MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.)

WILLIAMS GROVE, Aug. 26.—The attendance today at the Inter-State picnic was large, but Manager Thomas says that the crowd would have been 5,000 larger but for a reported cloudburst here Monday. The Colonel was highly indignant at this newspaper fake, and offers $50 for the information leading to the detection of the author.

The main attraction here to-day was General Gregg, the Republican candidate for lieutenant governor of New York, who presided at the afternoon meeting at the Auditorium, introduced the General, who was enthusiastically received. General Gregg pitched his case in an agricultural key. The farmers were warmly encouraged for the part they take and have always taken in making this country great.

The inextinguishable resources of Pennsylvania were set forth eloquently. The General avowed the enthusiasm of his hearers by saying that eight of the companies in his regiment were former slaves, whose familiarity with horses and practical experience on the farm made them good soldiers. The General also informed them that his himself had a farm.

IN A PICKEREL'S STOMACH

Is Found the Gold Watch of a Man Who Disappeared Two Years Ago. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) NEW HAVEN, Aug. 26.—The mystery which for two years has surrounded the sudden disappearance of Charles Whaley from North Lyme is believed to have been cleared up. Yesterday Joshua Halford caught a pickerel in Hog Pond, in Lyme, which weighed between 3 and 4 pounds. When preparing the fish for cooking Halford found in its stomach a gold watch and chain. On the back case was engraved the name of Charles Whaley. The case of the watch was worn very smooth and the works rusty. When it was shown to people who knew Whaley they also recognized it as the timepiece which he was accustomed to carry.

On the morning of July 3, 1899, Whaley told the foreman of his farm that he was going to Hartford on a business trip and would be absent several days. He was never seen again, nor was any trace found of him until the watch was discovered in the pickerel's stomach. Whaley was a bachelor, and reputed to be worth $100,000. He had a habit of wearing a chain of amber which he committed suicide. Hog Pond will be thoroughly dragged, in the hope that the body may be found.
