

AFTER MANY MONTHS.

A Boy Supposed to Have Been Drowned
by the Johnstown Flood

WRITES LETTERS TO HIS MOTHER.

He Was Sailing Over the Ocean and Went to the West Indies.

WILL NOW SETTLE DOWN AND MARRY.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.)
ATLANTA, Aug. 3.—Soon after the Johnstown flood Susan Spriggs, of this city, received from friends a few clothes and trinkets, supposed to represent all of the earthly possessions of her son, James, who was supposed to have been drowned in the flood. It is to be noted that the mother and friends of the boy had every reason to believe that he was still alive. The mother, however, received letters and papers that thoroughly established the fact that young James was still among the living. The letters were from the young fellow himself, and he told a strange story of the causes that led to his disappearance.

MORE CHURCH TROUBLES.

Another Beaver Falls Church Falls Out
With Its Pastor.

BEAVER FALLS, Aug. 3.—In addition to the trouble existing between Rev. A. Bauer, of the German Presbyterian Church, and his congregation, and between Rev. W. G. Bristol, of the Baptist Church, and his congregation, there is trouble between Rev. J. D. Moorehead, of the Presbyterian Church, and his congregation. It is said the ladies' aid society, connected with the church, have ordered a large and handsome new pipe organ. The placing of this instrument in the church, will necessitate considerable remodeling of the building, and during the time that these alterations are being made the church will have to be closed, the congregation will conduct services in the basement of the church.

COOLEY BOYS' NERVE ACT.

They Join With Dancers While Boys Hold
Their Winchester Rifles.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 3.—The particulars of the daring escape of the Cooley boys at Fairview last Saturday are as follows: The village lads and lassies were having a gay time dancing in the grove here, when, about 9 o'clock the Cooley boys, Frank and Jack, approached the crowd carrying their Winchester rifles. When they reached the platform the crowd gave way and they handed their guns to a boy to hold, whom they made stand close by them, so that, in case of an attempt to capture them, they could be prepared.

ST. ALPHONSUS ANNIVERSARY.

A Parade and Interesting Addresses the Features of the Celebration.

WEEKLING, Aug. 3.—The twentieth anniversary of the St. Alphonsus Society of this city, was celebrated today. Early this morning the society attended early mass in St. Alphonsus' Church in a body, after which it formed for parade over the principal streets.

BANK BURGLARS AT WORK.

They Make an Unsuccessful Attack on Ohio
National Bank.

YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 3.—A desperate effort was made by burglars last night to raid the First National Bank at Kinsman. An entrance was secured by using jimnies and efforts were made to open the vault doors, but they were not successful.

ENDED IN A FREE FIGHT.

A Sunday School Picnic in Which Several Heads Were Injured.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 3.—Reports from Springfield township tell of an exciting close of a picnic Sunday. At the lower section of the township, for many months a prominent business man of that place has been superintending a Sunday school that meets in the Fairview schoolhouse.

EXPLOSION IN A FURNACE.

Gas Accumulates and the Top Is Blown Off, but No One Hurt.

MCKEESPORT, Aug. 3.—An explosion occurred in the National Rolling Mill yesterday, due to an accumulation of gas in furnace No. 5 of the 22-inch department. Rescue Jones was lighting the fire when the explosion followed, with a terrific report.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

The House Set on Fire but the People Escape Uninjured.

Governor Pattison Travels on Horseback.

REDFORD, Aug. 3.—Governor Pattison started today for Harrisburg on horseback, and expects to reach there on Wednesday evening.

Maxwell's Case Coming to a Close.

CANTON, Aug. 3.—Testimony in the Maxwell case was finished this afternoon and arguments of counsel have begun. The testimony of several was introduced, intending to refute that of Jacob Bitter, which threw doubt on other than the prisoner.

COURTS IN VACATION.

Little Work for the Judges Just at Present—
The United States Branch Finds
Something to Do—Still Pegging Away at Streep.

The testimony taken in the divorce case of James Jack against Margaret Jack was filed yesterday. Jack is a glassmaker living in McKeesport, and was married 17 years ago. He alleges that he was obliged to leave his wife on account of her treatment of him. She was unreasonably jealous, got drunk and abused him. She gave him no peace, threatened him and on several occasions assaulted him with a poker. Once he was in bed when she went at him with the poker, and he fled to his mother's house. He left the house and called in the police to see if they could pacify her. They could do nothing and he was obliged to get his clothes and leave the house.

ONE COURT AT WORK.

Uncle Sam's Officials Have to Do a Little in Summer.

In the United States District Court yesterday Judge Reed approved the schedule of distribution of the proceeds arising from the sale of the pleasure bargains of City of Pittsburgh, reported by the Commissioner. S. C. McCandless was appointed commissioner to take the testimony in the case of Campbell Wells against the steamboat Samuel Clark.

Appeals in the Criminal Court.

A short session of Criminal Court was held yesterday morning. Nothing was acted upon but a few minor cases of appeals from summary convictions. The most important cases were postponed.

Another Bill Against Johnny Streep.

G. W. Schmidt yesterday issued an execution against J. C. Streep for $1,385.85 on a bond for $2,771.70.

A WONDERFUL COTTON CROP.

Mr. McMullin Says That the McKinley Bill about the Sugar Trade.
W. C. McMullin, a New Orleans planter, passed through the city last evening going to New York. He owns 1,000 acres of land in Louisiana. During the war he was a Union soldier and served in a Pennsylvania regiment. He said the cotton crop was so heavy this year that he expected a big depression in the price. It is the best output he has ever had for 30 years. Ten men and six mules are required to work 100 acres of the land.
