INDIAN TERRITORY PROHIBITION. Judge Bryant's Annulling Decision Does

Not End the Matter MUSKOGEE, I. T., Aug. 15.-Indian Agent Bennet went to Ardmore, I. T., to confiscate and destroy a carload of beer received at that place since Judge Bryant's decision that that beverage was not pro hibited in the Territory. Judge Shackleford returned from Indiana last night, and stated to-day that he has herotofore held and now holds that the intent of the law was to prohibit the sale of intoxicants in the Territory, and that the sale of beer was not, in his opinion, excepted. As this court has concurrent jurisdiction with the Paris and Fort Smith courts, the beer saloons recently set up will have a rough road to travel, notwithstanding Judge Bryant's decision.

DERSONAL—WHY NOT EDUCATE YOUR.

SELFY Why allow your children to romain ignorant or search in vain for knowledge while the only correct reprint of the great Encyclopedia Brittanica knocks at your door for admission? This work is a library in itself, a verifiable storehouse of knowledge. Into its freasury the crowned heads of the kingdom of brains have poured their offering. It is well termed the king of its tribe and the monumental work of English literature. Heretofore the cost of this great work has placed it beyond the reach of most people. This har to its popular use has now been removed by the completion of a faithful repriat of this mightly work. The 22,000 pages of text, 8,000 linestrations and 700 maps are reproduced with absolute fidelity, not a single line, nor an illustration, nor map being omitted. Our reprint is the only faithful one, and consists of 80 volumes, which includes the five volumes of American Supplement. Frice, $150 per volume, Sold on eavy payments.
