

LOVED BEHIND BARS.
An Intended Jail Delivery Frustrated by Changing a Cell.

DESIGNING LOVERS SEPARATED.
Business Embarrassments Result in a Treasurer's Downfall.

MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.) BUTLER, Sept. 3.—Sheriff Brown has just frustrated an intended jail escape in a most peculiar way. Several prisoners are located in the jail here, among them a young fellow named Lewis, awaiting the coming session of the grand jury. For some time past the sheriff noticed that the young man had an alibi, but did not seem to have the usual fear of prisoners, but walked close to the cells. The girl was watched and was seen to pass a letter over to the prisoner in question. She was taken outside and reprimanded, and the matter allowed to drop, as the sheriff thought he had merely broken up the correspondence between his prisoner and an outsider.

Later, however, the sheriff had reason to suspect his lovelock prisoner had renewed his stealthy correspondence, but just how it was carried on he did not know. The girl the cell window of the prisoner was closely watched, and at 9 o'clock the window was opened from the outside, and the prisoner got the letters that evening, but they were carefully detached by a burly deputy, who responded in kind, supposing the letters had started on their flying errand to comfort the girl.

The letters were opened by Mr. Brown and found to contain a letter which was sent to the girl, and which was known here. The writer asked her not to do anything to help him, but to sustain in one of her missions, and stated he had prepared plans for escape which would certainly prove successful. The evident intention was to saw the bars of the cell by assistance from the outside, and by this means completely cut his melancholy prisoner off from his communication with his even more melancholy girl.

YOUNGSTOWN'S FALLEN TREASURER.
Embarrassment in His Private Business Led to Embezzlement.

YOUNGSTOWN, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—It has been established beyond question that the defalcation of David Douglas, Treasurer of Youngstown, amounts to $100,000, and possibly may exceed that amount. The shortage caused a decided sensation, as no one in the community has the confidence of the community in a greater degree than Mr.
Douglas, having been elected four times in succession by very large majorities. The investigation shows that Mr. Douglas entered upon his fourth term last Tuesday, but did not renew his bond, the effect of this being that the township was practically without a Treasurer until this afternoon, when the trustees appointed Mr. Douglas to the office to the vacancy. The trustees have had much implicit confidence in the integrity of Mr. Douglas, but no attention was paid to his securing a bond for the present term. His bond was not secured until $100,000, which his sureties will have to make good. The property he turned over to them will not exceed $50,000, and the bond means financial ruin to his bondsmen.

Treasurer Douglas was a man of exceptional habits, and the only explanation of the shortage is that he made it his habit to keep his cash in his pocket. It was called late this afternoon the trustees ordered his cash and would not release it when called.
The defalcation is due largely to the fact that Mr. Douglas, who was an iron worker, left the mill to engage in the business, of which he knew nothing, and becoming embarrassed used township money, hoping he could repay it, but with the usual result. Creditors of the town will lose their money, and the evidence shows he held nothing, there being nothing to levy upon.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.
MANCHESTER, O., Sept. 3.—(Special.)—This afternoon Nicholas Weber, aged 70, without a word of warning, shot his son-in-law, Philip Buhlman, a saloonist, in the mouth, the ball knocking out all of his teeth and crushing through the left side of his jaw.
After the shooting Weber retreated to his room, and turning the 32-caliber revolver at his own head, fired several times, every ball taking effect, but only one penetrating the skull. He was found shortly after lying unconscious on the floor wetting in a pool of blood. Contrary to expectation he recovered consciousness to-night and was able to talk. He said he would never see his son-in-law again, and that he was shooting his son-in-law. Weber has been living with Buhlman for the past ten years, but on account of his habits they have not spoken to each other for some time.

A Gang of Robbers Broken Up.
McKESPORT, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The arrest of Henry Parker and James Haley last night proved a lucky catch, and it is thought this will lead to the capture of the entire gang of thieves who have for many weeks made life unpleasant for some McKesport residents.
The two men were identified by the Arabian woman identified Parker as the man who stole their money and goods, while J. D. Hill, carpenter, admitted that Parker was one of the men who had stolen his money. Haley was identified as one of the gang who assaulted and robbed the man who refused to give the names of the reminder of the gang. They pleaded not guilty, but the evidence was so great, and both men were committed to jail in default of $1,000 apiece.

Church Officers Asked to Resign.
BEAVER FALLS, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The coming out of his troubles with flying colors by Rev. W. S. Brist, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has determined his congregation to suspend those who were instrumental in circulating the evil reports concerning him. A church meeting was held last night, and a resolution was passed, summarily requesting four deacons to resign their deaconship, and also requesting the Superintendent of the Sunday school to step down and out.

The Strike Settled at Lima.
LIMA, O., Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The strike on this division of the Lake Erie and Western Railroad was settled to-day on the receipt of a message from Lafayette, Ind., stating that the men there had decided to go back to work at the scale of wages recently submitted to the men by the company. Conductor John Johnson, who was the leader of the strike, was arrested at Lafayette to-day by the United States authorities, the charges being conspiracy.

Will Not Pay 10 Cents on the Dollar.
JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Some consideration among business men has been created here by the statement that C. C.
Diamond, the Summerville merchant who closed yesterday, will not pay 10 cents on the dollar. The assets are estimated at but $1,000, while his liabilities, back of the Lancashire Bank, have a preferred claim of $500. Thomas C. Jenkins, of Pittsburg, has a claim against Diamond for $3,000.

The Verdict on the Death by Drowning.
JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The coroner's inquest into the cause of the death of young Roberts, rendered a verdict that he came to his death from injuries received from his associates, who ducked him under the water until he became exhausted. The two boys who did the ducking are in jail charged with murder.

dealers in this city, was closed on a note held against him by the Braddock National Bank for the amount of $2,300.

Swamped in Western Securities.
BOSTON, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The Suffolk Trust Company, chartered in 1887 by the Massachusetts Legislature and authorized to do a general banking business and a mortgage loan business, has been notified by the Savings Bank Commissioners to pay no money on the Western portion of their business. The Western farm loans located in Kansas have failed to satisfy expectations. So poor has this Western business become that the company has now on hand over $100,000 in foreclosures on mortgages, $10,000 of tax titles which is received in legal proceedings, and $100,000 in mortgages which have not been sold, but have remained in that company's assets since first bought. Its capital and surplus are tied up in Western securities which, while they have value, cannot be turned into cash. Judge Allen this morning granted an injunction against the Suffolk Trust Company, restraining the company from doing business, and appointed John Haskell Butler, of Washington, Receiver.

Pittsburg at the Boston Fair.
WASHINGTON, Pa., Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Every preparation had been made to make this a memorable day in the history of the Washington county fair, but its old enemy, the Western farm loans located in Kansas, grounded. The day was to be devoted to the honor of the Union Veteran Legion, of Pittsburg, and they arrived here this morning at 9 o'clock, July 29th. Following in line, they marched through the streets, presenting a grand appearance. In addition to this attraction, with the several prominent speakers expected, among them being Major E. A. Monmouth, the Pittsburg orator, a splendid day's racing had been arranged and fully 2,000 people were on the grounds waiting for the fun to begin.

Will Be 50 Miles Nearer Pittsburg.
BEDFORD, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Bedford is to have another railroad. The line is to extend from Mann's Choice, on the Bedford division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, to the town of Bedford, crossing the Morrison Cove division of the same railroad.
The primary reason for the construction of this road is to provide a proper outlet for the coal of the Bedford district, and to bring the coal to the markets. The road is apparently private individuals, and the project is being carried out by the Pennsylvania. Early next week a corps of engineers will begin the survey. One of the most important features of the new project is that it will place it within 50 miles nearer to Pittsburg than it is at present.

A Storm of Oratory Among Legislators.
NEWVILLE, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The Senate held a short session and adjourned till to-morrow morning. The House became excited over a resolution declaring that under the Constitution of the United States the Legislature had no power to investigate the lease contract whereby the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway Company works the State coals.
A storm of oratory followed which continued for an hour without results, when the body adjourned until 2 o'clock.

Announces Substitution for Steam Power.
McKESPORT, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—McKeesport will probably secure the site for the new annamona industry, to replace steam as power. A party of the most prominent citizens of this city are interested in the enterprise. The company has control of 15 States, and is intent to secure this State.

great shape. Don't buy until you see it.
