THE COAL TRADE OF IRWIN.

It Has Been Vgry Dull, but Hopes for the Future Are Expressed. IRWIN, Aug. 12 .- The coal trade in this section has been so dull of late as to awaken some apprehensions of the future. At the Westmoreland Company's mines, where some 1,300 men are usually employed, it was stated that while all the mines have been running, they have not been pushed to their utmost capacity, owing to the prevalent duliness. The Southside mines will be idle duliness. The Southside mines will be idle for two weeks, in order to complete the rope haulage system, to be used there as a substitute to the old engines. As soon as these mines resume the Larimer mines will be stopped for a similar purpose. The officials say they are hopeful of the future, and think in a few weeks all their mines will be rauning with a full complement of men.

The Penn Gas Coal Company's officials also report their trade picking up, and say their output will soon reach the old figures. Many of the idle uniners have sought work elsewhere, but the great mass of old employes still remain here looking for an early resumption of work.

ILL AND DIED OF NEGLECT.

A Sick Man in Braddock Deserted by the Family With Whom He Lived.

Brandpock, Aug. 12.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned here by the death of a young American Mechanic named R. A. Black. He had been rooming in the house of John 6. Bennett, and some weeks ago became ill with typhoid fever, and last Sunday died. It is now stated that the Bennett family deserted the house while Black was ill. inching all doors except that leading to his youn, and that there was no one to care for its that had been room one to care for its that had been room one to care for its that had been room and change to part of the State where you will find pipe organs on exhibition and ready for service. We can build them in prices from $700 up to $10,000. Specifications and designs furnished on application. We can refer you to Butler Street M. E. Church, Scottiale U. B. Church, Johnstown M. E. Church Alleghen, City Third U. P. Church and others, and remember, no matter what name may hy deserted the house while Black was ill, seeking all doors except that leading to his boom, and that there was no one to care for him but the brother members of the American Mechanics, who did all they could.

His attendants say they were ordered from the house by the Bennetts, and told to take hear sick friend with them. The Bennetts io not deny the story, but say they merely lid what others would have done for their two preservation. Young Black's parents weside at Port Ferry, and Mrs. Bennett says when she asked his father to remove him when she asked his father to remove him she received a very uncivil reply.

YOUNGSTOWN'S NEW RAILROAD.

It Will Tap Limestone Oparries and Iro

Works, and Extend Eastward. Youxestown, O., Aug. 12.—The Mahoning and State Line Railroad is being organized here and the necessary papers to secure its incorporation have already been forwarded to Columbus. ### BOSTON'S CLOSE CALL Enough Powder in a Railroad Wreck There to Blow Up the Town.

McKurspour, Aug. 12.-A collision occurred early this morning on the Pemickey Railroad at Boston. A freight train crashed into the rear of another, and in the wreck a carload of powder, enough to blow up the entire town, was completely smashed.

A heavy train had left here with orders to A heavy train and left here with orders to hay over at Boston and allow a second train to pass it. The second freight train steamed into Boston too fast for the engineer to obey the operator's signal to stop, and it crashed into the rear of the first freight. All train-men escaped, but an engine and two cars were damaged, the cars containing the pow-der being thrown almost over the high em-bankment.

Two children of L. L. Horton, manager of the Somerset Lumber Company, near Ohio Pyle, were fatally burned Tuesday evening by the explosion of an oil can. The boy was pouring oil on a torch which he was preparing to take to a hive of Italian bees when his little sister threw a lighted match into the torch igniting the oil in the can. The house burned down.

CROASDALE'S BODY CREMATED.

A Large Number of Single Tax People Attend the Funeral Services. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] New York, Aug. 12.—The funeral of William T. Croasdale, who died at his home in Merriwold Park, N. Y., last Sunday, was assisted in the raid, and several persons are under surveillance. Colonel D. M. Yeomans, whose silver plate was stolen new plants. ner, Louis Windmuller, Louis F. Post, August Lewis and Eva J. Turner, the President of the Woman's Single Tax Club of Brook-lyn. The Rev. Father Huntington, son of lyn. The Rev. Father Huntington, son of Bishop Huntington, read the prayer for the dead, and Henry George made an address. It was the first time Mr. George had spoken in public since his illness of last year. He said that Mr. Croasdale inad worked for the elevation of humanity, that it might be better when he ceased to be. After the services about 50 members of the Mannattan Single Tax Club, with representives from the Delaware Society, of which Mr. Croasdale was the first President, and the Reform Club, accompanied the body to the Fresh Pond crematory, where the remains were cremated. The palibearers were Henry George, Louis F. Post, A. J. Steers, G. H. Bates, Isaac Cook, E. N. Vallandingham, R. H. Young, Read Gordon, J. A. B. Dilworth, Jason Hinman, Colonel G. A. Miller, E. J. Schriver, J. A. Eason, J. P. Cranford, Martin Battle and E. H. Underhill. Neither Dr. McGlynn nor Hugh O. Pentecost, old associates of Mr. nor Hugh O. Pentecost, old associates of Mr-Croasdale, attended the funeral. There is Croasdale, attended the inheral. Interest no doubt now that Mr. Croasdale died from drinking impure well water at his place in Sullivan county. The water brought on the illness, which settled in his intestines, already weak from an operation, and peritoritie enough

He Raises a Fine Cotton Crop at the Expense of Planters in Other Places. SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Aug. 12.—Advices from many points in the States of Coabuila and Durango, Mex., are condensed into wat scarce, poor crops and no money. In all of that portion of the Republic a good cotton crop has been made in but one settlement, and this is the colony of Tiahuaillo, in which

and this is the colony of Tiahualilo, in which President Diaz and one of his ex-Ministers are personally interested.

These people have obtained water from the river Nazas, thereby depriving the planters of the Laguna district and their lundreds of dependents. A riot has been narrowly averted. Corn in Durango is selling at $4.50 per venega of 165 pounds. A deputation of citizens recently visited the City of Mexico to induce the Government to remove the duty on American corn, but met with no success.

1-4 OF THE SELLING PRICE

RETURNED EVERY TIME.

The reason is plain. We would rather leave our goods with the residents of Pittsburg and vicinity at a clean, clear cut of 25 per cent than send them back to Philadelphia. We reserve nothing. Everything in both the Made-to-Measure and Ready-Made Departments can be had at 25 per cent less than the usual price, just because we vacate here September 15.

Bear in mind, you who have not traded with us, that we don't sell ordinary clothing. The kind we keep has multiplied friends for us rapidly. There's enough of it left to satisfy the most particular regarding fit and quality. Perfect fitting, beautifully made clothing is hard to find at any price. When you get it 25 per cent off the usual price it is because something unusual has occurred. The reason this time is our determination to close this store. Wise people are here by the score every day, making selections for future needs. Can you afford to miss such an op-
