box. Every pitcher, ho ever, goes to the box one too often and is more less broken. The surpr ing thing is that the b fellow hasn't been hit ha more often. After seven innings of ha pounding be seemed to regain all this usu ed and effectiveness, and the Pittsburgs were helpless before him. In seven innings they accumulated 16 hits, but did not play the ball safely in the remaining five innings.

The New Yorks were not idle with their sticks, and Buck Ewing once more showed

BUCK IN GREAT FORM.

Twice he came to the plate, when a base hit was prayed for as the farmer prays for rain, and twice he placed the ball safely out of reach of all fielders, while two runs were | date scored in each instance. It was the sort of butting that wins games, and is additions vidence that his presence in the team for the remainder of the season is an absolute necessity. The New Yorks did some splen and Bessett distinguishing themselves. A is marvelous, Beckley and Shugart play-gardinarily. For seven innings the Pitts-rips fairly reveled in base litts, and they ricked and howled with delight. Manager innigle yelled frantically from the h. Miller bellowed continuously whether it or in the field and every man in the is but or in the fleid and every man in the come shouted and screamed for seven indigs. Then they became quiet as lambs not left the fleid in a mountain state of mind. The New Yorks made an excellent tart, getting two runs in the first on Gore's case on balls, Tiernan's base hit, Richardon's sucrifice fly and errors by Hanson and calvin, the latter making a wild throw to test.

SOME BIG HITS.

nd inning Bassett's single and doubles by Rusie and Tiernan gave two more runs. The fat face of Pudgy Galvin and taken on a serious expression that made it look more comical than usual, when sudhis ce-workers struck a batting a asronishing the grand stands and Bierbeaver started wish a clean single and Carroll not a scratch single to fight. Man and Benger both struck out, and "Spud" Galvin was looked upon as an easy mark. He hit a grounder to left that Bassett and Richardson had some misunderstanding about. Behardson finally grabbed the ball with one hand, but could not recover in time to throw to first base, and the bases were fail. Hauton, who is hitting strongly this season, then came up and lined out the first hall pitched for a clean two-bagger, three Pittsbargers racing to the plate. Shugant came next and nearly knocked the ball off the earth. He mised it nearly out of tight and it landed in the extreme right center and rolled under the ropes. The side was retried without additional damage, but there was constemation in the New York camp. The Pintsburgs got another run in the founth on singles by Haulon, Shugart and Seckley and one more in the sevention einglus by Miller, Carroil, Maul and Berger. Bierbauer started with a clean single and

In the twelfth, the New Yorks brought the unthe twelfth, the New Yorks brought the uncertainty to a close by some good hitting. O'hourke reached first on Shugart's wide throw to first, and Connor followed with a base hit. Hanken juggled the ball and O'Bourke got to thred Counce going to second Then Ewing came up and smashed out a clean single, both men scoring. Ewing got to second on a bad throw by Gaivin, and ran home on Milier's low throw to first. That sattled the game. The visitors were easily disposed of in the last half of the twelfth. The actondance was 3,643, and they all wore smiles at the close.

McGamaigie discovered the hattery signs of Rusie and Buckley, which accounts for the manner in which the cyclone was hit early in the game. McGamaigie fined Miller 200 for poor base running in the seventh inning. Robert Barr is the Glants' new pitcher. His release was purchased of the Buffalo club this morning and he signed a New York contract this afternoon. He was the best pitcher in the Eastern Association.

THEY PLAYED BALL.

The Bridegrooms Once More Wallop th Players From the Forest City.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.— The Bridegrooms played great ball to-day and defeated the NEW YORK, Aug 8.—It took Rusic seven Cleveland Spiders rather easily. The Cleveland men showed a disposition to be troublesome up to the sixth inning, but they were "done" after that. The superb fielding the Pittsburgs warmed his work of the home team was the feature of game. Ward took his old position at short. Attendance 5,000. Score:

The League Race.

The contest for the National League per nant continues to be just as exciting as ever. While the Chicago team keep a hold of first sticks, and Buck Ewing once more showed how valuable he is to the team, even if he has a class arm. New Yorks are sadly broken up. The Philles are putting on a wonderful spurt, and the Brooklyns are doing well. The Cleve land team have fallen to pieces and the tallenders are having quite an exciting time. ## Should Win More Games. The baseball writer, W. O. E., in the Sporting Times, has the following to say about our sluggers: Manager McGunnigle now has control of the Pittsburg team and is working in his own way to try and im-prove the standing of his new charge. Two victories over the Clevelands was his starter. Then he packed up his collar and necktie and advanced on his old stronghold Brooklyn. He and his team were warmly received there. Notwithstanding the facreceived there. Notwithstanding the fact that he did everything is his power to "hoodoo" Ward's men, the latter found no tremble in winning the first two games of the series. Mac was disappointed. He had set his heart on winning two of his three games in Brooklyn. He has the consolution that he will have another chance to try next mouth. King and Baldwin are pitching in excellent form, and if they were properly supported with clean fielding and good team work there is no reason why the Pittsburgs should not win more games.

THE COUNTY LEAGUE.

Wilkinburgs Make Their Appearance and Get a Clean Whitewash. The game at the East End Gym Park yesterday between the E. E. Gyms and Wilkinsburg resulted in a victory for the Gyms, shutting the Wilkinsburgs out without a run. Thompson pitched his usual great game. The Wilkinsburgs are a lot of good clean ball players, but were a little nervous in the first part of the game. McElroy pitched a good game. The lieavy batting of Curgo was a great feature, making two home runs. The Wilkinsburgs are the successors of the McKeesports in the County League and will asky fill the place.

To the Sporting Editor of The Dispatch: the Climax players in the game at Bridgeville on Saturday, August 8. The second baseman, named Barr, was especially profane and vulgar in his remarks before the ladies present at the game. We sincerely hope that such profanity and vulgarity will not be heard a second time, as the repetition of such conduct will be the means of keeping any lady or ladies from the future

Made a Close Contest

There was quite an interesting game played at Exposition Park yesterday after noon between the three A's and the Superior Athletics, the latter winning. The pitching on both sides was good. The score:

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] SALEM, Aug. 8.—Two very fine games were played here to-day between the Turners, of East Liverpool, and the local team. A large crowd witnessed both games. The first resulted in favor of Salem by a score of 2 to 5. The second game was the more exciting of the two, and resulted in the visitors winning by a score of 8 to 7. The Turners have an exceptionally fine record as an amateur team, and came here expecting to carry off both games easily, but as it was they had a hard time to get away with one.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., Aug. 8.—The Eclipse club, | tempt.

of Allegheny, was defeated here to-day in one of the finest contests of the season. The feature of the game was Lewis', of the Johntowns, hard hitting, Stinkel's catching, Wilson's base running and the outfield work of McNamara. The Eclipse lost the game through Slattery's wild pitching and Holly's poor work at short.

There was a good ball game played yester

In reply to Mr. Traris' fair offer, we will say we will play our club (Beaver Greys), and not a picked nine, and all we ask is for the Eclipse to do the same; and as our forfeit is at The Disparation office, we will meet the manager of the Eclipse at that office (Disparati), on Wednesday between 10 and 12 A. M. to sign articles of agreement.

lan and O'Connor won the double scull championship this afternoon, beating Gaudaur and McKay by about four lengths. The race was three miles, with a turn, for $1,000 a side and the championship. Gaudaur and McKay won the toss and were allowed the inside course. The start was made at 7 P. M. in a smooth course. At the pistol shot Hanlan and O'Connor sprang shead almost from the first, pulling a 37 stroke. Both crews were pulling together beautifully, but Gaudaur and McKay gradually dropped behind, and at the mile flag a full length separated them from their opoonents. Hanlan and O'Counor were then pulling 35 to the minute and passed the flag at 5:35. They then slowed down to 30, while Gaudaur and McKay were pulling steadily at 36. The turn was reached in 8:25. The eaders turned beautifully, but Gaudaur and McKay were rather slow.

On the return the leaders had two lengths the best of it, and they were so confident of winning that they played with their opponents for the rest of the way. Once they stopped dead, and then spurting ahead at 38 stopped dead, and then spurting ahead at 38 to the minute, put four lengths between the drooping champions in no time. Gaudant and McKny rowed a game race, and never slackened from start to finish, though they pulled a losing race from the start. The official time was 18:26%, which is much slower than that made by McKay and Hosmer at Worcester, when they beat O'Connor and Enright in 18:02½.

The race was rowed in the presence of about 20,000 people. The betting yesterday was 1 to 8 in favor of Gaudaur and McKay. They continued to be the favorites until the Toronto contingent arrived this afternoon. They backed their townsmen heavily and the betting was even for a time, but Gaudaur and McKay's friends weakened slightly and the odds turned to 10 to 9 on Hanlon and O'Connor. Just as the start was made $100 to $50 was offered with no takers. Claude McDonnel, of Toronto, was judge at the finish. R. McKay was referee. Hanlan and O'Connor will leave on August 18 for the Pacific coast to make an exhibition tour.

SOME FINE DOGS. Messrs. Boggs and Lewis Have a Number of New Importations. Mr. S. L. Boggs, of this city, and Mr. Joseph Lewis, of Cannonsburg, arrived on the steamship Normania the other day, and prought with them some of the most valuable dogs that ever left the British shore

They brought home with them from the world-renowned breeder, Mr. Llewellin, the following English setters: Viscount, Moll Llewellyn, Nora and Victress, four of the best dogs of the breed that ever came into this country. Mr. Llewellyn is the breeder this country. Mr. Llewellyn is the breeder of the grand old dog, Count Noble, that died recently at the home of Mr. B. F. Wilson, of this city, also of old Champion Gladstone and many more of the good old dogs that have won their laurels at the field trials and at the bench shows. Mr. Llewellin expects Viscount to take the place of Count Noble as a sire in this country. Another champion English setter in the lot is Nia. She has won over 20 prizes on the other side. Mr. Lewis thinks that he has a sure winner in the beautiful young Irish setter dog Finglas, purchased from the Rev. Robert O'Callaghan, R. N., who has the best and largest kennel of these dogs in the world. MORRIS PARK, Aug. 8.-Fully 12,000 persons made the journey to this course to-day and they were treated to some of the most ex-best and largest kennel of these dogs in the world.

The gentlemen also brought home with them two fox terriers. They are Champion Diver III., winner of over 35 prizes on the other side, a handsome, game liftle fellow; also Rowton Satety, not yet a year old, and winner of many prizes in England. All these dogs will be shown at the Pittsburg show and other prominent shows in the country, and the setters would be run in the most prominent field triels.

minent field trials. ABOUT GEORGE DIXON.

The Feather-Weight Champion to Fight Fred Johnson for a Big Stake. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 .- Thomas O'Rourke, Dixon's backer, writes as follows from San George Dixon's victory over Abe Willis, whom George Dixon's victory over Abe Willis, whom sporting men and the newspapers claimed was the greatest lib-pound puglist in the word, gained him a host of friends on the Pacific Slope. Dixon's style of fighting and his gentlemanly manners surprised the California people.

Wills was game and very clever, but the first punch Dixon fairly landed dropped the Australian champion to the floor. Willis claimed he could see two Dixons before him, and that he was never hit so hard before, and he doubted if he ever would be. Dixon is now the 115-pound champion of the world, and he is eager to meet any puglist in the world for $1,600 or $2,500 a side and the championship.

world for $1,900 or $2,500 a side and the championship.
Dixon's next battle will be with Fred Johnston, a the feather-weight champion of England. But it all depends upon the Felican and National Sporting clubs. The English champion has challenged Dixon to fight, if either of the above clubs will put up a $1,00 purse, which was the amount Willia and Dixon fought for. 1 will match Dixon to fight Johnston for $500 a side—that is, $2,500—and the championship. Richard K. Fox, the proprietor of the Police Gazette, now in London, has been communicated to confer with Ernest C. Welles, of the Pelican Club, and Lord Lonadale, of the National Club, to arrange the match.

A Principal in an English Prize Fight Receives His Death Blow. MANCHESTER, Aug. 8 .- A prize fight which resulted in the death of one of the partici-pants took place near this city last night. Two local fighters named Henney and Swin-dells were matched to fight to a finish for a sovereign a side. The men met and fought savagely with varying fortunes for over an savagely with varying fortunes for over an hour, when Swindelis, seeing an opening dealt Henney a terrible blow on the head. Henney threw up his hands and dropped like a log. His seconds thought he was simply unconscious and efforts were made to restore him, but they were fruitless. There is doubt that the blow he received caused his death. The police were notified, and Swindelis and the leaders who had brought about the fight were arrested on the charge of manslaughter.

A GREAT SPRINT RACE. mmond and Morrissey Matched to Run One Hundred Yards for $1,000. What promises to be an interesting foot race was arranged at this office yesterday afternoon. The backers of P. Morrissey, of afternoon. The backers of P. Morrissey, of McKeesport, and Tom Hammond, of Brownsville, met here and signed articles for the two runners named to run 100 yards at Homestead on September 5 for $500 a side. Each party put up a forfeit of $100. Morrissey is to receive three yards start. The two men ran a match some time ago and Morrissey who was in receipt of four yards start won quite easily. Both men will go into active training at once.

Frank G. Lenz and C. H. Petticord start on their wheel tour from Pittsburg to New Orleans to-day. The go via Eighteenth street, Southside to Brownsville, cross the ountains from Uniontown to Cumberland mountains from Uniontown to Cumberland and Hagertown. Md., then turn South down the famous Shenandoah Valley, to Staunton Va., stopping at the Euray Caverns. From Staunton they go to Knoaville and Chattanooga, Tenn., then through Birmingham, Ala., and Meridian, Miss., to New Orleans, passing through some of the largest cotton, sugar and tobacco plantations in the world. They expect to return home by way of New York City by coast line steamer around the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic Coast.

Will Start To-Day.

AN AMATEUR CYCLIST.

The New Rule That Will Be Adopted a Hartford Defining His Status.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] NEW YORK, Aug. 8.-The Constitutional Convention of the League of American Wheelmen, to be held at Hartford on September 8 and 9, gives promise of being a re-markable event in cycling circles. There will be changes made in the League constitution, racing rules, etc., but these events are very mediocre when taking into consideration that a newamateur rule will be adopted.

A rule which will be submitted for the consideration of the meeting next month, and one which will in all probability be accepted as the proper definition of an amateur, is as follows: HAMILTON BEACH, ONT., Aug. 8.-Han-as the proper definition of an amateur, is as follows:

"An amateur is one who has not engaged in, nor assisted in, nor taught eyeling or any other recognized athletic exercise for money or other renumeration, nor knowingly competed with or against a professional for a prize of any description; or one who, after having forieited the amateur status has had the same restored by a competent authority having jurisdiction over the sport. A cyclist ceases to be an amateur by—

(A) Engaging in cycling or any other athletic exercise, or personally teaching, training or coaching any person therein, either as a means of obtaining a livelihood, or for a wager, money, prize or gate money. (B) Competing with a professional or making pace for or having the pace made by such a one in public or for a prize.

(C) Selling, bartering, pawning or otherwise turning into cash or realizing upon any prize won by him.

(D) Accepting, directly or indirectly, for cycling any remuneration, compensation or expense whatever from a cycle manufacturer, agent or other person interested in the trade or from any other person having a pecuniary interest in the sport, except from a blevele or other athletic club.

(E) A cyclist does not dorfeit his amateur status by teaching the elements of cycling solely for the purpose of effecting the sale of a bicycle.

(F) The league recognizes in addition to cycling, as athletic exercises, all sports over which the Amateur Athletic Union, the cycing, as athletic exercises, all sports over which the Amateur Athletic Union, the National Association of Amateur Carsmen and other amateur athletic organizations

White Means Business Grant White, the well-known sprinter, called at this office last evening and left the following challenge: "I will run any man in Pittsburg, bar George Smith, a race of 100 yards for $500, providing the man who runs me has resided in Pittsburg six months. I prefer Davy Sheehan, as he has been making lots of bluffs through the newspapers, and is evidently afraid to put up his money. If Sheehan wants to run and not talk, I will meet him at THE DISPATCH office any night this week to make a match."

Will Wrestle Reilly. The following challenge was received at this office last evening: "I, the undersigned, bearing that Ed Rellly thinks he can easily down me in a wrestling match, will give him a chance to prove it. I will wrestle him the best two in three falls, eatch-as-catch-can, for $250 a side. I will meet him or bis backers at The Disparch office at any time to make a match. I desire an early reply.

"Bos Miller."

FATHER A MURDERER. WO GIRLS TESTIFY AS TO THE KILL-

ING OF A SOLDIER.

He Had Angered Charles Miller, Who Went at Him With an Ax-Handle-Told His Daughters Not to Tell-The Tragedy Occurred Last March. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] HARRISBURG, Aug. 8 .- Katie and Sadie Vananasvale stood in the Mayor's court room this afternoon and told a story about caused him to be held on the charge of murdering Dallas Fichthorn, an old soldier, whose body was found in a shed near the canal above Maclay street last March. Katie is 18 years old and Sadie is 12. Miller stood in the dock with his wife who held a pretty little baby in her arms and listened to the story with little concern. Katie said, and Sadie corroborated her story, that several men came into their home on the night of the murder and Miller chased them out. Miller lived in the big house along the canal, above Maclay street. When the fellows got on the outside they threw stones through the window. "Papa went out after them with an axe-handle," said Katie. "I heard a man cry out 'don't kill me.' Papa dragged the fel-low away and returned home almost an hour afterward. Next morning paps told me not to tell on him. He said he wished the jury would come and take the man away. I saw the body. The man was one of those in the house the day before. J. M. Trostle, a resident of Dauphin street, is also said to have seen Fichthorn counting some money the day before his body was discovered, and he had a controbody was discovered, and he had a controversy with Coroner Shindler over the result of the inquest. Miller, who is a man about 35 years of age, stoutly maintains his innocence, and insists that he knows nothing about the matter. After the hearing the elder of the two witnesses said she believed the blow dealt Fichthorn had killed him, because her father had cautioned them not to say anything about it.

The gist of the testimony this afternoon was that the tramps had become obstreper-ous in the house, were ordered to leave, re-fused and Miller attempted to eject them with the aid of the ax-handle, racing them outside. He then returned, and next morn-ing Fichthorn's body was found. Then Miller cautioned the family to say nothing
