But Not Much Left for the Police After the Previous Sunday.

Police raids on speak-easies and gambling dens were not very plentiful yesterday, probably because of the wholesale onslaugh of a week ago. A speak-easy kept by Pat Connors, in the rear of No. 22 Point alley, was raided by Captain Silvus and Lieutenant Lewis yesterday morning. Only the proprietor was arrested. He was taken to the Central station. The raid attracted a large crowd from the tenements in the neighborhood, as tough a crowd, the police say, as they have seen in years. Early yesterday morning the house of John Johnson, Friendship avenue, Six-teenth ward, was raided. Mr. Johnson, Walter Williams, Charles Boss, Alice White, Lillie Smith and Mary Richardson were arrested. At the heating Johnson was fined $50 and costs, the others $5 and costs each.

Last evening the house of Mrs. Charlotte Drevore, Fifty-first and Butler streets, was rnided. The proprietress and three men were arrested, all of whom were sent to the Seventeenth ward police station. At 3 o'clock yesterday Lieutenant Thorn-ton and Officer Dixon raided the speak-easy kept by Charley Cooper, on Twelfth alley, Al.egheny. Cooper is a well-known charac-ter and is called "Blind Charley." The others taken in the house were Constable William R. Robinson, of the Fourth ward, and William Crawford. When the officers completed this job they raided Frank Stoup's place at Long alley and Chestnut street. The proprietor with Charlie Hart-mer, Tony Wagner and George Wrgner were arrested. A plentiful supply of liquor was found at both places. The Homestead police yesterday after-noon raided a gambling den in full blast, and cantured eight men. The place was operated by a professional gambler from Pittsburg. Several young men of promi-nent families were among the captives.
