CINCINNATI, Aug. 21.-A little man with a face like a parboiled lobster stuck his hands between the Reds and victory. It was really he who was double play, "Jeems" Keenan walked out to cover third. "Lath" was not in the game. He sat up in a pavilion box with his knees swelled out of shape. On Thursday he and Bierbauer collided on the lines near second, and four or five hours afterward he felt as if he had been run through a bowlder crushing machine. The first chance given the Reds was hid at Keenan's feet, or to be absolutely correct, between his legs, for solutely correct, between his legs, for Bierbauer's drive went right on through to

SHUGART ON DECK AGAIN.

"The Count" tossed up an easy one at Shugart rapped it out past McPhee. The Calliope's tap to Muliane enabled "Little Poison" to reach second. With two strike on Beckley, "Antonio" plugged him with the ball and filled the bases. Lally hit the ball a terrible crack, but Smith made a fin stop, touched second and sent the ball t Reilly just in time to head off the New Eng land emigrant. Out of a cluster of three hits and a momentary juggle by Halligan Pittshing got a run in the second. The litting of Hanlon and Corkhill were clean line flies to short center. Galvin hit into right. He was doubled with Rierbauer, and Smith was the chief actor in the play. Charley Reilly, who had killed a hit for smith in the second by a fine pick up, duplicated the feat at Harrington's expense in the next. The Italians worked in another run. Lally did the business by a puck to center after Shugart had earned second. The gift that Gaivin gave Holliday in the fourth only served to let him into a double executor. He tried to steal just as Keenan struck out and was nipped. Sandwiched and emigrant. Out of a cluster of three struck out and was nipped. Sandwiched between the strike outs of Reilly and Galwin in the latter half, "Pop" Corkhill got a lilt and a stolen base. He tried to march to third but was caught. The Reds were in the sixth, but they got nothing but white-Beckley had smothered McPhee's grounder he threw to Shugart to force the Count, but "Sweetness" made a muff. On Halligan's fly to center Antonio reached third.

The Gladiator gave really another chance to make a sensational play and he caused Muliane to be thrown out at home. Holli-Muliane to be thrown out at home. Holli-day sent a fly to Corkhill Pittsburg was likewise disappointed. Beckley, who had reached second on his nit and smith's jug-gle, was killed at third after Beilly's drive to short. Hanton made a hit, but after Beilly had taken his namesake's fly McPhee fell upen his knees and made a magnificent massacre of Corkhill's hit. Each side norked in a double up to the seventh, and there were no less than six of the sort in the game. Attendance, 6.0.

It was at first decide I to meet in Washington, but this has been changed and the meeting will now take place in some neutral city, owing to the fact that the magnates desire to do their work secretly. A Plain Statement

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH, 1 UNIONTOWN, Aug 21.-The papers of this morning contain a defi from the East End Gyms, which states that Kennedy's colts are afraid to meet them, but persist in claiming the championship of Western Pennsylvania. the championship of Western Pennsylvania. In relation to this, Manager W. C. McCormick writes the following: "In the first place there is no such team as "Kennedy's colts." Early in the season there was an organization of that kind, but the only club here now, is the Uniontown Baseball Club, managed by the subscriber. This club has rever claimed to be the champions, but it has beaten the Jeannettes and the Our Boys, who aspire to that honor. My club is exclusively a home team, composed of school boys, none of whom are professionals. Four of the players are under 18, and two are under 17 years of age, while there is but one der 17 years of age, while there is but one voter in the club. The Uniontown club has roter in the club. The Uniontown club has never received a challenge from any of the County League clubs. We are now playing return games and will be open for dates at home after the 29th of this month, and will be pleased to play any of the professionals, or 'would be' champions. We gnarantee expenses, with privilege of half the gate receipts, on enclosed grounds. Yours,

W. C. McCormick, Manager."

Intend to Bustle, The Climax Baseball Club are having some hard nuts to crack at the end of the County League season and they are bewailing their fate that they did not have their present strong team at the first of the season, when they were scheduled with the weaker clubs in the League. This afternoon they meet the Bridgevilles, next Saturday the East End Gyms and the following Saturday Bridgevilles again. The club has been the inst in the race all season and Mat Thomp-son is going to make a big effort to land his son is going to make a big effort to land his team higher than this leather medal position. They have been playing good ball right along and have lost a number of close games, but they don't seem to get there and it can't all be attributed to hard lack. Next to their home team the Climax is a great favorite in the East End and have many admirers in that section of the town, as they have a couple of East End boys on their team and sports admire the plucky upful game the Climax team have been playing. Quite a large crowd will indonhiedly attend the game, as the League team is out of the city and the last time these two teams came together in the East End an exciting ten inning game was the result, ending with the score of 4 to 3 in favor of Bridgeville.

The Alliance Statesmen From Kansas

EX-LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR BLACK

and Jerry Simpson. MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

Speak at Mt. Gretna.

Mr. GRETNA, Aug. 21 .- The Farmers' Encampment closed to-day, so far as speech-making is concerned. About 5,000 people arrived to-day. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Black made an hour's speech in favor of a secret ballot and a constitutional convention to ensure it. After referring to Senator Peffer and Congressman Simpson, of Kansas, as heralds of the unrest prevailing throughout the country, and stating that the same unrest existed in this State, he dwelt on the great wealth and boundless resources of Pennsylvania.

What was wanted in this State was honest government-responsible to the people -to make it the most powerful Comm wealth in the world. Such a government was lacking, and everything was going from bad to worse. The interest of no class of citizens was fairly considered by the Legis-lature, and the farmers suffered like the workingmen. The whole business of the State Government was in the grasp of a few men. The votes of independent and unorganized citizens were overcome by the money of the class who thrived on special privileges and by the intimidated vote of heir employes.

VOTES CONTROLLED BY CAPITAL. Reference was made to the vast multitudes

Jerry Simpson, the Sockless Statesman companies, in mines and factories, all of whom were more or less influenced at the polls by their employers—thousands of them controlled absolutely. These votes killed the honest votes of the farmers and other independent citizens. Farmers had long battled for equal taxation, but they never would succeed while their cause was subject to the decision of a Senate and House between which the bosses and corporations managed to kill every such measure. nanaged to kill every such measure. In the Constitutional Convention every member would have to shout on his own responsibility. A provision could readily be inserted in the Constitution, correcting the gross inequality of taxation on personalty and reality. He scoffed at the idea of danger in a convention. The bosses assured the people in one breath that corporations and cranks would control it. The convention would submit separately any proposition about which there was any doubt. The Australian ballot would certainly come out of a Constitutional Convention. No member of that body would dare vote against it, and nine-tenths of the voters in the State would ratify the action of the convention. He said the attitude of the Republican bosses, Quay and Magee, in uniting in practically declaring against a convention for a free ballot, ought to show independent citizens of all parties where the public interest lies. Since the bosses did not desire a free ballot it was very certain that the people nember would have to shout on his own r ballot it was very certain that the people should desire and provide for it. THE KANSAS STATESMEN SPEAK. Congressman Simpson agreeably astonished his listeners by the able manner in which he presented his views of politics. He defended the sub-Treasury scheme, and claimed that the United States Government was recognizing the principle underlying it in its business with National banks, etc. He adversely criticised the Democrats for passing a tariff bill which provided higher avering a tariff bill which provided higher average duties than any previous measure on the subject, and only a little lower than the McKinley law. The Republicans were roundly denounced for their efforts to fool the farmers by imposing duties on wheat, potatoes and eggs, while other features of the tariff placed them at great disadvantage, especially those permitting agricultural implements manufactured in this country to be sold cheaper in Europe than here. Agitation in favor of the Australian ballot Agitation in layor of the Australian ballot was urged as a great step toward the rectifi-cation of official abuses. He referred to the admission of Ingalls that he was a statesman out of a job, and said that Quay and McKin-ley would probably be served the same way soon.

Senator Peffer repeated the speech he has been delivering in different portions of the country. W. M. Derr, of Lebanon, spoke of the abuses in Pennsylvania politics.

HALF HUMAN, HALF COLT.

An Ohio Freak Which, if It Lives, Must Walk on All Fours. St. Mary's, Aug. 21 .- A monstrosity in the shape of a newly-born child is attracting a great deal of attention in the neighborhood of Yorkshire, a village in Dark county, 19 miles from here. The shoulder blades of the curiosity are more than normally developed. In fact the abnormal portion begins at the throat, increasing remarkably downward. The chest is somewhat rounded—on the bar-rel-shaped order. On the little one's shoulrel-shaped order. On the little one's shoul-ders is a lump, dark colored, which is claimed by medical men to be the result of "spina befida," or cloven spine. This lump has opened, and physicians say it will son cause the death of the child.

The most remarkable part of the child is the portion from the hips down, which great-ly resemble that portion of a colt. The legs are set at a right angle with the body. They have no backward, but, on the contrary, a have no backward, but, on the contrary, a perceptible forward motion. They cannot be straightened out, and the child, if it lives, will be obliged to walk on all fours. Then the feet are ball-shaped, one resembling that of a young colt, while the other is more nearly normal.

A GEORGIA TRAIN ROBBED.

The Highwaymen Said to Have Secured $30,000 From the Express Safe. ATLANTA, Aug. 21.—The night express rain from Macon last night was held up at Collins station by three masked men and the express safe robbed. The highwaymen, it is said secured $30,000, but the express officials claim that only $2,500 were taken. Conductor Reid says that he stopped the train to let off a colored woman, and when the train started he saw no one get on, but the engineer says he saw three men get on the front platform of the express car. Express Messenger Byrne says that just as the train left Collins, a man entered the car with a revolver in his hand, followed by two other men. The men were of a medium size and wore, as masks, portions of black hats and black aprons. The robbers ordered him, at the point of their pistols, to unlock the safe, which he did. After ransacking the safe, the men rang the bell, and, as the train slowed up, jumped off and disappeared into the woods. Byrne says he does not know the amount secured by the robbers. It is believed that the negro woman who got off the train was an accomplice of the robbers.

THE COUNTRY FAIR. It Was Postponed Yesterday But It Will

Surely Be Given To-Day. The country fair of the Sewickley Athletic Association was postponed vesterday on account of the rain, but to-day it is sure to come off. It will begin promptly at 3 P. M. If the weather permits it will be given at the grounds of the association. If rain spoils that part of the programme it will be given in Choral Hall. The country fair promises to be a treat in its own way. Some wonderful talent will be displayed by the actors. Some p ominent names are on the list. THE FIRE RECORD.

Ax alarm from box 33 about 10:30 last night was caused by the burning of a small two-roomed house owned by James Murphy on the hillside above the Eliza furnace, Frankstown. The occupants moved out yesterday morning and some of the family returned last night to secure some chickens. In the hunt a lamp was upset. The loss was $300; insured for $100.

At New York Thursday night fire started in the grandstand of the athletic grounds of the Young Men's Christian Association and quickly spread to the lumber yard and factory of L. H. Mace & Co., manufacturers of refrigerators and toys, which occupy one block. This immense plant was totally destroyed. Loss estimated at $250,000; insurance small. Ar Dallas, Tex., Thursday night fire was discovered on the top floor of the four-story building occupied by Hill's Business College; the first and second floors by Ardinger & Rose, clothiers; the boot and shoe store of F. Smith & Co., and Wardan's gun store.

All these were destroyed. Losses: Ardinger & Rose. $75,00; insurance, $60,000. Smith & Co., $15,000; insurance, $10,600. Wardan, $5,600; insurance unknown. The building was fully insurance. AT Altoona yesterday morning the Sur building and the warehouse and office of the coal firm of W. B. McGrath were completely destroyed. Loss, $6,000; fully insured. While the fire was in progress the Good Will en-gine house ignited and burned to the ground. At 5 o'clock, after the firemen had returned At 5 o'clock, after the firemen had returned home, a third alarm was given, when the stables of Mrs. J. B. Callin were burned. During the night attempts had been made to fire the undertaking establishments of E. B. Tipton and J. B. Hickey. The Rainey block was also visited, but the match failed to do its work. The people are thoroughly alarmed over the bold operations of the firebugs, and if the police cannot run them down private detectives will be employed by citizens.

CONSIDERABLE interest is being taken in private yachts at present. Almost any evening small steamers can be seen darting about on the placid waters of the two rivers. It is getting to be quite the fad to own a yacht, and it will not be long before they will become as numerous as the skiff on the waters in this vicinity. About the only drawback is that owners who operate their own craft must have a license, which necessitates the atodying of the rivers and also how to run a boat,
