MET A TRAGIC FATE.

William and Lottic Monroe Killed While Driving Through Maine.

Word has been received in Wilkinsburg of the death of William G. and Miss Lottie Monroe. They had gone to Maine for Miss Lottie's health and were driving across the State. The horses ran away and threw the occupants out. Mr. Mouroe was killed instantly. The young lady was terribly inured and died half an hour later, whispering the name "Jimmy." While yet con-scious, the dying girl told where her home was, and asked that word be sent. The family had lived in the East End but n short time, coming here from Texas. Miss Lottie was to have been married to a Southern gentleman this fall.

A Building in Bad Shape.

The recent disaster in New York has caused many owners of big buildings in Pittsburg to look carefully to their properties. At the request of a large Wood street firm Assistant Building Inspector Brown examined their building and found it unsafe and badly in need of repairs. It will be fixed at once.
