a single to center and Baldwin sacrificed him to second Barbauer's single to center scored Corkhill. In the muth iming Cork-hill led off and knocked the ball strucht in between the right and center fielders. The ball went clean to the fence and Corkhill got home ensily on the hit. Hamilton muffed Baldwin's fly and the fielder did the same with Bierbauer's fly. Then Shugar singled to center and Miller flied out to Hamilton. Backley made a single, Baldwin having scored on Beckley's hit. Delehanty fumbled the hit of Beckley and as a result Beckley got clean around the bases, sensing Shugari ahead of him. Shugart shead of him. In the eighth inning Brown started off for

was announced to take place at 6:30, but it was 7 o'clock before Rev. J. W. McIntyre read the opening prayer. At that time a very large crowd of people were assembled and the ceremonies going on just as the sun was sinking behind the western hills, made the scene a very impressive one. Dr. T. M. Boyle, of Braddock, delivered the address and dweit principally on the good work accomplished by the M. E. Church. The speakers said that all new buildings were of material as well as moral value to a community. The church was in-stituted as a benediction for all who come into it, where the rich and poor alike may meet together in worship. At this point about $200 was raised by sub-scription.
