CALLED TO ACCOUNT.

Jr. O. U. A. M. State Representatives May Be Asked to Resign.

THEY WERE ALL CAUGHT NAPPING

Rev. Mr. Bausman's Flock Will Stand by Him in His Coming Fight.

MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 9 .- The State Coun cil of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will meet in this place next Tuesday. Among other things' to be brought before the body, it is said that all the National representatives will be asked to resign. This trouble grows out of an action passed at the National Council which is deemed to be detrimental to the order in Penusylvania, and for which the Pennsylvania representatives are held ac-

Previous to the last session of the National Council the representation were based upon the actual membership in the various States of the Union. Each State was entitled to five representatives and one representative to each additional 5,000 members. At the last National Council session a member from one of the Western States offered a resolution to the effect that the representation be based on the following conditions: That each State be entitled to conditions: That each State be entitled to five representatives whose membership reaches 5,000 or less, then a representative be elected to each additional 8,000 members. This resolution carried, notwithstanding Pennsylvania controlled the convention, and it will materially affect its representation. At the next session Pennsylvania will be entitled to but 12 delegates. With Pennsylvania having but 12 out of a membership of 63,000, and Illinois entitled to 5 representatives with a membership of only 1,200 the members look upon this as ridiculous. If the representatives refuse to resign, it is If the representatives refuse to resign, it is said, charges will be preferred against them for incompetency and dereliction of duty. Another important matter will be the inother degree of the order, to which nor ut members who have been connected with the organization for a year can belong. The idea of this resolution will be to bring the members in closer lusainess relationship and make the obligations more binding.

A PARSIMONIOUS MANAGET.

Superintendent Gerhard, of the Insan Hospital, Is Severely Roasted.

Hannishum, Sept. 2.—[Special.]—Governor Pattison, accompanied by Trustee Awl, visited the State Lunatic Hospital to-day, but the inspection was very brief. The Governor did not seemed impressed with the idea of 60 patients sleeping in one room, which is an idea of the State Board of Charitles. The Governor visited the laundry and the bakery, as well as the refrigerators, and, in fact, made a general tour of the buildings. his visit was one merely of observation, with no definite object in view beyond seeing the condition of affairs, and when he left he remarked that he would call again.

Benjamin F. Kendig, a steward and farmer ient he remarked that he would call again.

Benjamin F. Kendig, a steward and farmer for the asylum for 18 years, says he resigned in March, 18M, on account of the ill treatment from Superintendent Gerhard. "The difference between Superintendent Gerhard and myself was on the feeding of the patients," said Kendig. "He reduced the victualing of the house down to such a small figure that I continually objected. This caused an unpleasantness between us. Soon after Dr. Gerhard assumed control he felt he was secure, and began to reduce the supplies. About the time of the retirement of Dr. Curwen the hospital contained about 400 immates, On every Friday about 300 pounds of fresh fish was supplied to them, and other establies in proportion. After Superintendent Gerhard took charge, and at the time when the patients numbered between 600 and 800, he reduced the supply of fish to less than 170 pounds. For breakfast, when mackerel was served menriy a barrel was used, but Superintendent Gerhard was not long in cutting it off altogether, and when it was served orders were given to issue less than half a harrel. This was about a firm and firm harrel. erved orders were given to issue less than salf a barrel. This was about a fair propor half a barrel. This was about a fair propor-tion of the general cut in supplies.
The clothing distributed to the male pa-ticuts is as good as when Dr. Curwin had charge. I know nothing about the clothing in the Female Department. Superintendent Gerhard is entirely too close listed for the position he holds. This is one of his prinposition he holds. This is one of his principal faults."

"What object had Superintendent Gerhard in cutting off the supply of victuals?"

"I can only answer your question in a general way. The State makes a small appropriation for the maintenance of the hospital. This includes food, raiment, medical attendance and everything. The Superintendent winted a new private bath room for instance. He would take $55 out of the maintenance fund to do the work with. If he wanted a new carriage, more horses, another breed of chickens, or something of this kind, he always cut into the maintenance fund to satisfy his whims."

REV. MR. BAUSMAN HAS FRIENDS.

If His Presbytery Unseats Him His Congregation Will Stand by Him.

ROCHESTER, PA., Sept. 9.-[Special.]-Rev. J. H. Bausman, paster of the Presbyterian Church here, when asked this evening what answer he would make to the Committee of Investigation from the Allegheny Presbytery, recently appointed at Leetsdale, and which is to meet him and his elders here next Monday, said he could not answer untihe knew just what their questions were.
The reverend gentleman said he did not deem it wise to discuss the matter while the investigation was pending. He thought, however, that the committee appointed would discharge its duty in a spirit of brotherly kindness and farmess to all persons concerned. The proceedings will be quiet and informal, and will not consume a great deal of time. The questions, he said, would be devoted to two or three points,
such as the question of future punishment and the inspiration of the scriptness as a whole. The question of future punishment, however, will be of main importance. Many persons familiar with the members of the committee believe that their investigations will take a wider range and take in all the next Monday, said he could not answer unticommittee believe that their investigations will take a wider range and take in all the precepts and fundamental principles of the Presbyterian belief. The feeling in favor of Res. Mr. Bausman has gained such ground that there will be trouble with the congregation should the Presbytery suspend their paster.

A EREAK IN ODD FELLOW BANKS.

One of the Pittsburg Delegates Arrested

and Taken Out of the Parade. CARLISLE, Sept. 2.—[Special.]—At the State Convention of Odd Fellows this morning the following officers were elected unanimously: following officers were elected unantinously: District Master, James W. Needham, of Phil-adelphia; Deputy District Master, C. W. Penn, of Pittsburg; District Secretary, S. M. S. Tafford, of Marietta; District Treasurer, Alexander benny, of Harrisburg: Director. C. F. Logan, of Wilkesbarre; Assistant Secre-taries, M. V. P. Williams and H. P. Bishop. taries, M. V. P. Williams and H. P. Bishop, of Philadelphia. The next convention will be held at Williamsport. The parade this afternoon was an imposing one, fully 1,000 splendidly uniformed men being in line. Considerable excitement was created during the parade by the arrest of Joshus Jones, one of the Pittsburg delegates, on the oath of his wife for desertion. The warrant was issued in Pittsburg and the man taken out of the line of parade.

Troops May Be Called Out. CHARLESTON, W. VA., Sept. 9.—[Special.]— There is every prospect of serious trouble at the Raymond City coal mines. A strike of miners has been in progress there for nearly a year, and some time ago the company atwages, and some time ago the company at-tempted to put in colored miners at reduced wages, but were met by the old miners and compelled to leave the place. The manage-ment is now contemplating another attempt of this sort, and if it does there will be trou-ble. The superintendent has had an inter-view with the foregoner. view with the Governor, presumably on the

The Road Again Tied Up. LINA, Sept. 9.—The Lake Eric and Western Railroad is again tight, and all freight trains have stopped. Last night the switchmen went out demanding an increase in wages. They are supported by the trainmen, who refuse to work until the switchmen are satisfied. Superintendent Hill is here and said to-night that he was tired of being dictated to, and thought it was about time the company was running its own business.

A Man's Neck Wrenched in Wrestling. Brandock, Sept. ft.-[Special.]-Two young men named Tierney and Conrich were engaged in a friendly tussle at the Homestead Steel Works last night. During the wrestle Conrich's neck was wrenched and he fell unconscious to the ground. It was thought at the time that his neck was broken. It is yet feared that the injury sustained will prove fatal.

YOUNGSTOWN'S THIRD CASE.

An Ex-County Treasurer to Be Prosecute

but Asserts Innocence. Youngsrown, Sept. 9.— [Special.]—The County Commissioners have been investigating the accounts of ex-County Treasurer George W. Canfield, and have ascertained that there is due the county from him $1,500. Action has been taken by the Commissioners that if the money is not paid at once prosecution will be commenced. Mr. Canfield was Treasurer of the county four years, retiring two years are. Ex-Treasurer Smith, who retired from office this week, said the amount due the county from Canfield was $1.500, and that he had been promising to settle but had not done so.

Ex-Treasurer Canfield denies that there was any deflication on his part and states that the deficiency, whatever may exist, is due to clerical errors. If a settlement is not effected this week the case will be placed in the hands of the Prosecuting Attorney. Action has been taken by the Commissioners

PREPARING FOR THE PROCLAMATION. arts of the Indian Territory

Opened for Settlement. Washington, Sept. 9.—Secretary Noble has returned to the city from Cape May Point, where he had a conference with the President as to the number of important matters pending in the Interior Department. Work preparatory to the opening to settlement of the ceded lands in the Sac and Fox, Pottathe ceded lands in the Sac and Fox, Pottawatomic, Absentee, Shawnee and Iowa reservations in Oklahoma, is being rapidly pushed forward, and it is hoped that all will have been put in readiness some time during next week for the President's proclamation.

Gertain details as to county lines and county seats have not, however, been duly determined upon. The Kickapoo lands will not be included in the proclamation, inasmuch as these Indians have not yet taken the r lands in severalty, and the contracts with them must first be ratified by Congress. As to the lands on the west of Oklahoma, it is thought they cannot be opened for settlement for some time yet. The Secretary desires to have everything reacy for the Pres dent's action at the earliest possible moment, particularly so because of the short time now remaining in which the settlers can build their houses and make other preparations for winter before cold weather sets in.
