As soon as yesterday's ball game at Exposition Park was over Messrs. Day and Mutrie left the grounds just as fast as gers of this city, and the victory wound up a glorious week for the victors. There s no denying the fact that Manager McGunnigle has the team doing great things just now. He deserves all the credit that can be given him, because no man could have worked harder to get the team into playing form, and he may now rest assured that the off Geason, Guntary and he may now rest assured that the off Geason, form as an ocal cranks and fans have him as an

A DELIGHTED CROWD. There were 2,827 people present and never a more delighted crowd witnessed a ball The home players began in a way

ame. The home players began in a way and left little or no doubt as to what the realt would be. In fairness it may be said and the Giants are in a wrecked condition enemly speaking, Loag John Ewing is nable to pitch and young Arthur Clarkson as part in to do the twirling. It was soon iscovered that Arthur was not the man for a result on as in three innings eight runs. sition as in three innings eight runs cored against him. In that time six is were a hie, four wild pitches and need on balls; then Barr replaced him e game was won then by the home of Sport Galvin was in the box for the total and Joseph never did better, sixth inning was reached before a hit was reached before a hit was reached before a hit was reached before a rink was made by the tors. Up to that noint the interest in the was reached by the tors.

e was centered in the question as to there not the Giants would be shut shether or not the Giants would be shut out. But the first run of the Giants was unde in a remarkable way. Thereau led off he aming and he cracked the hall fairly on the mose and it went sailing over the right fold rence for the first time since the remarks were opened. The hit was, indeed, greant one and Tierman was given hearty theers for the feat. Then Connor made a leading and Richardson followed with a highe and Connor scored on O'Rourke's sac-ifice. SOME BRILLIANT WORK.

Aithough the contest was one-sided, then rassome brilliant playing done in it. She part's work was remarkably good, and th little tellow was well applieded. Corkid July and Ward made great catches, and t make a long story short, McGunnigle's menutplayed the Giants at every point and cored their eighth victory out of the las he games. In the first inning Bierbauer flied out to In the first liming Bierbauer flied out to Tierman and Shagart got his base on balls. Miller winched out a triple to left, Beckley sent a single to right; two bases on balls followed, a life hit and another single. In the meantime there were two wild pitches and a passed ball, and all these things combined five great hig runs. In the next imning Bierlauer led off with a double and Shugart again got his base on balls. A fumble by Basert and wild witch scored Shugart after and wild pitch scored Shugart after haner and Beckley and been retired on KNOPKED CLARKSON OFF. In the third inning Word led off with a Basset - Richardson's fumble allowed Cork bill to reach first, and Galvin followed with a single to left. Bierbau er made a single, and as a result two more rurs were scored.

did the pitching and did fairly well. In the ing Beckley made a single and louble, and these, with Reilly's ored two runs.

eighth inning, after Beckley was y made a single, Ward got his base and Corkhill's single scored Lally.

GLEASON FOOLED THEM.

He Wins a Good Game From the Colts of Mr. Anson.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.-Gleason was altogethe horses and a hack driver could take them. Thay hadn't a word to say and there disconsolate men in the could take them. The server were two more disconsolate men in the could almost perfect support, a low throw by Donoghue being the only misplay made by the Quakers. Gumbert also pitched a good game, one that ordinarily would have been a winner, but a little stupid work by the infeld allowed the visitors a couple of scratch hits, after which they did their real batting.

THE LEAGUE RACE

Still Very Exciting and the Pittsburgs'

Work a Great Feature. The contest for the League pennant is still very exciting, although the leaders are a lit-tle more scattered than the; were. The remarkable winning streak of the Chicago team has been broken by the Phillies and that has brought the Chicago; and the Bostons nearer togeth w. The latter are putting tons nearer togeth w. The latter are putting up a good game and, may make it hot for Ansor this week. The Giants, to use a sporting phrase, have gone to pieces and their chances are now looking bad. The Phillies are still playing well and the team who are now playing better than any are the Pittsburgs. Their work has been the feature of the week and Manager McGunnigle can be honestly congratulated on the excellent work he is getting out of the team. If they keep up their present form they will finish very well in the race. The other teams are playing as usua. Following is the standing of the teams up to date:

QUITE A CONTEST.

The Wilkinsburgs Defeat the Mansfields

After a Hard Fought Battle. The Mansfield and Wilkinsburg County League teams met yesterday for the second time this season and divided the honors, Wilkinsburg winning yesterday's game after close and hard play for nine innings, as the score below will fully show. The game was close and exciting throughout, being a tie until the ninth inning. The feature of the game was the beautiful and marvelous play of Third-baseman Allen, of Mansfield, who will play all around some men now covering that bug for National League clubs. Allen is beyond all doubt the best third-baseman in the County League to-day. The play of Miller and McElroy, of Wilkinsburg, was of the fine order. Creig, McGovern and Perkins won fresh laurels for themselves, each doing his part in the most appoved style. The score: WILK'S'B'G, R B P A E MANSFIELD, R B P A E

Previous Futurity races: 1888—Proctor Knott, ridden by Barnes, carrying 112 pounds, won in 1:15-15; 1889—Chaos, with Day up, carrying 109 pounds, won in 1:16-45; 1890—Potomae, ridden by Hamilton, carrying 115 pounds, won in 1:15-2.

The most sensational Futurity that has ever been run was the one decided at this course to-day. It was sensational because El Corrigan, owner of the colt Huron, refused to abide by the decision of the executive committee of the club, that his horse was not eligible to start, and invoked the aid of the courts; it was sensational because the colt that finally won carried the crushing impost of 130 pounds, and it was sensational because of the brilliant manner in which the contending horses were ridden.

WOULDN'T RECOGNIZE HIM. When Ed Corrigan was victorious in his egal skirmish with the club and secured a mandatory injunction it was thought that there would not be any further trouble, but then Mr. Corrigan was fighting mad. In com-pany with his lawyer, he demanded that his boy be weighed, which was finally done. He boy be weighed, which was finally done. He was not given a number, however, and there was no betting against him. The colt ran, finished second and now Mr. Corrigan will have to sue the club for the $5,636 that belongs to the Second horse.

It was without doubt the largest crowd that had ever witnessed a day's racing at Sheepshead Bay. The advance guard put in an appearance about 9 o'cleck, and by ones and twos continued to arrive until noon. Then the rush commenced. Train after train rolled into the depot, and in a few moments a perfect stream of humanity was pouring through the gates. As the hour for the sport a perfect stream of humanity was pouring through the gates. As the hour for the sport to commence approached a spirit of unrest seemed to pervade the immense throng and it moved hither and thither with a force that, while quiet, was irresistible. First it would sway toward the paddock, then in the direction of the betting ring, and woe to him who attempted to breast it. It was a typical metropolitan crowd, good natured and accommodating, and; while hats were smashed and whole suits ruined in the mad

STRUGGLE IN THE BETTING RING.

There was not a disturbance during the en were sore over the loss of hard-earned dol-lars. There was considerable interest manifested in the first race, because Racine the suburban winner, were among the entries. The Eastern horse was the favorite, but neither was ever in it. Correction, who was disgracefully beaten at Morris Park the other day by common selling platers, led from start to finish and won in a drive from Chesapeake. The reversal of form shown by Correction was so startling that old racegoers were dumfounded, but the judges could not see anything wrong.

A wild rush was at once made for the betting ring, and the scene that followed was indescribable. For the moment men seemed to lose all control of themselves and nothing was thought of but betting. Some wanted to back one horse, some another, and they all wanted the best of the odds. The Gideon Pair, His Highness and Merry Monarch, were the favorites at 2 to 1 at first, but the money did not come in fast enough to suit the impatient bookies and they raised the price to 5 to 2, and from that to 5 to 1, and finally at the close quoted 4 to 1. In the meantime Dagonet money had been rushing into the bookies' hands in a regular stream. First it was 3 to 1, and at that price tens of thousands of dollars were wagered. The bookies stood the onslaught manfully, but at last they were compelled to rub, and 5 to 2 was the closing price. Then there was 1 Torkville Belle. She opened at 6 to 1 and in a few moments it was evident that she was receiving support. Brewer Ehret and his friends were confident that she would win and bet so much money on her that at the close the best that could be obtained was 5 to 1. Of the others, Bashford, Lamplighter, Tammany and Silver Fox and Newton were all nibbled at. neither was ever in it. Correction, who we disgracefully beaten at Morris Park the

THE BLAST OF THE BUGLE. Finally the clear blast of the bugle was heard and the cry went up, "They're at the post." A wild rush was made for the open, and then everyone waited, eagerly clutching bits of pasteboard that were eiteer to enrich them or break them. In a few moments Bashford, wearing the cock blue and yellow sash of the Bashord Manor Farm, and ridden by I. Lewis, ford Manor Farm, and ridden by I. Lewis, appeared on the track, followed by the Maid of Athel filly, Osric, Lamplighter, Lester, Charade, Lew Weir, Anna B. Huron, Newton, Tammany, Silver Fox, Cee Jay Jay, Lavish, Tringle, Yorkville, Belle and King Cadmus. "They're off." "They're off." It was true. Mr. Caldwell had caught them all well in motion and had secured a magnificent start. Yorkville Belle was the first to show, but her advantage was slight, and Mars, Anna B and Layish, Tringle and His Highness were lapped on her, with and Mars, Anna B and Layish, Tringle and His Highness were lapped on her, with the rest not a length away. Murphy at once took a restraining pall on the Belle, but she was full of racing, and for a quarter she was in front, followed by Merry Monarch, who was capped by Huron, with Anna B and Dagonet next. Then Dagonet, with a wonderful burst of speed took the lead and His Highness and Huron both moved up. As they swung into the stretch there was little to choose between Huron, His Highness, Yorkville Belle, Dagonet, Mars and Bashford. The excitement was intense. Men were breathing hard, women were clinching their hands, but not a word was spoken. Any one of the half dozen horses appeared to have a chance. Suddenly Overton shot.

HURON TO THE FRONT. and although there was not a man on the grounds who had a bet on him, they all cheered and yelled, while the women frantically clutched the arms of their male es-corts and screamed "Huron." But Huron corts and screamed "Huron." But Huron had not won yet. McLaughlin, crafty and alert, astride His Highness has seen Overton's move and sent His Highness after, while Murphy was improving his position on Yorkville Belle. In a few strides Huron and His Highness were on even terms and running like a team and for their lives, lapped by Yorkville Belle. The excitement now was painful in its intensity. Frantic betters yelled and shouted, and hats, umHAL POINTER AGAIN.

Right opposite the stand the struggle commenced in earnest. Overton was riding Huron like a demon and the horse responded gamely. McLaughlin was like a bundle of steels and at every stride seemed to lift his horse along, while Murphy, whose yellow face was black with excitement, was whipping and cutting and Yorkville Belle was coming like a evelone. All of a sudden McLaughlin realized that his time had come and drawing his whip, let it fall on the straining sides of His Highness. The steel ploughed along his gaunt flanks and despite his enormous weight he responed gamely. Slowly but surely he forged ahead, while behind him thundered the field with whips flying and swishing in air.

By this time the crowd had become delirious. Every one was yelling and screaming, men and women were crying, and amid the greatest excitement ever seen on an American race course His Highness, with noscills aflame and gathering and reaching spliendidly, dashed in a winner by a length from Huron, who beat Yorkville Belle a half length for the place, with Dagonet a length from Huron, who beat the bees 2-year-olds in the country and for the jookey who had ridden him so well. For ten minutes the excitement continued and then it died away, and the rest of the races were looked at with but little interest.

SHEERAN DEFEATS WHITE.

The Veteran Wins a Good Race by a Shor Distance

There was quite a good attendance at Homewood Park yesterday afternoon to witness the race between D. R. Sheehan and Grant White. They ran 100 yards for $500 ; side and the former won after considerable excitement. John J. Quinn was referee and George Smith pistol firer. The betting was quite lively just before

The betting was quite lively just before the runners appeared on the track. The Sheehan party seemed to have lots of confidence and backed their man exceedingly well at even money. Unfortunately when the men got set at the mark White got away before the pistol and had to be put back a yard. This caused the odds to go on Sheehan. When the runners got started a good race began. White struggled and gained a little after 59 yards had been run. Sheehan, however, who is about 49 years old, ran with remarkable speed and finally won by a half yard amid great excitement.

Several persons who timed the men had their time 10-5 seconds and one man had it 1034. The White party lost considerable money.
