DENOXIOUS VOUCHERS DISPOSED OF.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 10.—A regular monthly meeting of the World's Fair Commission was held this afternoon, with Govvernor Pattison in the chair. Reports of the various standing committees were submitted, including that of the Executive Committee, making recommendations as to the general style and character of the buildings to be erected, the cost not to exceed $75,000 and the space to be covered about 8,000 square feet. This committee proposes to advertise at once for plans and specifications. to advertise at once for plans and specifications for the buildings, offering prizes of $1,000, $500 and $300 for the best plane.

General J. P. S. Gobin, Chairman of the sub-committee of the Executive Committee, read a brief report giving the details of the committee's recent visit to Chicago, General Gobin said that a site for the Pennsylvania building had been accepted, and some general details were added, giving the approximate dimensions which should be used in the building. The ground set apart for Pennsylvania is most admirably located and beautifully surrounded. It comprises 250 toet in front and is 155 feet deep.

Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, of Harrisburg, Chairman of the Committee on Arts and Sciences, gave a full report outlining the general plan of the committee for future work. This plan, as suggested by Mrs. Jones, bad met the approval of Mrs. Palmer, President of the Woman's Board of Managors, and the Pennsylvania Commissioners.

with Pennsylvania.

A little breeze was created by the objections raised by Mr. Farquhar to the present form of voucher of the commission. As it exists now, each member of the State Board of Managers must make out an itemized list of expenses each month, go before a notary and take out; to its correctness. Several gentlemen objected to what they considered a reflection on the individual honesty of the members. Lieutenan' Governor Watres moved that the exact form of the voucher be retained except that a certificate be substituted for Adjutant General McClelland emphatically Adjusts General McClelland emphatically denied the story which he read from Chicago and which charged him with getting up the obnoxious voucher. He proved that he had nothing wintever to do with the voucher and that the entire story was a fabrication. The motion of Lieutenant Governor Watres was then adopted.

Monongahela River Towns Show Remarkable Increase in Valuations.

Investors in Monongabela river town lots during the last five or eight years have gathered rich harvests, according to the following comparative valuations of lots in a few of the towns that have sprung up on this open water course, or made their greatest growth within the period stated. Comparisons are based on one lot: 1885-Homestead, sold at $300; 1891, sold 1886-Braddock, sold at $250; 1890, sold

The explanation is in the fact that the Monongahela Valley, with an always navigable river, unexcelled railroad facilities, inexhaustible stores of coal and prolific fields of gas, is the manufacturers natural home, and where manufacturers go, workers, business people, investors and speculators follow. Some astonishment was created by the determination by Mr. Brewer's friends to withhold his name as a candidate for the office of Executive Commissioner. Mr. Whitman made an eloquent speech accepting the office, and pledging his best efforts in the performance of the duties thus imposed on him.
