as fine a game as any nine could play. Baidwin pitched, and to say he was a "corker" is a very mild way of qualifying Mark. His associates did the trick in every instance but one, and that was when Mack tried unsuccessfully three times to pick up a bunted ball from Latham's bat. As a result Latham got to first, but the error did not figure at all as far as run getting was concerned. Well, leading such as vesterday's on the part of first, but the error did not figure at all as far as run getting was concerned. Well, playing such as yesterday's on the part of the home players if kept up day after day would have victorious results, irrespective of what is called "bad luck" appearing now and again. "Bad luck" will no more down a good team than "good leek" will cause a billind man to hit a target every day because by accident he hit it on one occasion. In short when our sluggers win they invariathe his it on the occasion. In the when our sluggers win they invaria-play up to form, and when they lose, with the best of teams, they are inva-y far away from their own standard of mbility.

Manager Hanlon was in charge yesterday, and it is likely that he will remain in charge until he has shown conclusively that he is not the man for the place. That would be the fairest way out of the difficulty. Yesterday he remained on the bench because he has been far from well during the last few days. Moreover, he wanted to give Newell a trial at third, and also togive Reilly another try in the outfield. The batting order was also materially changed, and the change also worked well. Certainty little Shugart, also worked well. Certainly little Shugart, who led off, did his part well, as he had three hits and two runs.

THE FINISH WAS ALL RIGHT. But all is well that ends well, and it may beamiss if the same arrangement is con not be amiss if the same arrangement is con-tinued until it is found out whether or not Newell is a third baseman for the local team. He wasn't tested vesterday by any means. Rhines evidently is losing his power, be-cause the time was, and not very long ago, when no team had license to trim him up in such a way as he was trimined up vester-day. In two famings eight hits were made off his delivery, that is four in each inning, and uine runs were made in the two inand nine runs were made in the two in-nings. If thines was the Rhines that he used to be this would not have been the case-but he may be out of form only temporarily as he, during the last five innings, pitched in admirable form.

as he, during the last live innings, pitched in admirable form.

The contest was really over in the first inning. The home players made four big runs, and they stood like a huge mountain in front of the visitors. Singart led off with a kind of scratch hit to the infield, and he got safely to first. Reilly sacrificed him to second, and then Beckley knocked out a fly to Hailigan. The latter not only muffed the fly but he made a land throw to third, which allowed Shugart to score, and then Latham made a wife throw to Harrington, which allowed Beckley to get home. Mack next came to the bat with a two bagger to right field and got to third on a pussed ball.

Moke RUNS WERE MADE.

MORE RUNS WERE MADE. Carroll was easily put out at first by Long John Reilly, and Miller made a safe infield atom Kenty, and Sinter made a safe inneid htt scoring Mack. Miller stole second on a muffed throw by McPhee and went to third on the error. He scored on the single of Hierbaner to right. In the fourth inning Bierbauer led off with

In the fourth inning Bierbauer led off with a good single and got to second on a safe lumi by Newell. Baldwin made a ground hit to Rhines and the latter threw the ball to Latham to head off Bierbauer, but Latham muffed the throw and Bierbauer was safe. Shugart's single then scored Bierbauer and Newell and Reilly's sacrifice and Mack's second two-bagger scored Miler and Beckley. In the nintu inning Beckley made a single and reached second on a fumble by Curtis. A sacrifice each by Mack and Carroll scored the run.

The visitors made their only run in the The visitors made their only run in the seventh inuing. Smith led off and made the first hit in the game. Harrington's sacrifice sent him to second and another sacrifice by lihines sent him to third. He scored on a single over second base by Mcl'hee. McQuaid umpired a good game. The score:

O'NEIL'S STATEMENT.

The President of the Local Club Says a Word or Two in Defense of Himself and Derogatory of Manager Hanlon-The Official Claims He Is an Injured Man. To the Sporting Editor of the Dispatch:

DEAR SIR-It has always been my custom to pass unnoticed reporters' unfavorable comments of my management of baseball. but so many misrepresentations and misstatements have been made of late some of which are from the pen of unfriendly renorters that I have deemed it advisable with your permission to give a plain state-ments of facts. It has been continuously stated that I have interfered with Manager Hanlon in his management and control of the team, and that the fines imposed upon Pitcher Baldwin were remitted by me, and for this reason Haulon had no control of his men and loss of games was the result. The facts are these: At no time since Manager Hanlon took charge of the team as manager has any fine ever been remitted by me or by any other officer of the club, and neither has any player been signed or released, with the one exception, Newell, who has only played one game, been employed or released without the approval and consent of Manager Hanlon. In no instance have I ever suggested to Mr. Hanlon, with have I ever suggested to Mr. Hanlon, with one exception, any change in his batting list, nor have I ever known, previous to purchasing the score card, just who was to be represented in the team. It has been stated that Mr. Byrne, during his recent trip here, was compelled to personally visit the different newspaper offices and pay for advertisements. This has been published to show that I have not been liberal in local advertisements. In justice to everyone connected with our club I will state that the entire advertising of the club was placed in the hands of Secretary club was placed in the hands of Secretary Scandrett at the beginning of the season and while I have not approved at all times of his limited method of advertising, still I have never dictated or indicated to him as to the amount of money he should spend with the local papers in advertising. I have been ac-cused by one unfriendly reporter of misrep-resenting the price paid for Shugart's release.

I have never said to any reporter what Shugart's release cost the club. I did say, however, that his services for the balance of the year would cost the Pittsburg club about $5,000, and I am willing to stand by that statement. As Manager Hanlon has been made the subject of so much comment in the papers, and as the Board of Directors have on several occasions in my absence in the consent and approval of the Board of Directors.

The team went East on their first trip on the morning of May 29 to play Decoration Day in Brooklyn. They won the morning game, lost the afternoon game, lost three out of four with Philadelphia, lost three out of four with Philadelphia, lost three out of four with New York and four straight with Boston. While these losses and apparent demoralization of the team were going on, some of the directors asked me to go East to see what was the matter with the team. I stated that without the power to release or employ new men there was no use of my going. It was, I think, on June 5 that the board had another meeting in my absence and revoked their resolution of May 28, and gave me full charge of the team. I went East and found a good deal of demor dization in the team. The manager was insubordinate to the President and the players were insubordinate to the manager, and from that time to the manager and from that the manager and from that the manager and from that the manager and from th iring the for something over two days at intervals, and finally resulted in Mr. Burns offering to come to Pittsburg for a salary of $3.500 per year and to Pittsburg for a salary of $3,500 per year and 1 per cent of the profits. The board were not unanimous in paying this price for a mana-ger at first, and when they finally agreed to cept of Mr. Burns' terms, he was not will accept of Mr. Burns' terms, he was not will ing to come.

At a subsequent meeting I was authorized by the Board of Directors to open negotiations with W. H. McGunnigle, of Providence, R. I. These negotiations ended by my accepting the terms of Mr. McGunnigle, and authorizing him to draw upon the club for $200 of the advance money he was to receive. He resigned his position in the Providence club, made draft on the Pittsburg club for $300 and came to Pittsburg, arriving here a rew hours after I had left for Cleveland. The board had a meeting the day following Mr. McGunnig e's arrival, got into some mix up with him, and rejected or repudiated my acceptance of his terms, allowed his draft upon the club to go to protest, and turned him out to do as best he could. This seemed to me unfair to Mr. McGunnigle, and upon inquiry, finding that the difference between the directors was a trifling matter, I completed arrangements which corresponded with the terms authorized by the board and placed Mr. McGunnigle in charge of the club. Secretary Scandrett on the day of the return of the club from Cleveland gave each player a Mr. McGunnigle in charge of the club. Secretary Scandrett on the day of the return of the club from Cleveland gave each player a notice to repudiate my orders and to report to Manager Hanlon. This is substantially and accurately the way matters stand at the present time, and, as no legal meeting of the Board of Directors can be called for several days, matters must stand this way until a board meeting can be had.

The draft made upon us by Mr. McGunnigle, and Miscounted by him in the stand this way until a board meeting can be had.

The draft made upon us by Mr. Me-Gunnigle, and kliscounted by him in the East, lies under protest to-day, and Mr. Mc-Gunnigle is dishonored at his home. As has always been my custom, whether individually or president in representing a corporation, I propose to make my signature either individually or as President equal to what it authorizes, and if the Pittsburg Baseball Club, represented by a legally-called meeting of the board, refuses to honor Mr. Mc-Gunnigle's draft of $200, I shall pay the same out of my personal account, and charge to loss and gain. In referring to the meeting held on May 28 by the board of directors at the Anderson Hotel after I had gone home, in which they deprived me of powers and privileges granted me in the bylaws of the company, I omitted to state that on the following day I prepared my resignation as President of the club, and was only dissuaded in handing the resignation in by one or two members of the board, who have President of the club, and was only dis-suaded in handing the resignation in by one or two members of the board, who have since turned traitor to me and have joined hands with the element in the board of directors who have always stood ready with dagger in hand to stab me in the back. J. PALMER O'NEIL. VON DER AHE IN IT.

He Says That Pittsburg Will Have Some Association Stars Next Year.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. COLUMBUS, July 27 .- Jack Easton, the Combus pitcher, who was recently released by the Columbus management and who had accepted the terms of the Boston Association club, to-day signed to pitch for the St. Louis Browns. There was some bitch in re-gard to the advance money to be paid by Boston, and Comisky prevailed upon him to Jimmy Donelly, the Omaha third baseman, joined Columbus to-day. He will replace Kuehne and play with the team in the this week. Kuehne will not be released un-til it is demonstrated that Donnelly is the till it is demonstrated that Donnelly is the better man.

President Von der Ahe was interviewed to-day regarding the move of the American Association in securing a three-year lease on Recreation Park grounds at Pittsburg through J. Earle Wagner. He said: "It means just what the dispatches state. There will be an Association team in Pittsburg next year and one of the biggest stars in the National League to-day will manage it. President O'Neil, of the Pittsburg Club, was the cause of all the trouble between the Association and League by stealing Bierbauer last spring and we propose to fight him in his own city. The Association will show the people of Pittsburg what a good article of ball we can put up for 25 cents as against the initation furnished by the Pittsburg club for 50 cents."

club for 50 cents."

Jack Crooks and Charley Duffee, of the Columbus club, to-day signed a contract to accompany Comisky to the Pacific coast next winter. Comisky said: "Ward and Ewing want to go, but I don't want them. I am on the lookout for ball players who have something beside a rest newtotic." mething beside a past reputation.

May Meet To-Day.

It is likely that the directors of the local ball club will meet to-day and settle the squabble now existing. It was stated yes-terday that Messrs. Rea and McCallin will be home this morning to attend the meeting. It is further understood that Mr. McGunnigle, if paid the amount of his draft, will leave the city. This will certainly be the most satisfactory way out of the difficulty, and if Mr. McGunnigle is paid his claim and Hanlon retained, the dignity of the club will certainly be sustained all round. There is no other honorable course open.

The Johnstowns Won.

Jounstown, July 27.-The Wilmerdings arrived in Johnstown with the intention of scoring a victory over the home team, but were badly defeated by a score of 8 to 3. Were badly deleated by a score of 8 to 3.

Batteries: West and Keller for the Johnstown Athletics, and Gordon and Warner for the Wilmerdings. Hits—Athletics, 7; Wilmerding, 9. Errors—Athletics, 3; Wilmerding, 3. One of the best features of the game was the playing of Davis, of Pittsburg, who played with the Wilmerdings. He is a good all-around player and has a bright future before him.

Here's a Pointer.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CINCINNATI, July 27.-The baseball war is bout over. It is boldly announced in public print here to-night that another fortnight will see but one club in Cincinnati. The League and Association will play a world's championship series. A dispatch received to-night says the new park in Indianapolis, one of the finest in the West, will be ready for occupancy in one week or less. The Kelleys will play in Indianapolis.

MISCELLANEOUS SPORTS.

The Germantown Cricket Team Tackle the Local Eleven in a Two-Inning Contest-The First Day's Play Greatly in Favor of the Visitors-More Playing To-Day. The result of the first innings in the game between the Germantown cricket eleven of Philadelphia, and the Pittsburg first eleven, been made the subject of so much comment in the papers, and as the Board of Directors have on several occasions in my absence in dicated their belief that Mr. Hanlon, as manager, had been interfered with by me, I beresy challenge Mr. Hanlon, over his own signature, to state one single instance wherein I have remitted a fine imposed by him or released or employed a player in opposition to his wishes. I do not wish this challenge to be answered by heresay, but I desire that Manager Hanlon shall, over his own signature, state the occasion under which he was interfered with and the details of the interference. That the President has been interfered with by the Board of Directors no baseball man can deny, and I am divulging no secrets of the meetings of the board when I state that the first meeting held by the Board of Directors after the opening of the season, April 22, was held on May 28, at which time the club stood in second place in the League race, only a few points behind first place. It was on that day, May 29, in the evening after I had gone home that the Board of Directors met at the Anderson Hotel and passed a resolution to the effect that President O'Neil could not the effect that President O'Neil could played at Brushton station yesterday after-noon, was 148 to 62 in favor of the visitors.

The third round was a one-sided affair. Pritchard had quite his own way and placed his opponent prone and helpless on his back. The display was far from scientific. Both men tried to settle the affair as quickly as possible.

In the free-for-all Christ Stichner's pacer, a Butler horse, with record of 2:23, was entered, and so much of a record of 2:23, was entered, and so much of a favorite the local sports placed all their money on it. They returned in the evening crest-fallen, having been beaten at their own game by a ringer from Etna, which won the stake with apparent case. The best time was 2:45, which was better than was expected owing to the condition of the track. The other races were run by roadsters and were slow and featureless. An effort is being made to arrange a race between the Etna and Butler horses, to take place at the Butler race track within a few weeks.

"Trans-Caucases," the railway into Turk-estan and Afghanistan. ITALY'S FUNDS SHORT.

Diplomatic and Consular Salaries to Be Greatly Reduced.

MANY OFFICES TO BE ABOLISHED.

The Vatican Is Compelled to Adopt Economical Measures.

NO SUMMER VACATION FOR CARDINALS.

ROME, July 27 .- It is announced that the Italian deficit for the year 1890-91 is over 78,000,000 lire, notwithstanding all the economies introduced. A council of the Ministry was held a few days ago to formulate the instructions for opening the negotiations for the commercial alliance with Germany, Hungary and Switzerland. The negotiations at Berne will be simply preaccount of the leaking out of information regarding the location of the rendezvous. A liminary and will be limited, for the present, simply to an exchange of views on the subject of the tariffs to be agreed upon. The final negotiations will take place in the autumn.

To further diminish the expenses, as already announced, a reduction will be made in the salaries of various diplomatic and consular officers. The salaries of the Ambassadors at Paris, London, Vienna, St. Peters-burg and Berlin will be reduced 15,000 lire. The Ministers at Madrid and Bavaria will suffer a reduction of 5,000 lire. In addition there will be a reduction in the salaries of nearly all the foreign Ministers. The num-ber of consuls will be reduced, and those who are retained will receive decreased salaries. It is also announced that 13,000 men who were for economical reasons to have received at this time an unlimited furlough, will for sundry reasons not be retained in the army for the present. The recent heavy losses at the Vatican have compelled a series of economical meas-ures also. A commission of Cardinals has been appointed to study economies, especi-ally with reference to the Pontifical army. The Swiss guard will not be reduced, but instead the gendarmes and the Palatin guards will be reduced by leaving vacant the places of the house.

The Cardinals find themselves also obliged to submit to economies. The Pope is inex-orable on this subject, and says that it is necessary to make great exertions to remedy necessary to make great exertions to remedy the disasters that have befallen the treasury, and especially the St. Peter's pence. The Pope adds that he remains in Rome during the heat of the summer, and that the Cardinals can as well endure the heat in their turn. Several of the Cardinals are dissatisfied with this forced residence and labor, but they must, of course, submit.

In response to dispatches from the Italian residents of Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia asking their Govern-ment to take an official part in the Chicago Exposition it is announced that the Gov-ernment will favor exhibitors all that it is possible, but it, as a matter of principle, can take no official part.

Friends Elsewhere. LONDON, July 27 .- During the course of the day's session in the House of Commons Mr. Henry John Atkinson, member of Parliament for Boston, was expelled from the House for a week for charging the Speaker with abuse of power in placing in the records of the House the statement that he had frivolously challenged the accuracy of divisions. As the expul-sion includes enforced absence from the precincts of Parliament, Mr. Atkinson was obliged to submit and take eight American gentlemen whom he had invited to dine with him at the House of Commons to the

Mr. Parnell said that it was a grave blot on the nation to treat men like Egan and Daly as ordinary criminals, adding that in the special case of Daly there was every reason to believe that he was not guilty of the charge of being in possession of dyna-mite with intent to cause an explosion. Sir William Vernon Harcourt opposed Sir William Vernon Harcourt opposed any relaxation of the sentence passed upon John Daly, and Mr. John Redmond urged that further inquiry into Daly's case would prove that the prisoner referred to was the victim of a conspiracy upon the part of Irish police agents. Gloats at the Spectacle. PARIS, July 27.-The execution of young Berland and Dore, two accomplices of Mere Berland in what is known as the Courbevoie murder, took place this morning on the Place de la Roquette. Finally the executioners suc-eeeded in forcing the criminal down upon the bascule, and from there slid his head under the knife. Dore did not make any resistance. The execution of the two men occupied only eight minutes. Mere Berland had been granted a reprieve. After the execution a mob of spectators, with a combined mighty rush, broke through the cordon of police and, rushing up to the scaffold, gloated over the blood-stained apparatus, some of the most deprayed taking a handful of sawdust away with them as a

WESLEYANS AGAINST GAMBLING.

The President of the Conference Makes . Statement on the Subject. LONDON, July 27 .- The President of the Wesleyan Conference to-day made an authoritative statement of the views of the church on recent social scandals. He condemned the doctrine that while cheating demned the doctrine that while cheating was wrong, gambling was right. The Wesleyans, he said, held that the wrong began with the gambling, whether the games of chance were practiced in aristocratic or stock exchange or commercial circles. It was a disgrace to any class of the community, leading to lamentable consequences. Churches ought to unite and obtain legislation to check the evil.

In conclusion the President said that many thousands of Christian voters determined, at the coming general election, to put moral questions above party considerations and would re-turn men free from moral stain.

FORTY-THREE BODIES

TAKEN FROM THE WRECK OF THE FRENCH EXCURSION TRAINS.

Heartrending Scenes at the House Where the Bodies Were Taken-Thousands of People Assembled in the Vicinity-The Paris, July 27 .- The Town Hall of St.

Mande presents a fearful spectacle. The blackened bodies of the dead lie in rows upon the floor and upon the tables in the building. In some cases the remains are but little more than heaps of cinders, inter-mixed with portions of limbs and fragments of people who were but a short time before laughing, chatting and singing in jovial contentment. One pile of charred limbs and human cinders was especially conspicuous, as it consisted of a mass of unidentified ous, as it consisted of a mass of unidentined and unconnected bodies placed in a keap. Le Paris this evening states that an in-vestigation which has been made into the railroad accident has disclosed the startling fact that the disaster was intentionally caused by some unknown miscreant who dethe two trains into collision. This announcement has caused the most intense indignation among the relatives and friends of the victims, and has aroused popular feeling generally to a state of great excitement. ment. There seems to be little doubt as to the fate that awaits the cowardly wretch who caused the loss of life should he fall into the hands of the mourners now gathered at St. Mande.

The majority of the victims were women and children. The wrecked carriages consisted of one first-class, two second-class and a guard's van. The first was completely shattered. The work of rescue proceeded slowly during the night until dawn. People then began to flock to the scene by thousands, many seeking friends who had not returned from the fete by daybreak. There were 20,-000 persons around the station, and the schoolroom and town hall, where the bodies of the dead were lying, were besieged by distracted people.

A man searching for missing relatives suddenly came upon the bodies of his wife and daughter. His cries attracted his brother-in-law, who in turn recognized a brother-in-law, and learned that his grandchild lying dead, and learned that his wife and his mother were in a hospital dying. A man who for a long time had been rushing about half-demented seeking his family stopped a litter entering the school-room and found that it bore the charred bodies of his wife and baby, the latter being only a few months old. Five of this man's children were on the train, and only one was rescued alive. The bodies of the others were picked from the debris.

An inquiry into the causes of the accident shows that the second train left Vincennes at the regulation interval of five minutes after the first train. The latter train was delayed at St. Mande owing to an enormous crowd of excursionists. The station master at Vincennes blames the driver of the second train for the accident. When this train was starting the station master advised the driver to go slowly as there was a train in front of him, but the man paid no heed to the advice and went ahead at full speed. The driver now asserts that he has been the victim of an act of revenge on the cent of some one who severed community. part of some one who severed communica-tion with the Westinghouse airbrake, thus preventing him from bringing the train to a standstill.

A leading official of the railway blames the public for crowding into the rear van, which, he says, was intended to remain empty. The greatest number of dead were found beneath the ruins of this van. From this source of the collision the engine mounted to the top of the rear van, crushing it to ragments.

An official statement makes the number

They Loot the Missions at Several Places in the Interior.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27 .- Advices just received from China give particulars of fresh depredations by the Chinese against the missionaries. The latest attack was made at Yankao on June 29, when the Catholic mission was methodically looted, the olic mission was methodically looted, the crowd passing things from hand to hand in a chain. The buildings were afterward set on fire. A few days previous four chapels were destroyed in Kiangsi, near the city of Fuchow. The chapel, school and residence of the priest were looted and burned on June 26. On the same day some predatory bands completely destroyed a French or phanage at Haimen.

A junk containing three merchants, a crew of seven, and nine passengers was attacked shortly after dusk by five junks containing armed men, on June 15, off the port of Kingho. Hungarian Strikers at Steelton Place Ties on the Track.

TRY TO STOP A TRAIN FORCIBLY.

Dissuaded From Their Purpose by English Speaking Workmen.

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT OF WINNING.

STEELTON, July 27 .- The labor situation here becomes more strained every hour and the excitement is simply intense. The borough is being flooded with Pinkerton men, and this afternoon the Councils appointed ten additional officers, while Sheriff Keller, sharing in the general alarm, has increased his force by 25 new men. The closed season for saloons expired this morning, but Burgess Heagy promptly issued another proc-lamation ordering them to close and to remain closed until he gives them permission to reopen.

Early this morning a band of striking Hungarians received a report that a number of their fellow countrymen from other parts of the State were to be brought into the mills on the working train in the morning. This train usually carries from 200 to 300 passengers, and the excited Huns placed a pile of railroad ties on the track and set a red light on the obstruction, threatening to kill any one who removed it. They said they wanted the train to stop long enough to compel their fellow countrymen to return, but if the trainmen failed to see the red light, and to stop the train before it was wrecked, that would not be their fault. The Huns were armed with clubs, staves and iron bars, and were in an ugly mood. STOPPED IN TIME.

The English speaking workmen heard of the matter but a short time before the train was due. They at once secured an inter-preter, and after a great deal of difficulty and some display of force, succeeded in re-moving the obstructions just before the work train came around a sharp curve at that point.

This afternoon an immense open-air meet-Ins afternoon an immense open-air meeting was held, at which enthusiastic but pacific speeches were made. After the meeting fully 2,000 of the strikers, preceded by band, paraded through the streets of the town, cheering wildly at every step. As but a small proportion of the strikers is Amalgamated men, and entitled to relief, there is already some suffering among them for the necessaries of life. Harris-burg merchants are contributing liberally to their relief, and this afternoon a procession their relief, and this afternoon a procession of wagons containing groceries, etc., were driven to Steelton, and the food liberally distributed to eager applicants. Even this generous supply did not last long, and many of the men were turned away empty handed. The officials of the steel company claim to have 1,400 men at work, and many applications on file. At the "open hearth" department over 1,000 men are at work, and No. 2 furnace was fired this morning in order to heat prefired this morning in order to heat pre-paratory to turning on the gas, which was

SOME DEPARTMENTS WORKING. The small gas producers were started o-day, as were also both cranes in the rear orday, as were also both cranes in the rear of the open hearths, while a sufficient force of men are at work loading specials.

At the frog department 16 men who had applied were compelled to return to their homes, as one turn is full, but there is not sufficient force to fill a double turn. The boiler, bridge and machine and foundry departments have increased forces at work, and the billet mill is to start to-morrow morning as sufficient men are listed to morning, as sufficient men are listed to start and run this department.

Notwithstanding all these facts, the strikers are confident and claim to be assured of final victory. This feeling goes far toward making them good-natured, but if they realize they are running a losing fight, the wisdom of to-day's redoubling of the guards will be seen. The men have been saving nothing for a strike, and when hunger begins to pinch more keenly, as it will to-morro desperate measures may be resorted to by the foreigners, who are the most deter-mined and headstrong of the strikers, and will hardly even now listen to the peace-ful counsels of the English-speaking work-

A FATAL BIRTHDAY.

Miss Binkerd Falls From a Third Store Window and Will Die. Shortly after midnight, Miss Claud Sinkerd, of No. 42 Federal street, Allegheny, fell from the rear third-story window of her residence and was fatally injured. About 13 o'clock her parents retired to bed, leaving Miss Binkerd sitting on the window-sill of the back room. Shortly after they retired Mrs. Binkerd heard a short scream. She jumped up out of bed and ran to the window and looked down into the rear yard, where she saw the girl lying in a heap. The girl was picked up by the father, and Drs. King and Bickey summoned, who, after a short examination, found her fatally injured. Her right hip was broken in two places, her back and head badly cut, and she was so seriously injured that she could not recover.

Miss Binkerd is a seamstress, and was celebrating her 20th birthday last evening. A number of friends had just left the house a short time before the accident occurred. Mrs. Binkerd said she thought the girl sat down on the windowsill to cool off and fell asleep.
