Over the Death of the Pretty Typewriter, Lida Lawrence.

Robbers Terrify Timid Women While They

DR. WALKER IS BEHIND THE BARS

Exchange Clothing.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.]

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 6.-The social element of the city is in a ferment in an effort to dis cover the name of the man or men who were the real cause of the untimely death of pretty Lida Lawrence, the typewriter, who died from the effects of a criminal operation. The gossips are wild, and have connected the names of two prominent lawyers with the case, but as yet there is no direct evidence. It is known that the girl made a statement bofore her death, but it is said she studiously avoided charging anyone. The evidence brought out at the inquest was interesting, but threw no light on the connection of anyone with the case but Dr. Walker, of Dunbar.

Walker, of Dunbar.

Prominent physicians of this city, Drs. Gaddis, Batten and Hackney, testified that the girl had said before she died that she had been treated by Dr. Walker. James Gray, with whom the girl had bearded, testified that she came here from Columbus. He had found several dangerous bottles of medicine in the girl's trunk labeled "Dr. T. P. Walker, Dunbar, Pa."

The members of the jury utterly refused labeled "Dr. T. P. Walker, Dunbar, Pa."

The members of the jury utterly refused to make public the contents of the finding, the supposition being that some one besides the doctor was mentioned in it, and that an arrest will likely be made before long that will create a sensation. Dr. Walker is now in jail, having failed to secure $2.000 bail demanded. He is about 40 years of age, has practiced medicine in Dunbar for 20 years, and has nothing to say, except that he is innocent of the charges.

The girl's mother died when she was quite young, and she learned typewriting in order that she might take care of herself. Her father is living near German township, and friends say the case against the real, though unknown, authors of the girl's death will be pushed.

FOUND IN A CANAL.

The Body of a Young Girl Who Was Prob ably Foully Murdered.

HARRISHURG, Aug. 6.-The body of Jennie Vanhorn, a very pretty girl, aged about 26 years, was found floating in the State street ock of the Pennsylvania canal this morning. The girl had been employed as an attendant at the State Hospital for the Insane, and was at her home Sunday night. The last seen of her by her family was when she left her home that evening on her return trip to hospital. Dr. Gerhardt, the Superin tendent, saw her at 10 o'clock on Monday raing, and when she failed to retur morning, and when she failed to return, isked about her at her home, and was told that she had probably gone to visit friends in Perry county. This appears to have been the last seen of pretty Jennie Vanhorn until her body was found in the canal.

The poor girl's face was bruised and cut, and the queer appearance of her neck gave rise to the suspicion that she had met with four play. The girl had been engaged to be married to a young railroader named Kinch, who was killed in the Pennsylvania Railroad vards a year or two ago, and it is also said that she afterward fell in love with one of the attendants at the asylum. To-day a colored man came to the police, and said that a man had come to his house a few nights ago, who acted queerly, and said he had diled a girl and thrown her into the canal. A post mortem will be held, and if an investigation warrants it, the man described by the negro has been located and will be arrested. The family appears to be ill-inted, the father of the girl laving committed suicide by shooting some years ago.

AN ATTEMPTED ELOPEMENT.

It Fails Because the Man in the Case Did Not Appear.

BEAVER FALLS, Aug. 6 .- Some five weeks ago a man giving his name as James Fagin, of Sewickley, came to this place and soon of Sewickley, came to this place and soon procured work selling Catholic pictures on the installment plan for George Howard, an age at for the installment house of E. Gatley & Co., of Pittsburg. His wife and child arrived from Oakland, Pittsburg, and the party began boarding with Mrs. Charlotte Howard. She has a pretty flughter, Mary, and the reflect. It has been named Camp Smithnight in honor of the retiring Colonel. To night the veterans are thoroughly enjoying themselves, the citizens giving them a royal about 17 years of age. Fagin and Mary soon became intimate friends, and he secured her became intimate friends, and he secured her services to sell a book.

Testerday he induced her to clope with him, and wanted her to go to Findlay, O. She packed up a bundle of her clothing and a lot of her mother's and started off to a neighbor's, where Fagin was to meet her that evening. In the meantime Fagin's wife learned of the proposed clopement, and started the police after her runaway husband. He had skipped the town, however, and could not be found. Mrs. Fagin then took her smail bundle of clothing and also skipped the town, leaving a board bill of $27. not could not be found. Ars. ragin then ook her smail bundle of clothing and also kipped the town, leaving a board bill of $27. lary, when Fagin failed to show up, went to neighbor's house, and stayed on the back orch all night, where her mother found her the morning and took her home.

FE LL INTO THE WATER.

A Boatman Comes Up Under a Barre and Barely Escapes Drowning.

McKERSPORT, Aug. 6.-Louis Opperman former on the steamer Tillie met with an accident last evening and one that came very near ending his life. The steamer was making up a tow on the Youghiogheny river mear the Pittsburg, McKeesport and Youghiogheny Railroad bridge, and Opperman was standing on the end of a barge endeavoring to draw two boats together by means of a

There was a space of a few feet between the two boats, and while standing near the edge Opperman lost his balance and fell into the deep water. He suddenly disappeared, and when he came up he was under the boat. He was a good swimmer, and, quickly realizing his dangerous position, he began diving away toward the edge of the boat. came to the top and was saved by ne boat hands.

A Car Passes Over a Man Who Will Prob ably Die From the Shock.

NEW CASTLE, Aug. 6.-An accident that happened at New Castle early this morning, demonstrates that a freight oar can pas over a man without breaking any bones. Frank O'Nell, while coupling cars in the yard, made a misstep and was thrown across the track and two wheels of an empty gondola passed over his left leg just below The train was stopped and he was taken out in an unconscious condition. Strange to relate there were no bones broken, but at this writing he had not regnined consciousness, and it is feared he will die from the shock. His home is at Mahoning, this

WESTERN RESERVE MAPLE SUGAR.

It Is Ahead of That Produced in Vermont by Several Per Cent.

YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 6 .- The Revenue Deparament, Washington, recently published an analysis of Vermont maple sugar, in which the highest polariscope test showed 53.1 per cent.

Deputy Revenue Collector Orr, of this gistrict, recently sent some samples of Bur-ton maple sugar, in which the tests all showed a higher grade than Vermont sugar, one reaching 19.7 per cent, showing that Western Reserve maple sugar is still in the

WITNESSES WERE ABSENT.

The Trial of the Newton Murder Case Postponed on That Account. SCOTTDALK, Aug. 6 .- David Newton, who is charged with the murder of William Risher near Wampum, on the morning of April 3, was brought from the county jail to Alderman Leslie's office for a hearing this after noon.

R.C. Douds, the Beaver Falls constable who is prosecuting the case, swore that certain important witnesses absolutely necessary for the Commonwealth side were sick and could not be present. The case was then postponed until Thursday, August 20.

The City Hand, of Blairsville, gave a concert from 1 o'clock to 2:30. At 11 a. M. General Hastings and Rev. M. M. Sweeney, of Latrobe, made addresses. This afternoon at 2:30 Dr. E. Reed, President of Dickenson College, spoke. Miss Gertrude Wakefield, of Latrobe, rendered a solo. General Hastings spoke eloquently on "The Three Epochs of Our Own History Brought Up by a Visit to the Home of Washington and Battlefields of the Civil War." Hon. Harry White closed the meeting with his remarks on the "Constitutional Convention."

CANNOT GET A QUORUM.

School Board Which Is Divided Into Opposing Factions.

BEAVER FALLS, Aug. 6 .- When the citizens of this place about a year ago petitioned the court to allow them to have three school directors from each ward instead of one, as had been the custom, the objection raised had been the custom, the objection raised was that there were so many they would not agree, but the court compromised the matter by giving each ward two.

The board was divided into two factions, and for some time it has been impossible for them to get up a quorum, and everything is nt a standstill. One side wants heaters in the school buildings and the other side does not, and the feeling is bitter on both sides. Last tall heaters were put into two of the Yonk, Aug. 6 .- James Danner, of the firm of Schall & Danner, bankers and brokers who assigned last March, was arrested on oath of John B. Welsh, of New York, on the charge of larceny as ballee and embezzlement. He gave bail in the sum of $10,500. The affidavit charges that on or about Feb-

The affidavit charges that on or about February 15 James M. Danner received money to the amount of $305.35 from Welsh with the knowledge that he and his firm knew the concern was insolvent.

Also, that on February 26 Danner was bailee of stocks and bonds belonging to Welsh, and amounting altogether to about $20,000, all of which he converted to his own use or to the use of others except the owner. Mr. Welsh entered also similar suits against Michael Schall. The warrants were served upon him. He also entered bail. It is expected that other suits will also be brought.

SUICIDE OF A DESERTER.

After Capture He Hangs Himself in His Cell With a Handkerchief. Inonton, Aug. 6.-Edward Jackson, a de-erter from the regular army of Kansas, was arrested here yesterday and confined in jail. This afternoon he was observed to act queerly, and expressed the greatest fear queerly, and expressed the greatest fear that he might be shot for desertion. He acted violently and was evidently insane. Soon after he was discovered hanging from the bars of his cell, dead. He had tied a handkerchief around his neck and leaned forward, thus choking himself to death. The man is said to have had a very bad record which he feared to return and face. Officers here say this is only one of the many cases reported lately of regulars in the West becoming insane,

TERRORIZED THE WOMEN.

Robbers Compel Them to Keep Quiet While They Change Clothes. McKresport, Aug. 6.-Thieves and day light robbers are terrorizing the people of Elizabeth township, and the situation within the past week has become simply dangerous. Yesterday the house of Mr. Hanna was visited.

The robbers compelled the women to be quiet while they changed their clothes for better apparel and left their old ones behind, and after pocketing all the money they could secure departed. The officers are unable to catch them.

Wants His Trial Concluded. WHELING, Aug. 6-Arguments were heard by Judge Paull in the Circuit Court here this afternoon in the matter of the m made by Dr. George I. Garrison, who killed Dr. George Baird, asking that his trial be concluded, it having been delayed by the illness of Judge Campbell.

TO STUMP OHIO FOR M'KINLEY.

General Hastings Was in the City Last Night and So Declared Himself. General Hastings came in from Ridgeview last night on the mall and left for Clarion later. He spoke during the day at Ridgeview, in line with the character of the day, which was "National" day. Dr. Reed and which was "National" day. Dr. Reed and Judge Harry White, of Indiana, were among the speakers.

The General could not be induced to talk politics. He was going to stump Ohio for McKinley in the next campaign, and thought the Major would about win. He hoped to be able to visit his old command at Arnold's station, if he could find the opportunity.

75 PER CENT DISCOUNT.

No reservation of any kind.

We have inaugurated one of the most extraordinary sales in the history of the Clothing Trade. From today, and until we give up possession of our store September 15th, we make a clear, clean-cut allowance of 25 per cent off your purchase of Ready-Made or Made-to-Measure Clothing. The regular selling prices are marked in plain figures on each garment, and you just pay 25 per cent less than you see on the ticket.

The determination is to turn the goods into money and not ship them back to our Philadelphia house. If you miss this sale you lose money. Examine our peerless stock, and see if we don't mean just what we say.
