The Trotters and Pacers Make Some Lively Going at Rochester - Three Favorites Get Badly Laid Out and the Talent Lose Their Cash-Results at Jerome Park. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] ROCHESTER, Aug. 12 .- By starting early and keeping the horses going till dark the entire card for the second day of the grand circuit meeting was disposed of this afternoon after 14 heats were trotted and paced. The sudden fall in the thermometer made it pleasanter for the spectators, but the patron-age fell off considerably by the opening. Besides the regular events there was a good mile by the Buffalo team, Globe and Justina, to skeleton wagon, with Geers driving. The pair went to the half in 199%, and after Justina made a few skips they finished in :16%; last quarter in 33 seconds. Once more the events proved expensive to talent, as three of the favorites were defeated, and Hal Pointer, the only one to come off, was quoted at too long for any chance to get even. A very interesting ball game was played at Bridgeville yesterday afternoon between the East End Gymnastic Club and Bridgevill teams. The contest virtually decided the question as to what team will win the County League pennant this season, as, if Bridgeville had won, the two teams would have been tied for first place. But they were beaten, and it may safely be said that the Gyms will get the pennant.

The attendance was good, and a large number of Bridgeville's belies were present, base hits and earned as I number of Bridgeville's belies were present, and their enthusiasm was unbounded. They pulled heartily for their team, but their heroes were completely outplayed. The East Enders were in great form, and played an errorless game as far as fielding was concerned. Up to that point only two hits had been made off his delivery. But in that inning he was touched up for four good hits. Patterson, while trying to steal second, had his shoulder dislocated. He was replaced by Jones. The Gyms outplayed their op-ponents at every point, and that tells the story. They really played a good game. The score: the turnstile. A liberal

Again and again was she recalled at the close of the scene bays: DEAR KATE-I have often thought I should like to hear from you or cousin Kate, for I remember how nicely your folks treated myself and my husband when we were in Washington, but if you are like the rest of the world you doubtless believe all the newspapers say against me. The malleious storles which they seem to enjoy circulating are as false as they possibly can be, but, as you know, the world likes to have a sensation, and as such they made my marriage. I cannot help all they say. You have met Sam. You know he is a nice fellow, and you would not find him anything like a wild Indian as the public no doubt think. I will have as good a home as more than half of the white farmers have on the other side of the river.
