WITH PRAYER AND SONG.

Corner Stone of the First Presbyteria Church, of Allegheny, Laid Yesterday. The corner stone of the First Presbyterian Church, of Allegheny, was laid yesterday afternoon with appropriate services. A large number of the congregation were present, who assisted in the exercises and were greatly interested. It was the congregation who began it by singing the hymn, "The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord." Rev. D. S. Kennedy, the pastor of the church, conducted the ceremony, and after a few introductory remarks a prayer was offered by John Fox.

Dr. Kennedv read a brief history of the church's buildings, following the events of the first one back in 1815, when the congregation worshiped in a little church 30x30 feet in the Allegheny Parks, near where Stockton and Sherman avenues now meet. Stockton and Sherman avenues now meet. In 1832 they moved to their present site at the corner of Arch and South Diamond streets, and in 1849 their church was burned down. A year later another was erected, which remained until torn down this year to make room for the present one. The cor ner stone laid yesterday was therefore the fourth laid by the church.

A box was then placed in the hollow corner stone. It contained a copy of the Bible, the confession of faith, photographs of Dr. Elisha P. Swift and Elliott E. Swift, former pastors of the church, a copy of the memorial address in connection with the death of Dr. E. P. Swift and his fortieth annual service. mon, an historical address delivered by Dr. E. E. Swift and biography of the then elders prepared by him, a copy of the church manual of the names of the members, a photograph of the architect of the building, a new silver dellar, a copy of the Presinterian Banner and a copy of each of the local papers not issued on Sunday.

The stone was then formally laid by Robert McCain, Chairman of the Building Committee, and Dr. Kennedy made an earnest dedicatory prayer. The congregation sang another hymn, and Rev. S. H. Holliday pronounced the benediction, and all was in the early winter, but it will not be com-pleted until next spring.

Frank Coyle, Jack Borden, Peter Dugan, Sam Brady and John Callaghan were all held for trial at court by Alderman Mc-Kenna yesterday on a charge of being im-plicated in the robbing of M. C.
