PLOWED THROUGH MEN

A Passenger Train Plunges Into a. Gang of Section Laborers.

TWO MEN KILLED, ONE BADLY HURT

The Canton Rain Maker is Not Downed by His Sunday Pailure.

MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

EAST PALESTINE, O, Aug. 11.-This even ing a fast passenger train ran into a gang of section men, killing two and injuring another. Just before 6 o'clock the gang under Peter Shuster was working in a deep cut on the Fort Wayne at the State Line conling station, when a west bound express train dashed around a curve and plowed right through the men, several of them being thrown to each side.

Sullivan Petro, an Italian, was instantly killed, Adam Hull so badly injured that he died soon after. A freight train was passing on another track at the time, and it is thought the men became confused, or misis thought the men became confused, or inis-took the signal of their boss, and stepped on the wrong track. A peculiar ciscumstance of the accident is that Newton Ritchie, the brother of Isaac Ritchie, who was so badly injured last week, was running on the ex-press this evening, and was almost pros-trated by the accident. Hull's father died last week, and he was the only support of his mother.

A MIXED-UP MARRIAGE CASE.

It Is Brought to the Front by Dome Troubles in McKeesport.

McKresport, Aug. 11,-The local police are wrestling with a complicated case presented by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Capps. Some time ago an item was published from Wilkins-burg, stating how Mrs. Capps had died of a burg, stating how Mrs. Capps had died of a broken heart after following her husband from England, he having, so it was said, run away with another woman.

Capps was arrested here last night for breaking things at his home, and his supposed wife was arrested for intoxication. At the hearing she testified that she had married Capps before his first wife died, he stating that he had never been married to the woman now deceased. Capps then testified that he had married the woman present at the hearing while her first husband was living. Capps also said a supposed son of his second-supposed wife had married her. The case was so mixed up that the Mayor has ordered an investigation.

friends living near Lucas, a small town six miles east of here. To-night her city relatives called on the police and informed them that Miss Ball had poince and informed them that Miss Ball had not arrived in Lucas, nor was there any trace of her between the two places. A search party started out after her to-night, In making the trip to Lucas the young lady would have been obliged to traverse a lonely country district, and it is feared she has met with foul play, as the roads are frequented by tramps.

PENFIELD, PA., Aug. II.-Last evening party of men camped near DuBols, in a for-est, and laid a board table for an all-night est, and laid a board table for an all-night pame of poker. Two of the party lost heav-ily and withdrew. Soon after a blaze of light darted under the table and a tremendous explosion fol-lowed, burning three of the party badly. The defeated players had piled powder un-der the table, and lighted it by means of a powder train under the leaves. Poker chips and odd bits of money are being searched for in the ruins.

It Breaks Loose From Its Drivers and Charges Upon Little Children.

WHEELING, Aug. 11 .- Great excitement was escape of a mad bull from its drivers. The animal, probably crazed by the heat, broke from its keepers and dashed through the principal streets.

A crowd of children playing on the street attracted its attention, and the infuriated beast charged upon them, knocking down little Etm Bell and badly bruising her. Others were chased indoors, and for a time that portion of the city was panic-stricken until an officer shot the animal.

CHARRED REMAINS OF A MAN

Found Among the Ruins of a Barn That Was Burned at Alliance.

ALLIANCE, Aug. 11.—The burning of two burns in East Alliance yesterday had a horrible sequel when it was discovered that the remains of a human being had been found The bones are evidently those of a man, but his identity is unknown. The general supposition is that a tramp crawled into the bars to sleep; that his pipe set first to the hay and that he was smothered to death before the flames reached him.

THE RAIN-MAKER STILL AT IT.

He Explains His Sunday Failure and Lays

Claim to Yesterday's Shower. CANTON, Aug. 11 .- Wizard or Fakir Melbourne has adopted new tactics. He apparently prefers to wait until after a rain before prophesying. There was a heavy downpour to-day and this Melbourne claimed as his own.

The failure of last Sunday he lays to a contrary condition of the atmosphere. A few friends still believe in him, and Melbourne himself has not lost confidence, but is willing to bet on his rain-producing machine.

REQUIEMS FOR BASTER

The First Funeral Services of the Germ Editors Held in Hoboken, N. J.

New York, Aug. 11.—Impressive services were held over the body of Herman Raster, editor of the Illinois Staats Zeitung, in the reception hall of the German Club in Hoboken to-day. The body arrived on the steamship Eider from Germany Monday, ac-companied by Mrs. Raster, her daughter Anna, her two sons, and Mr. Thurnler, her brother-in-law, from Berlin. This morning

Anna, her two sons, and Mr. Thurnler, her brother-in-law, from Berlin. This morning the casket was removed from the steamship to the German Club, where preparations had been made to repose it in state. In accordance with the prescribed wishes of the deceased the coffin bore the simple inscription on a silver plate: "Herman Raster, born May 28, 1827, died July 22, 1891." The casket was literally covered with floral emblems sent by various German-American press organizations.

The first speaker was Mr. P. A. Bebrens, acting President of the German Club of Hoboken. Toward the end he broke down with emotion, and cut his address short by presenting a wreath on behalf of the club. Dr. Hans Kndlich, of Hoboken, spoke of the deceased editor's patriotic fight for Republican sentiments agitated at the beginning of the revolution in Germany in 1848. When the Astors and Vanderbilts are forgotten, he declared, the name of Herman Raster would survive the sweep of centuries. Dr. Kndlich extolled him as the pioneer of German-American power. Mrs. Raster sobbed violently, and it was with difficulty she was persuaded to leave the casket and enter her carriage. Under escort of the Chicago committee the body was taken to Chicago at 7 o'clock to-night, where final funeral services will be performed.

CORNERING THE CEREALS.

Farmers' Purchasing and Shipping Compa

nles Operating in Kansas [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] TOPEKA, KAN., Aug. 11.-The members of local corporations who are filing thei charters with the Secretary of State, the avowed objects being to purchase and ship grain, is proof positive that the farmers are organizing systematically for the purpose of holding their wheat and other products until such a time as they can se products until such a time as they can secure satisfactory prices. Three of these companies placed their charters in the hands of the Secretary of State this morning. They are the Clyde Farmers' Alliance Shipping Association, capital stock, $25,000, the Farmers' Purchasing and Shipping Association of Pianville, capital, $10,000, and the Esbon's Farmers' Shipping Association of Esbon, capital stock, $20,000.

The incorporators of these companies are all active farmers, with capital stock which they are using to assist their neighbors who are less fortunate. Their motives are not entirely philauthropic, as they expect to realize a handsome profit from their investment, but the plan under which they will operate will materially aid farmers who would otherwise be compelled to sell their products for what they would bring. Before the expiration of 30 days it is believed by Alliance men, who are in a position to know what is being done, that from one to ten of these companies will be in operation in each county in the State.

A SNAKE IN HER SLIPPER.

The Terrible Experience of an Old Lady

Down in Arkansus. LITTLE ROCK, Aug. 11 .- Mrs. Lucille Mor gan, an estimable lady of advanced age, of Little Rock, recently received a shock which nearly cost her life by finding a snake in one of a pair of carpet slippers, into which she had thrust her foot. Mrs. Morgan, rising during the night to minister to her daughter, who was alling, hastily placed her feet in the slippers, which were at her bedside, only to speedily withdraw them on feeling a cold, slimy body snugly esconsed in one. This was done so quickly that the snake, also taken by surprise, had no time to bite her, but disturbed in his nap crawled at and ran under a piece of furniture.

Corpses of Victims Cannot Be Shipped to Ohio and Indiana Now.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] Youngstown, Aug. 11.—The railroad com-anies have issued circulars here notifying all parties that in the future the remains of any one dying of diphtheria will not be received for transportation to any point in Ohio or Indiana, the State Board of Health having passed a resolution to that effect.

Several epidemics have occurred in Ohio by reason of the conveying of diphtheritic cases from one point to another for burial, In the opinion of physicians here there is no danger if proper precautions are used after the death of a diphtheritic patient, but the carelessness of some persons has resulted in the State Board of Health taking action. all parties that in the future the remains of

DR. MOFFAT DROWNED

He Took a Swim at Chauta one and Sank When Near the Pier.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CHAUTAUQUA, Aug. 11.-A very sad drowning accident happened here to-day, at which Dr. A. G. Moffat, a prominent dentist of Cleveland, O., lost his life. The deceased, who was about 30 years old, had just reached here from Toronto, Canada, er route for home, and decided to take a swim, to wash off the car dust, in company with a friend. He swam out from the bathing house into the lake, and on his return, when within reach of the pier, he suddenly disappeared from view.

disappeared from view.

He was not in the water over 12 minutes before his body was recovered. Drs. Anderson and Seaver used oxygen gas and applied batteries in the hope of restoring consciousness, but to no avail. There is an impression around that heart disease may have had something to do with the accident. This is the third casualty here this season thus far.
