Bentin, Aug. 1.—The shares of the Deutsche Bank, which on Sunday were quoted at 150, closed to-day at 140. The frands on the bank perpetrated by its clerk

The full extent of the frauds on the Deutsche Bank has not been disclosed. The admission made by Schwieger, who is under arrest, covers only the operations carried on by himself and Franck in paper roubles during the month of July. Both of the men were well qualified to effect the swindle. Schwieger, who is an ex-manager of the Berliner Handelgeschaft, had a good conpection as a stock broker. Franck had been for 15 years in the service of the Deutsche Bank. He was intrusted with the duty of revising and stamping brokers' ### memoranda sent into the bank. WHEN THE CAT'S AWAY.

The manager of the Deutsche Bank was on a prolonged leave of absence when Schwieger and Franck arranged the plan to buy roubles for a rise for the July settlement, and by means of forged memoranda represout the purchases as made on account of the bank. Franck falsified the bank entries to enable him to carry over his engagements. Among these the July purchases are discovered. But the contracts falling due later, some of which are now known as havcarried over month after month, ill swell the total amount involved in the ands to an enormous sum. Franck dealt largely in lottery speculations and carried on a general speculative game under the very noses of the bank di-rectors for years with an adroitness sugposting that Schwieger is right in his statement that Franck originated the frauds and used him as a tool. The bank has offered a reward for Franck's capture. He has been tracked to Bremen, but there was lost sight

The immediate effect of the swindles threatened for a moment to produce a grave financial crisis. The position of several banks involved in the South American collapse, and weakened through the existing Bourse embarrassments, is so delicate that any sudden strain may lead to a breakdown. A DISASTROUS PANIC PREVENTED.

Luckily the press and the public accepted the statements of a reassuring character issued by the various banks. It was also seen that isolated frauds, however gigantic, did not warrant a panic. The committee of the Reichsbank was appealed to and urged to ease the position by a reduction of the official rate of discount. The recent influx of gold to the Reichsbank from America, France and England was so large that the hope of a reduction in the discount rate was justified. The directors of the Reichsbank considered the request, but after deliberation decided against making any alteration in the rate, because, says sémi-official communication to-night though the bank holds a large stock of bullion, international gold displacements would inconvenience the large central banks, and the general position requires a cautious

THE KAISER A TEMPERANCE MAN, The Emperor's projected measure for the repression of public drunkenness has become, under the manipulation of the Ministers, merely a proposal that the Landtag should increase the penalties imposed on drankards. Ministers Herrfurth and Miquel and others concur in the belief that the public would not tolerate legislative in-terference with drinking. The Emperor thinks differently. A draft of the pro-posed bill was sent to him, and was returned with suggestions concerning State supervision of healthy qualities of beverages.

Impressed with the recent official statis-ties concerning the growth of criminal of-fences and suicides arising from drink, the Government has opened an inquiry in regard thereto, and is drawing evidence from hospitals and other medical sources concerning the increasing use of potato spirits and other impure alcohols, and how far the use of these spirits may be regarded as a leading factor in crime. The official re-turns of suicides committed in Berlin during the first fortnight of July show a total of 147. The cause of self-destruction is attributed chiefly to drink.

AGAINST BAD BEER ONLY.

The Emperor is a friend of good beer, but blames bad drink for many of the violations of law throughout the empire, but more par-ticularly in the great cities, especially Berlin. He means to attach strict penalties to dealers of strong liquors, malt and spirituosa, that it will not be worth while spirituosa, that it will not be worth while to run the risk of making bad liquors.

A fresh decision of the Russian Government concerning its policy toward the Hebrews debars the children of the Israelites not having the right to sojourn in Russia, or the residents of any Russian district without a permit, from admission to the middle and higher schools. The Novoe Fremja to-day, in announcing that this order will take effect at the beginning of the next scholastic year, praises the regulation as assisting to reduce the Hebrews to lation as assisting to reduce the Hebrews to natural social level.
The influx of Hebrew emigrants into Germany is rapidly abating. This is partly awing to the stricter official supervision. Hundreds of these emigrants who succeeded in reaching Thorn have been sent back to Russia on the ground that they had fraudulent passports, or that they did not possess the means to proceed to their destinations outside of Germany.

THE AMERICANS AT BAYREUTH.

The great number of Americans who attended the Bayreuth festival has been the subject of much remark on the part of the German press. It seems to be generally ad-

He says he has experimented with it for the last 12 years, and that he is perfectly sure of his results. Prof. Schuller is a surgeon, and consequently his experiments have mostly been made in cases of so-called surgical tuberculosis, such as affections of surgical tuberculosis, such as affections of joints, bones, glands, lupus, etc. He says, however, that he has treated successfully some eases of tuberculosis of the lungs. His remedy is "guaicol" an extract from boxwood, and also the active principle of creosote. He says he was the first to introduce the successful and better the materia medica. He at East Liberty. The guaicol, mostly in connection with iodoform, is injected into the affected parts. He cites 100 cases treated by him, of which 70 were absolutely cured, 16 improved, 4 died and 10 passed beyond his observation. The treatment extended in each case over a long period, and allowed of accurate observation of each patient from beginning to end, Prof. Schuller is confident of the accuracy of his method

In the meantime, Prof. Koch is steadily working on the improvement of his lymph aided by the Government, which feel bound to see him arrive at a successfu issue. His opponents scoff at his efforts, but he works quietly onward in the hope of yet proving right. He said the other day that he would yet succeed in proving Vir-

AUSTRALIAN RUDENESS

[BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Aug. 1 .- Old-fashioned Tories have been much shocked at the conduct of their own particular organ, the St. James Gazette, in reproducing some scandalous remarks about the royal family indulged in by a leading Sydney newspaper during the recent general election in New South The remarks were, of course, republished merely in order to be reprobated and to prove what wicked, disloyal people the Australian colonists must be under the democratic form of government prevailing in the antipodes.

The Gazette's object was laudable enough, but the Tories urge that it might have been attained quite as well without going into particulars. People in this country do not read the Sydney Bulletis. Why, therefore, should a London newspaper go out of its way to quote a sentence like this from one of its editorials:

We hope the royal family will magnify to the proportions of a back block the rabbit pestilence until the people of England offer 7½ deach for their scalps.

Old-fashioned Tories have ground for complaint. It has long been the custom for English newspapers to depict the Austral-ian colonists as the most loyal of the Queen's subjects, usually in contrast with mutinous Canadians, who are known to hanker after a union with the United States. Now, thanks to the St. James Gazette, it has been made patent to all men here that there is at least a minority of disloyalists even in loyal

But the honorable member has more important private matters to think of now, and the Australian sedition will be allowed to pass unnoticed this session. Mr. Atkinson is filling the notice paper with motions censuring the Speaker and his clerks, and is fast qualifying himself for imprisonment in the clock tower. His period of expulsion expired to-day, and he proposes to indict the Speaker from his place on Monday. The prospect is a most enjoyable one for those who like a row in

THROWN ON THE MARKET.

The Big Iron Interests of Cooper, Hewitt & Co. Up for Sale in London

FRY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH. ? LONDON, Aug. 1-It is probably known to a few persons in New York that the considerable iron interests of Messrs. Cooper, Hewitt & Co. are on the market here. The Board of Directors named in the prospectus is a strong one, and includes such names as those of Senator Jones and John W. Mackay. But unfavorable comment has been caused by the absence of those of Cooper or Hewitt, to which fact is attributed the point blank refusal to underwrite the scheme of Messra.

Is That Called Uno, Which Maine People Daily Indulge In.

CHEAP IMITATION OF LAGER.

Mixed With Whisky, It Is Warranted to Produce Big Results.

PROHIBITION FIGHT ON THE STUFF

PORTLAND, ME., Aug. 1 .- The decision Judge Gould, of the Municipal Court, that the "Uno" beer, so-called, which is now widely sold in Maine, was not intoxicating, at least so far as the samples in the case before him went, was received with great interest throughout the State.

The man whose beer was seized was a poor man, but D. F. Murdock backed him and secured him good counsel and expert testi-mony. Two Bowdoin professors disagreed as to whether or not the stuff was intexicating. It is very poor stuff, but, as it comes nearer to being beer than anything else which is permitted to be sold here, the case becomes interesting.

CHEAP LAGER IMITATION.

"Uno" is a cheap imitation of lager, and is said to contain a trifle more than 2 per cent of alcohol. tt tastes like a flat and diluted lager, but it is just as obnoxious to the prohibitionists as if it was intoxicating. Those who should know laugh at the idea that a man could drink enough of it to affect him, except as an equal amount of dirty water might. This was the statement of a police officer this afternoon, who said: "I have known a number of men to say they got drunk on "Uno," but I never knew one who did. Of course, if a man has taken half a dozen glasses of whisky, or of "split," which is quite a fashionable drink now, two or three bottles of the lightest beer added will help to upset him, but the beer alone cannot do it." This seems to be the gen-

PAYING A BEER TAX.

The keepers of restaurants and of ice sold lager and hard stuff, have been in some doubt as to taking out United States tax receipts for malt liquor selling because they sold this beer, but they seem to have de-cided now that this is the safe course for United States Internal Revenue Collector

Stearns has had a number of applications, and has issued the stamps securing the holder, so far as the United States Government is concerned. Here is an apparent conflict of laws. The applicants ask only for permission to sell "Uno," but the Government recognizes no special grades and the malt liquor tax is collected, as the department has held that malt or any substitute for malt waster the liquor care under tute for malt makes the liquor come under the meaning of the United States statutes. Grape sugar is used in the manufacture of "Uno" beer, and the chemical action of grape sugar is exactly the same as that of

DRUNK FOR A WEEK. City Marshal Minot was asked for his

City Marshal Minot was asked for his opinion regarding the intoxicating qualities of "Uno" beer. He said:

"I don't believe a man can hold enough of that alone to get drunk. Perhaps he might be a little affected. But give him a glass of whisky to go with it and he will stay drunk a week. Our experience proves that is the way they do it, for most of our drunks have head this Uno" hear with hard gider. had this 'Uno' beer with hard eider, whisky, or something to make up what the beer itself lacks in alcohol. It's my opinion that 'Uno' beer is doing more harm here than all the hard stuff sold in Bath at this

"They take it because they think they can get befuddled with it, and for no other reason, and there's where it does its harm, for it is sold openly to boys as well as men. We think they are making a little milder article now than they did at first, but in my opinion it should be treated just like other intoxicating drinks."

A PITTSBURG WOMAN CREATES SENSATION DOWN EAST.

she Drives Past Her Recreant Husband Home and Seizes Her Little Daughter While Playing in the Road-Says She Will Marry a Millionaire. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., Aug. 1 .- A sensational kidnaping case has just occurred here in which a deserted husband, a beautiful wife and an abducted child figure. Eleven years ago a young girl, 13 years age, named McGrainor, lived in Clearfield county, and one day after being chastised by her father, left home. One the train she met a young man with whom she was acquainted named John Murphy, who persuaded her to marry him. A girl baby was born and Mrs. Murphy soon afterward left her husband.

Murphy soon afterward left her husband, taking the child with her. When the baby was about 2 years old Murphy got track of his wife and abducted the child. Since that time Mrs. Murphy has been living on Wylie avenue, Pittsburg.

Recently a brother of her husband told her where the latter was living, and she at once left Pittsburg to find him. Murphy resides near Linden, and is well to do. Mrs. Murphy, on her arrival, went to a hotel. Murphy, on her arrival, went to a hotel, and every day drove past her former husband's home, but though seeing her child never had an opportunity to gain possession of her. Finally, as she was driving past Murphy's house one day recently she espied her little and raying in the road with one

Murphy's house one day recently she espiced her little one playing in the road with one of her own age. She jumped from her buggy, crying: "Who am I?"
"You're my mamma," replied the little 5-year-old, who, in spite of three years' separation, had not lost the filial instinct of recognition. Mrs. Murphy at once drove to the hotel, boarded a train for Pittsburg, and before nursuit could be made was on her the hotel, boarded a train for Pittsburg, and before pursuit could be made was on her way to Pittsburg. Mrs. Murphy is well known, and the affair has caused considera-ble commotion. She stated while here that she will be married in a month or so to a prominent millionaire and will go to Europe. The millionaire is aware of her former marriage.

An effort was made to find Mrs. Murphy last night, but, owing to the lateness of the hour at which the above dispatch was received, it was not successful.

Midsummer Clearance Sale. August, the last of the summer months, is here, and Keech's entire stock of summer specialties in the housefurnishing line must be closed out--no matter at what prices. If your means are limited, now is the time to buy---terres easy and prices below cost. It's positively the greatest bargain offering in housefurnishing ever shown in this city.

> Refrigerators, Lawn and Porch Chairs, Baby Coaches, China and Japanese Mattings, Odd Chairs and Couches, Parlor and Bedroom Suites, Library Suites, Curtains and Portieres, Ingrain and Brussels Carpets.

"It's as plain as a pikestaff" to anyone of ordinary intelligence that Keech can SAVE YOU MONEY. He buys in large quantities (his trade justifies it) and can afford to sell always for Cash or Credit at a very small profit. That's the reason the Big Penn Avenue Stores are so popular. Come this week for bargains and save money.
