Criminal Court Opens Its September Sitting With a Rush.
NUMEROUS TRUE BILLS RETURNED.

Children of the Late Francis Torrence Contest His Will.
BUSINESS OF THE COURTS ON A HOLIDAY

The September term of the Criminal Court opened yesterday with Judge Ewing on the bench. The term will be busy on the jail calendar showing more cases than there has ever been at any previous term.

When the Grand Jury had charged and had returned, Judge Ewing devoted the rest of the forenoon to the return of true bills. The average small number of violations of the liquor law were reported.

James Grogan pleaded guilty to assault and battery on the person of the late Francis Torrence. He is now in Dymont Insane Asylum.

William Marshall is on trial for assault on John A. Kyle and Patrick Neelan at McKee's Rocks.

Before Judge Over, in the Orphans' Court, a hearing was commenced in the matter of the petition of Dr. Addison Ballard to have Joseph G. Blake removed as guardian of the three minor children of the late Francis C. Blake.

At the hearing on the petition of Mrs. Winifred Blake, the widow of Francis C. Blake and the mother of the children, they were in charge of the children three times.

A DULL HOLIDAY.
LABORING MEN MAKE NO DISPLAY IN PITTSBURGH.
Stores and Offices Closed, But Few Other Evidences of a Legal Holiday—Criminal and Orphans' Courts in Session—At Other Points.

There was little observance of Labor Day in Pittsburgh yesterday. Industrial organizations had no parades or gatherings, and with the exception of the fact that nearly all stores were closed in the afternoon the city bore a very unholiday-like appearance.

No Common Pleas Courts were in session yesterday, owing to the being Labor Day. The Prothonotary's, Recorder's and Register's offices were also closed.

At the conclusion of the charge the Grand Jury retired, and 14 o'clock they returned the following for their first day's work: True bills: James Boye, Hugh Calland, James Donald, John Dalley, Charles E. Robert Johnson, Valer Kroyok, George F. Long, Jeff May, John Miller, Lawrence George Penrod, David C. Penrod, Harvey C. Penrod, William Duvey, William Ford, John Sullivan, robbery; William Keys, John Fulton, entering a store; The first call of the exercises was a march through the principal streets of the city. Twenty thousand men were in line.

Specials from Kansas indicate that Labor Day is being generally observed, and in many places the Farmers' Alliance is taking a prominent part in the celebrations. In Topeka the day was a grand success.

At San Francisco there was a parade and business was partly suspended. The day was a grand success in all the larger towns of Iowa and Colorado.

Inclement Weather Mars the Enjoyment at Many Eastern Cities.
New York, Sept. 7.—Dispatches from all the leading towns in the Eastern and Middle West indicate a most remarkable day.

At Detroit, the parade showed a marked falling off from the large ones of previous years. There was the usual parade and speaking at St. Paul.

At Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 7.—Labor Day was very generally observed in this city, the banks, Municipal Office, business houses, courts and board of public offices being closed.

Special Telegram to the Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A representative of THE DISPATCH sought Mr. Jay Gould today at Irvington and found that gentleman not only in the best of health and spirits, but disposed to talk, and talk most interestingly on various subjects that are at the moment of paramount concern.

"I visited the mines of the Union Pacific branches in Iowa and Montana. In Idaho the mining industry is in its infancy, but it has great prospects. Many of the 'leaves' that carry lead, silver and gold are through fissure veins and rich in metals.

"The crops in Nebraska are simply superb. The harvesting of the wheat crop was already finished before I left the West. The day passed without any special disturbances, and police circles were quiet.
