AN ALLIANCE ORATOR

Enlivens the Farmers' Encampment at Mt. Gretna by a Savage

ATTACK ON BAILROADS AND BANKS

This Will Be the Big Day, and Many Prominent Men Will Speak.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.] Mr. Guetna, Aug. 19.-The farmers of Central Pennsylvania turned out in large numbers to attend the Mt. Gretna Encampment. For the first time since the opening of the assembly the sun rose in a cloudless sky this morning. Every train to the grounds was filled with people, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon the attendance was placed at 10,000 by the gate keepers.

At 10 o'clock this morning addresses were unde in the Auditorium by G. C. Krivner, D. H. Forney and J. A. Gundy, of Pennsylvania; Colonel N. A. Dunning, editor of the National Economist, Washington, and Hon. National Economist, Washington, and Hon. Grard C. Brown, Lecturer of the Pennsylvania State Grange. The latter spoke in agraman. Another speech was delivered by W.m. M. Benninger, of Pennsylvania.
Colonel Dunning, who is a member of the National Farmers Alliance, scored the railroads, banks and political parties. He advocated lower railroad rates, and the abolition of banks, and deplores that in the past the volume of enrency in circulation among the people was only $5 per capita, and insisted that to make the country prosperous it should be $50. nid be $50.

The exhibition of agricultural machinery is now in full operation. All the exhibits have been placed in position, and the large tract devoted to their display presents an animated scene. The hum of busy wheels and the shriek of whistles is constant. The exhibitors are busy entertaining their visitors, and are taking many orders from the farmers. Although the large manufacturers of reapers and binders have agreed not to exhibit at fairs and exhibitions, all the leading makes in that line are displayed here in great variety by local agents.

The following speakers will be here tomorrow: General Daniel H. Hastings, exlicutement Governor Black, Rev. Dr. G. W. Atherton, President of the Pennsylvania state College; J. S. Frain, Hon. Marriett Brosius, all of Pennsylvania. To-morrow is recognized by common consent as the The exhibition of agricultural machinery

Brosius, all of Pennsylvania. To-morrow is recognized by common consent as the greatest day of the week. It is expected by the managers that there will be 75,000 people present. The tents erected for the farmers and their families have been all rented, and a large number of people are encamped on the grounds.

YOUNG MEN'S FOOLISH FREAK.

A Laden Car Rushes Down a Steep Incline, Killing Three Men.

BEADFORD, Aug. 19 .- Anson L. Pratt, a firean on the Campbell Lumber Railroad, near hane, this county, was killed to-day, and John Galvin, the engineer, and an unknown young man were fatally injured in an accident. Pratt and Galvin were engaged in making up a train of bark cars in the woods, making up a train of bark cars in the woods, and left one car on the summit of a steep grade on the road, while they started to pull another car from a siding near by. They had placed blocks of wood under the wheels of the car on the hill to hold it, but while they were busy with the lower car two young men came along and knocked the blocks from beneath the wheels.

The liberated car sped like the wind downthe grade toward the engine. One of the young men, whose name is still unknown, was on the car which he had helped to start, but when it gained such great speed he leaped off and was so badly injured that he has been unconscious since and will not recover. Galvin and Pract were in the engine at the time and had not the slightest intimation that a heavily laden car was rushing toward them with lightning speed, or they could easily have escaped. The tender and car came together with a terrible crash, and hoth were ween termed and search the support of the property of the prop r came together with a terrible crash, and car came together with a terrible crash, and both men were jammed up against the botter and covered with wreckage. Pratt died instantly, one leg being out off, and he was fearfully mangled. Galvin was pinned against the boiler and had one leg crushed to a pulp, while he was scalded to the bone. He was taken to Kane, where his leg was amputated, and dispatches from there say that he will not survive the night.

RUN DOWN AT A CROSSING.

A Family Party of Three Is Struck by an Engine at McKeesport. McKresport, Aug. 19.-An awful railroad accident occurred here this evening at 7 clock at the Walnut street crossing of the Battimore and Ohio Railroad. The east bound mail train struck a carriage contain-ing Samuel Black, Mrs. R. J. Black, and a 15-months-old habe, Civde Black. When the carriage was struck, it was lifted and hurled carriage was struck, it was lifted and hurled to one side many feet. The babe was torn from its mother's arms and instantly killed, and the old gentleman, Samuel Black, was the only occupant who escaped uninured. The horse was instantly killed and the carriage term to fragments.

Samuel Black, the injured man, is 71 years of age, and it is feared be cannot recover, although at 9 r. x. he was resting easier. He is the father of Drs. R. J. and C. R. Black, who are among the most prominent citizens. who are among the most prominent citizens of this place. The party had started out for their regular drive, and in approaching the crossing, neither heard nor saw the train until it was too late to retrent.

SWALLOWING A BABY ALIVE. A Mother Discovers a Blacksnake in Time to Save Her Child. HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Aug. 19.-Mrs. William Huxley, living in a little cabin near Butfalo Shoals, was making soap yesterday, leaving her six-months-old babe sleeping in its cradle. She heard the infant cry, and harrying into the house, discovered an en-armous blacksnake colling around her child. he snake had swallowed the babe's arm to he shoulder.

The horrified mother killed the snake, lifelt was seven feet two inches long, of he black mocer species, and fought wickedly, he babe's arm was blistered as if it had een limmersed in scalding water.

A HUMAN CRAZY-QUILT.

Over 800 Patches of Skin Successfully Grafted Upon a Lima Man.

Lina, Aug. 19.—Drs. Brookes, Hoover and Collins have just accomplished a marvelous case of skin-grafting. July 4, last, William shaw, a young man employed at the Standard Refinery, was fearfully scalded by boil-ing off, and apparently his life was not are oil, and apparently use and a farthing.

Eighteen of his fellow workmen consented to supply the deficiency of skin. Sanw was plastered with 811 pieces, and at the conclusion of the operation resembled an old-fash-soned crazy-quilt. He is now out of danger, and will seen be able to move around.

THREE ERIE COUNTY FAILURES.

In Each Case It Is Thought the Debts Are

Less Than the Assets. is, Ang. 19 -The grocery and wholesale or house James Gaffery was closed to The executions in favor of his creditors amount to about $5,000. The grocery store of Peter Bowes was also closed on writs amounting to $3,000. The hardware house of P. Conway, in Union City, was also closed to day by the Sheriff on writs amounting to $3,000. In all three instances the assets are largely in excess of the liabilities.

NEXT MEETING IN PITTSBURG.

Another Day's Proceedings of the Penr sylvania Knights of Pythias.

Hausteness, Aug. 19.—Only one session of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias was heid here to-day. Colonel C. E. Bentiy, of Corry, was elected Brigadier General.
A stremous effort is being made to have the next annual session held at Pittsburg, and from present indications the move will be successful.

Poisoned by Corned Beef.

Kair, Aug. 19.-The family of D-F, Sullivan ate corned beef for breakfast. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and two sons are of the meat and were seriously poisoned. Three of the family are out of danger, but Mrs. Sullivan lies in a precarious condition.

A Destructive Thunder Storm. CARLISEE, Aug. 19. - A terrible thunder s orm passed over this section late last night, doing considerable damage. During the progress of the storm lightning caused the burning of the barn of George D. Craig-head, near here, destroying valuable crops, farming implements, etc. Loss, $4,000; pur-

A BEAR IN THE WAGON.

The Driver Has a Terrible Fight With His Bisck Antagonist.

HAZLETON, Aug. 18.—Nicholas Williams, of Beaver Meadows, came into town to-day bearing marks of a terrible fight he had with a bear on Quaquake Mountain. Early this morning, while he was driving up the steep side of that mountain, his horse suddenly shied at a black object in the middle of the MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES road, and the borse made frantic attempts to escape into the woods. Williams tried to coax the animal past the object, but in vain, and Williams struck at the black object, which he imagined to be a dog. The animal proved to be a large black bear, which rose from a crouching position and started in putsuit of the man, who lashed his horse up the steen hill he steep hill.

The bear, however, easily gained on the horse and crawled into the back of the buggy, only to be pushed out by Mr. Williams. Twice again the bear crawled into the rear end of the vehicle, and twice more was the brute shoved to the ground, Williams. was the brute shoved to the ground, whil-iams receiving several severe scratches in the encounter. When the summit of the mountain was reached the flying horse soon left the bear far behind. A party of hunters organized at once, and with dogs are trail-ing the animal, and expect to bring in his hide before morning.

NOT A FREIGHT WHEEL TURNS.

The Brakemen's Strike on the Lake Erie and Western Railroad Continues. LIMA, Aug. 19.—The strike on Senator Brice's Lake Eric and Western Railroad still continues. An attempt was made to hold the accommodation train running between here and Sandusky to-day, but after some persuasion the men finally allowed the train to proceed.

Passenger traffic continues, but not a freight car has moved for three days.

CONFEDERATE VETS IN REUNION.

General Joe Shelby Refuses to Have Anything to Do With the Affair.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 19.-The ninth annual reunion of ex-Confederate soldiers of Missouri was held here to-day. Three thousand men who wore the gray were in attendance. They all took part in the parade which opened the reunion this morning General Joe Shelby, the most interesting character of war times in Missouri, had been invited to command the marching reterans, but he declined to have anything to do with the reunion, believing the old wounds will heal quicker and easier without such affairs.

General D. M. Frost, of St. Louis, acted as marchal.

marshal. After the parade the veterans pre-ceeded to Washington Park, where lunch was served and where the rest of the day was occupied with speech-making. Con-gressman Hatch delivered the principal ad-diess.

Old-Time Telegraphers Meet. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.-The old-time tele graphers held their first session at the Ebbitt House to-day. About 10) members were present when the meeting was called to order by George C. Maynard, President of the association. Many of them had not met for 20 or 25 years, although during that time they have been talking to each other over great distances by wire.

cent discount. The good work still goes on in the Ready-Made Department. The people are conscious that this is the greatest sale on record. Twenty-five per cent from what have always been considered fair prices! Fine Dress and Business Suits, Boys' School Suits, Children's Suits, Overcoats-light and heavy weight-all subject to the same generous discount. Why? We vacate here September 15, and the stock must be turned into money at a lively rate,
