The Fifth Avenue M. E. congregation last evening enjoyed the novelty of a sermon by a theological student, Will W. Youngson, son of the well-known Pittsburg confectioner. Mr. Youngson graduated at at the opening of the scholastic year.

of his excellent discourse, II. Corinthians, iv., 17: "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory."

From this familiar passage he illustrated to perform some mighty deed for the glory of God, but should avail ourselves of what-The young minister selected for the text the rewards for human affliction.

"Life," he said, "is a constant struggle, and from its dawn to close man must struggle for daily bread. Mental development alls forth energy and application, and eligious duties demand sacrifices." This illustrated in the trials, persecution and martyrdom of Paul, the author of the Corinthian text. He referred to the many men who had sacrificed their lives in carrying on the work of the church, and to "the avidence of God in presenting to the orld such men as Luther, Zwingli, Calvin ad Knex-men simultaneously raised up in different parts of Europe to further the downtall of the Papacy and establish Proestantism in the world."

He cited many instances of affliction and asked if we, like Paul, could say that the afflictions of carth are light. He said he dieved that afflictions were a good thing, . The eternal glories and the great which awaits the righteous were ribed. He said that all things temporal a vanish. Opening of the Beth Jacob Place of Wor ship With Fitting Ceremonies.

The Hebrew Synagogue, "Beth Jacob," was dedicated vesterday afternoon. It is located at 73 and 75 Logan street, being a building that by renovation has been turned into a very pretty worship house. The services lasted during the afternoon and were conducted entirely in Hebrew, ddresses being made by J. Stein, G. Caflan and the dedicatory sermon by Rabbi G. evison, of Baltimore. The latter confined his sermon exclusively to the subject of the good that is accomplished by the churches the chantor of the day was M. Sappen stein. The honor of carrying the five Bibles was sold for $2 for each one. The honor of lighting the "eternal lamp" was sold to L. "Ark of the Sacrament" to J. Jacobson for So. The bidding for these privileges was lively and spirited. A gift of beautiful Bible covers was received from Mrs. Ada Levy. About $200 was received during the In the evening a reception was given isitors by the congregation at 50 Col-The new structure has cost the congregagation $18,000, almost all of which has been aid. BLESSING OF A STATUE.

Southside German Catholics Celebrate Memorable Occasion.

St. Michael's German Catholic Church, on the Southside, was gayly decorated yesterday afternoon with flags and bunting, and there was a general holiday appearance and there was a general holiday appearance about Pius street. The occasion was the biessing of the statue of St. Aloysius presented to the church by the St. Aloysius first trip as far West as Pittsburg. I am Society of that congregation. The statue of their patron saint is a figure five feet in fill the orders we should receive. height, handsomely carved in wood, and made by Meyer & Co., of Munich,

Previous to the ceremonies of the blessing there was a parade participated in by the St. Aloysius Society and the Young Men's Conference, headed by a brass band. The societies made a short parade over the streets in the neighborhood of the church. A feature of the parade was the statue, which was carried by four members of the The church was crowded to its mits when the services began. The blessing of the statue was performed by Rev. Father Bernard, after which Rev. Father Fidellis, a South American missionary, creached a sermon in English, and Fathe ernard one in German. Father Fidellis' sermon was a history of the life and acts of St. Aloysius, and he asked his hearers to follow the example set by that saint.

FAITH AND REPENTANCE

The Fundamentals of Christian Religion, Says Rev. G. W. Chalfant,

Rev. George W. Chalfant, of the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church, conducted services vesterday afternoon at the cozy litingside chapel, choosing for his subject Hebrews vi., 1. The fundamentals of Christian religion, he said, were faith and repentance. The first thing that Christ taught was repentance, and He never ceased to impress this upon His disciples and folowers, even till the end of His ministry on earth. Without faith we could not live a natural life, as a certain amount of confidence and faith must be placed in men and things. It is equally indispensable that we place implicit faith in Jesus Christ as the savior of men before we can live a Christian life. All things material have a certain progression, growth, maturity, decay. There is always a limit to human perfection, But the progress of the soul is eternal. While the soul is constantly growing upward to-ward perfection there is never a point reached beyond which there may be no further spiritual development.

SLAIN WITH AN OX GOAD. An Interesting Sermon by a West End

Rev. H. C. Beacom, D. D., pastor of the Main Street M. E. Church, West End, preached an interesting sermon last night from Judges, 1ii., 31: "And Shamgar slew 600 Philistines with an ox goad." "No such victory as this is recorded in the pages of profune history," said the "It is interesting and instrucpastor. tive to note changes which befell the children of Israel after the death of Joshua: before his death they walked hand in hand with God, but after that event they fell into idolatry and sin. Then God allowed them to fall into the hands of their foes. They brought this trouble upon themselves. And how many of the evils Allegheny College, Meadville, in June, which we have to endure to-day are brought about by our own actions? The age of idolatry is not over, and we are prone to worship other gods than the only One.

ever opportunities we have for doing good, no matter how small these may seem to us. God sometimes uses weapons that in our estimation are very insignificant, even as Shamgar with his oxgoad routed 600 Philistines. There is one great weapon, however —this Book, the Word of God—that has accomplished victories that have laid onethird of the human race at the feet of Christ.

COMBINATION OF VIRTUES

Good Sermon on the Life and Charac

of Jesus Christ. Rev. C. B. Mitchell, of Plainfield, N. J. the brilliant young Methodist minister who is filling the pulpit of the Smithfield Street Church during the absence of the regular pastor, preached a good sermon last evening on the life and character of Jesus Christ, taking Mark vii., 24 for his text With Jesus, he said, it was a question of purpose and not of place. He was as ready to disclose Himself in Nazareth as in Tyre. In Nazareth they knew Him as the carpenter's son, but that Nazarene carpenter could not and never will be hid. Why? Because of His personality—not His person. There is not a line written as to His form. Some traa line written as to His form. Some tra-ditions describe Him as the fairest among ten thousand, and others as one marked, stricken and afflicted.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell described many of the pictures of Jesus as the artists had painted Him, but asked, "who ever saw a picture of the Savior that would satisfy him?" But, said he, read John, who wrote for the Christians, and you look into the face of Jesus, our Lord and Savior, the Son of God, one absolutely superior, whose enemies could not find the slightest fault. Christ was not great in special lines, but great in all things, forming a combination of virtues such as the world never saw before and never will see again.

GOD CARES FOR HIS PEOPLE.

George McBurney Talks on the Prote of the Almighty.

The pulpit at the Allegheny R. P. Church, Sandusky and North Diamond streets, was filled yesterday morning and afternoon by George McBurney, a young attorney. At the atternoon service he spoke on God's protection. He took his text from one of David's psalms, "I will abide in thy tabernacle forever."

The speaker then went on to show how constant is God's protection so long as one follows his teachings. He illustrated this by taking up the life of David and showing how he was victorious as long as he led a pure life, and how his armies were de feated when David forsook his God. He said it was the same now, for when men be-come powerful they forget God because they thought everything had been attained through their own individual efforts.

ART POTTERY IN AMERICA.

An Industry That Is Rapidly Coming to th Front.

C. F. McDonald, representing an Eastern ceramicart pottery and decorated ware establishment in Trenton, is at the Duquesne. While showing a DISPATCH reporter yesterday specimens of his ware, he spoke interestingly of the condition of the pottery trade in this country. "The trade in the higher grade of pottery goods such as mine," he said, "is only being established. not going any further, because we could not

"These decorations," he said, "are the work of Japanese, French and English artists, all done by hand, and, as you can see, is first-class work. We employ foreigners for the work because Americans are not for the work because Americans are not trained to it. We have, though, several young ladies who are acquiring the art of painting on the ware, and in course of time, the work will be done by Americans alone. The process of manufacture is secret, of course. The clay we obtain from Maryland and Southern Pennsylvania. There is no reason why a factory such as ours cannot be established. a factory such as ours cannot be established in Pittsburg if you know how to blend the

The newest thing in pottery is a prettily decorated tea cup and saucer given to a young lady on her engagement. This custom originated in Boston. It is the correct thing for the lady, when married, to give her first tea in these cups. They form quite

SCHOOL FOR THE HEBREWS.

They Will Establish One in Pittsburg to Educate Their Young Men. Pittsburg is to have a school for Hebrew oung men. The project was born and almost perfected at a meeting held yester-day at Hibernian Hall. The project has been worked up for months by Messrs. Saffron, Scheinman and Robin, and to their efforts the school will owe its existence. Addresses were made in English, German and Hebrew. Among those who spoke were Oscar Rosenbaum, B. Levin, M. Robin and Rev. Dr. Mayer. The school is to be supported by the Young Men's Hebrew Literary Association. The organization was completed yesterday and 100 members were enrolled. The scheme is heavily backed.

Hon. John Dalzell Answers Jack Robinson's Second Open Letter.

DECLARES HE WILL NOT RETIRE.

The Fight Must Be Completed on the Lines Already Laid Down.

THREE MORE NEW CLUBS ORGANIZED

Hon. John Dalzell declares he is still in the fight for the Presidency of the State League of Republicans Clubs. He denies any intention of withdrawing from the fight, and says so in an answer to Hon, John B. FEMALEHELP. already laid down. His friends are still at work organizing clubs, and Mr. Dalzell says he will stay to the finish. The following is a copy of his letter:

PITTSBURG, PA., Aug. 29, 1891. Hon, John B. Robinson, Media, Pa.: DEAR SIR-I am again in receipt of a letter from you at second hand. In reply to your first letter I declined to join with you in a withdrawal from the pending contest, a de-clination to which I still adhere.

My views as to what will lead to harmony and party success have already been stated.

and party success have already been stated. I cannot add to them.

What you say: in respect to my services and loyalty to the State League, with respect to the wisdom of the Executive Committee's attempt at gag law, and with respect to the organization of clubs, has no relevancy to the question of my withdrawal from the contest. I respectfully refuse to join you in any newspaper discussion of these matters. They are within the province of the State League Convention to pass upon, and will, I have no doubt, be passed upon with wisdom and discretion at the sproper time.

You must determine the question of your continued candidacy independent of any action on my part.
