A VICTORY FOR JACK ROBINSON IN DELAWARE

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The resignations of Chairman Quay and Treasurer Dudley from their positions on the National Republican Committee naturally have been a good thing for the party.

Little attempt is made among the close friends of Colonel Quay and Dudley to conceal their conviction that this is the fact. Holding the positions they did Quay and Dudley could not well engage in open battle against the "official chief" of the Republican party.

DUDLEY DISGUSTED WITH HARRISON. Colonel Dudley has from time to time freely expressed his disgust at the unwhimpy tendencies of Mr. Harrison.

A SHEEP POLITICAL MOVE. The President has only now taken the first practical step to counteract his blunders by the appointment of Fassett as Collector of the Port of New York.

ROBINSON STILL ON TOP. He and His Heucheran Carry Everything in the Delaware County Primaries.

THE BATTLE ALREADY ON. The Republican primaries were held in Delaware county today, and the convention of delegates to vote on the issue of the State.

Should the Major carry Ohio this fall and the Presidential race an open one, 1892, with Blaine not in it, he would be very apt to come to the front and then Alger as a Republican.

QUAY EXPLAINS WHY HE HELD BACK HIS RESIGNATION AS CHAIRMAN SO LONG.

He Did Not Want to Step Down Under Fire of the Attacks of the Gorman School of Resigning From the Senate Yet—Ignorant as to His Successor.

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—Senator Quay arrived in the city from Washington at 7 o'clock to-night. He was accompanied by his son Dick, and Frank W. Lacey.

It was his intention to resign on the Saturday morning of the 27th, but he was unable to do so because of the illness of his wife.

There has been some talk of your resignation, Senator, and I am sorry to hear of it. I do not know what your successor will be.

Secretary Noble's Resignation in the Hands of the President.

MAY TAKE ANOTHER PLACE. The Step Not Caused by Friction in Official Circles.

HOW THE STATE SECRET LEAKED OUT. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Secretary Noble's resignation is in the hands of the President. General Noble is not here to confirm this announcement—he is in Philadelphia.

What General Noble's future will be cannot be stated positively. He may go abroad to fill a mission, or he may be appointed to fill the new judgeship in the Eighth circuit.

It is possible that Senator Noble's mind is not yet made up as to what will suit him best. There is one story current that he will not return to Washington, but will go to Europe for three or four months.

It has been stated already that there is no friction between the President and General Noble. They are the best of friends.
