THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH SUNDAY, AUGUST 2, 1891.

Blackmail Edwin Booth.

STEELE MACKAYE TALKS ABOUT IT.

Unpleasant Notoriety Into Which Henry Lee Has Gotten Himself.

NOTES ABOUT LOCAL AMUSEMENTS

(ET CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.)

LONDON, Aug. 1 .- Much interest is felt In London in the story published in the New York Hereid about an alleged attempt to blackmail Edwin Booth by "a disreputable newspaper man" and "a person connected with the stage." An article in the New York Dramatic News gives the names of Steel Mackaye, obviously as "the person connected with the stage," and that of Frank A. Burr, as "the disreputable man." Your correspondent showed these articles to-day to Mr. Mackaye, who is at present in London. Mr. Mackaye's rage knew no

"Nonody who knows me," he said, "will ever believe anything of that nature about me. But the attempt to connect my name with such an outrage is an infamy. The fact is that I have been for four years the means of keeping that story from being pubshed and have used my utmost efforts to For this purpose, and it is a dastardly ing that anyone should dare to try to couet me with a conspiracy to injure a noble flow professional like Mr. Booth who, yen if these letters were genuine, which I o not believe, is entirely innocent in the re will be some explanations made Lee, who has just conducted risto" and "The Henrietta" to nt the Avenue Theater, is still in don. His principal exploit this week been to unprison his wife, whom he day after the theater was whose money and jewels in the venture, in the room nd, and threatened her with and dire results if she to return to live with him. Mrs. Lee Queen in the "Bohemian Girl." cored that under the beneficent her jewelry, though her husband a diamond necklace that he told her Lorenzo Banny Tries to Compel & Girl to and in a safe deposit vault four they were married. The English does prothic, however, that no man can me to live with him, and Lee will prob- the girl he loved to marry him by threaten-ally new farcical creation called "Sport Allister, One of the Four Hundred." Gaylor has always been a welcome the Bijou. He is an Irish comedian s the most natural stage irisbuan e the public." In "Sport McAllis-or is said to have a part that will o perfection, and that will allow se to produce the many specialties we already made him famous. . Brady, his manager, has been st this comedy for the last eight and no expense will be spared in upon the road. Many new special-controduced throughout the piece, s the most natural stage Irishman e the public." In "Sport McAllishearing. ntroduced throughout the piece, ems from all the latest operation ooth in this country and abroad, any aiding Mr. Gaylor is of the among its number Georgie formin dancing wonder; never the East; C.W. MR. CHARLES L. DAVIS, who has been in fico. New York, arranging for the opening of the new Alvin Theater, September 21, will arrive here this morning. The work on the theater is progressing rapidly and Mr. Davis guaran-tees that it is to be the handsomest theater in America. One of the features which Mr. Davis recently decided on is while Mexican onyx wainscoting throughout. This alone will cost about $25,000. "SPORT MCALLISTER," the new farce comedy that Bobby Gaylor is to appear in, was writ-ten by Charles J. Vincent, author of "The Editor," "The Grass Widow," "Lady Tom" and Patti Rosa"s new play, "Dolly Varden." MR. H. W. SLACE, who is a native of Allegheny, and has been instrumental in bringing Mr. Davis to Pittsburg, will be on the managerial staff of the new Alvin Theater in the capacity of assistant treasurer. NELLE ROSERTS the clever little sonbrette of "Aunt Bridget's Baby," has just returned from Europe, and brought over with her some stanning dresses, which she will wear in that highly amusing skit. GEOGET CLARE is now the business manager of the Garrow Opera Company, re-placing Berrie Jarrett, who resigned to take the business management of Bobby Gaylor in "Sport McAllister."

JANES J. BRADY will manage Hallen and Hart the coming season. They will present "Later On" with an entirely new company, with the exception of Joe Sullivan and John McWade. ME. CHARLES GORDON, of Brooklyn, who has been with Mr. Charles L. Davis for a number of years, has been selected by him as treasurer of the new Alvin Theater. "THE LIMITED MAIL" will follow Bobby Gaylor at the Bijou. It is said to be a highly sensational comedy drama full of realist railroad effects. JAMES RILEY commences his season tomorrow night at the Whitney Grand Opera House, Detroit. He is due here the latter part of August.

The opera to follow the "Bohemian Girl" en Mir. Mackaye returns to New York, d is is probable that somebody will suffer. ISABELLA MORRISON will be the star in "The Danger Signal," a new play that will be seen early in the season here, MISS LOTTIE HOWE, a very pretty girl with an excellent figure, will lead the march is the "Bohemian Girl." MANAGER GARROW is highly elated over the success of his opera company at the Duquesne. MISS AUGUSTA ROCHE will be the Gypsy

BAHNUM's show will appear at Exposition

Park Monday and Tuesday afternoon and evening. This year the Barnum & Bailey menagerie is the best that has ever been shown by anybody, bar none. For this renson: Last winter the old menagerie was renson: Last winter the old menagerie was destroyed by fire. Nothing was saved but the elephants and one lonely bird. All the rest of the mare and valuable ani-muls were rosated. This year all the automals shown are newly captured, and besides this a special effort was made when collecting to get specimens that had never before been exhibited. Then there is the hippodrome. This year the management has returned to the system of giving tash prizes to the winners of the riving cash prizes to the winners of the rations events, with the result of having rom day to day a series of the most excitfrom day to day a series of the most excit-ing contests. The horses used are all biooticel meers and the riders and drivers are experts. Passing over the hundreds of other attractions, it would be an injustice to the person who intends to visit the show were nothing said about that greatest of all features, the spectacle of "Nero, or the Fall of Rome." This is presented in the same tent with the other performances and for the one price of admission. It will be re-membered that as it used to be there were sents all around the interior of the big tent and that the performances took place in the t the performances took place in the Now all one side of the tent is taken mning. The number of pe loyed in its production is over 4,000. will be up with the stage for the spectacle, and the people sit on the other three sides. The spectacle is put on with a magnificence that Powpent is to be overwhelmed by Vesuvius peveral times this week in Recreation Park, Allegheny. On Tuesday, Thursday and aturday the "Last Days of Pompeil" esented with pyrotechnic magnificence. Tuesday the occasion will be made totable by the presence of Major McKinley, andidate for Governor of Ohio, who will be cresent under the escort of Christopher L. present under the escort of Christopher L. Magree in a private box. A picture of Major Mckinley will be given in fireworks on this occasion. The Speciacle has now reached a perfect stage, and, provided the weather is inc. a very benutiful sight is insured. On Thursday evening children will be admitted fast a reduced price, and several remarkable features will be introduced to please the interesting.

> IS A SAFE GUARANTER THAT THE NEW TOWN IS A REALITY AND NOT A PRETENSE. THAT ITS CLAIMS TO SUPERIORITY AS A MANUFACTURING POINT ARE BASED ON FACT AND NOT ON FANCY.

MANY MORE FACTORIES.

None of them of an insignificant or mythical character, will follow the GREAT SAFE WORKS to BLAINE as soon as they can be accommodated with coveted sltes, on terms NOT REQUIRING LOT BUYERS TO PAY FOR THEM.

On the Monongahela, with uninterrupted river navigation, and on the lines of the two greatest railroad systems, sur-BLAINE, and on the lines of the two greatest railroad systems, sur-rounded by improvements and bounded by an old town and all of its conveniences, observes with serenity the efforts of less favored but "many-factoried" aspiring new

"cities" to convince the public that water flows up hill, and that the tide of manufacture, commerce and population is not toward the river that

LEADS TO THE GULF --- SOON TO THE LAKES!

Content with the evidence presented in the unprecedented opening sale and the continued active demand for lots at Blaine that investors are still judicious, and that the majority of home and employment seekers still know where their money should be placed to yield the quickest return and do the most good.
