The President of the Straight-Out Republican Movement Very Unexpectedly Resigns.
MR. GIBBS MADE HIS SUCCESSOR.
A. H. Rowand Refuses the Leadership, as He Is Not a Candidate for Any Kind of Political Office.

COLLECTOR WARMCASTLE A HAPPY MAN
The Prohibitionists' Chairman Begins and His Vice Is at Once Filled.
That was not a very large meeting of the "straight-out" republican organization at 80 Diamond street yesterday afternoon.

Those who did attend were treated to quite a surprise in the resignation of Hon. George H. Anderson as President. Very few were prepared for the information. It seemed to strike nearly every one present as a thunderbolt. The extraction from the unexpected pronouncement was about all the business transacted.

Mr. Anderson's communication was listened to with great interest. It was as follows:
PITTSBURGH, July 31.
Hon. J. M. Broth, Secretary, Republican Executive Committee:
DEAR SIR—I received notice of my election by the Independent Republicans as Chairman of the "straight-out" organization as Chairman.

Mr. Gibbs stated that he was at a loss to account for Mr. Anderson's resignation, as he had the gentleman's positive assertion that he was not a candidate for any office. The resignation was accepted.
Mr. Rowand—if the Republican voters are going to sit at home, as they have been doing, the Republican County Committee will nominate all their candidates.

Mr. Rowand then nominated Mr. W. M. Gibbs for Chairman.
Mr. Gibbs—I would be proud of such an honor, but the state of my health forbids my accepting it. I could, however, make a good assistant to the man elected, and I would like to have a hand in the work containing the organization of Allegheny county, and the names in it are those of good workers in sympathy with the movement.

Mr. Rowand's name was suggested, but he positively declined, giving as his reasons that people might think he was trying to work himself into office. He was not a candidate for any office either state or appointive, and if he were made chairman people might say it was a Rowand movement.

After a short consultation with Mr. Rowand and Secretary Brush, Mr. Gibbs finally consented to accept the office and was elected by acclamation. In accepting, Mr. Gibbs said that his chief object in the work and he wanted to see the ring "kicked" and the voters of Allegheny county get their rights. The fight was not against the men, but against the ring, as he could say nothing personally against them. It was the methods by which they were put up. Mr. Gibbs suggested that the campaign be still held.

One of the members present said that the names and boroughs were all right but had always been against the ring. The plan where the ring would have to be done would be in the cities.
This was accepted as being about right and the committee adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.
SUSPECT A TRICK.
Republicans Refuse to Attend a Meeting of the State Treasury Committee—Democrats Said to Be After Campaign Material—A Cleave Schumm.
Representative Samuel Stewart, of Verona, went to Harrisburg last evening to attend a special meeting of the committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the State Treasury for the last ten years. It is understood that the committee was expected to report a bill correcting abuses in this department during the session, but that by reason of the adjournment of the Legislature closed, State Senator George Handy Smith is the chairman, and is now in Europe. The call for the meeting was signed by Messrs. Fox, Skinker and Monaghan, the Democrats on the committee. The Republicans claim that it is a put up job on the part of the Democrats to get campaign material for the fall election, as the examination will be aimed at Auditor General McManis and the part played in the Harding business.

and intimately, and this charge is a slander.
"Certainly not a dishonorable one," was suggested.
"No, not dishonorable, but mean. You could not get a cleaner rowley. He is above that. But if he wants to be a Republican he will say so, and in a way that will not be misinterpreted."

WARMCASTLE GLEEFUL.
He Thinks Dallzell Has Received a Black Eye—Some Talk of Contesting the American Election—What the Other Side Has to Say.
Collector Warmcastle called at the Monongahela House yesterday afternoon to see McKinley. The Collector was feeling good over the result of the fight in the American Club. "I made no effort to get votes against Dallzell's delegates," he said. "They are good friends of mine, and such a victory wouldn't have done me any harm. I was very much pleased to see them defeated."

It is proposed to remove the plant at once. Additional ground has been purchased on Rebecca street. A separate factory of good sized dimensions will be erected on it, and operations will be commenced as soon as possible. It is not thought that the Bridgeport employees will be brought here. Only a few of the foremen and superintendents of the work, and the remainder of the force will be transferred to the new plant.

THIRTY-TWO THOUSAND PEOPLE TAKE IN THE WONDERS OF BARNUM'S CIRCUS.
A LITTLE POKER GAME SOILED.
The Iron Exchange Building Narrowly Escapes a Scorching.
SNAP SHOTS AT SEVERAL CITY SCENES.

Barnum's show broke with the dawn over the two cities yesterday. Those who slept late on the route of the great parade were wakened by the noise of the parade. McKinley seeing from the window of a Cleveland and Pittsburgh car Federal street choked with people, horsemen and golden chariots, marvelled accordingly. That was at 10 o'clock in the morning. The parade was on the last lap then, and the crowds that lined the curb and admired the show, were all in the city. Nothing to the dense mob that turned out to enjoy the free show in Pittsburgh. Barnum and Bailey's circus is a hardy annual, but it is blooming with green, yellow and variety than ever. This may have surprised some people, because P. T. Barnum, the patriarchal manager of the circus, is no longer with it except in name. The show, J. A. Bailey, is in control, and the circus is all that it has been and something better. The circus has been a solid institution that time cannot undermine it, and it is bound to run 47 years longer, no matter who or how many of its proprietors die.

DOCTORS AND BIRTH REPORTS.
Failure to Notify the Bureau Due to Many Difficulties in the West.
Dr. E. A. Mundorf, of the Southside, one of the physicians against whom suit was entered by the Bureau of Health for failure to report all the births at which they officiated, said yesterday that the authorities were merely doing their duty as directed by law. Physicians generally endeavored to make as full reports as possible, but he admitted they sometimes forgot, a little leniency in the matter, allowing more than three months to elapse before sending in reports. This was not because they failed to appreciate the great importance of a full and complete birth record, but because of difficulties which sometimes arose. For instance, it is necessary to report more than the mere fact of the birth. The names of the mother and father as well as the parents' names. Frequently weeks and even months elapse before a name is ascertained. It is necessary and in the interim the family may move away or in some way be overlooked or lost sight of.

Why George Biginwald Robbed His Grandfather a Second Time.
TO PAY UP A FORMER THEFT.
The Money is Found Hidden Away in the House of His Friend.
HE VERY HUMBLY CONFESSES HIS GUILT.

A remarkable case of robbing Peter to pay Paul was developed in Allegheny last night by the detectives. Last Easter a boy robbed his grandfather of $100. The grandfather had him arrested and after lying in jail for a while the lad concluded he would make good his thefts. On the 28th of this he was released and all criminal prosecutions ceased. The boy found that earning the price of a "century wrapper" was a bigger job than he had anticipated. The end of July found him without a cent. Believing that the snake that bit him must effect a cure also, he decided to touch his grandpa's savings and pay back all that he owed. He was Sunday morning. There was a little more in the pot than he needed, but thinking a few extra dollars would not come amiss, he just took away $125 as an evidence of good faith.
