

Small Ads for Two Weeks Ending Sept. 12, 1890... Increase, 559.

THE FARMERS FIGHT.

Failure of an Attempt to Organize the People's Party in Pennsylvania.

DELEGATES WERE SCARCE

When the Convention Opened, and Some Bolted Before It Ended

A PLATFORM, BUT NOT A TICKET.

Constitutional Convention Boomers Meet With a Severe Repulse.

POINTS ON WHICH REFORMERS DIFFER

GREENSBURG, Sept. 16.—The State convention held here to-day for the purpose of organizing the "Peoples' Party" in Pennsylvania for effective political battle was very spectacular.

At the opening there were about 30 delegates present, among whom were the following: C. H. Allen, A. Han, W. W. Dean, and G. L. Holton, of the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, of Crawford county; L. A. Tucker, editor of the Pennsylvania Farmer; L. A. Luse, of Erie, Secretary and State Organizer of the Farmers' Alliance, of Pennsylvania; J. W. Edwards, of Jamestown, a member of the State Committee; Frank Douth, John O. Exley, and D. Carr, of Philadelphia, and Peter Wise, Master Workman, K. of L., Scottsdale, of the Farmers' Alliance.

The convention was called to order by Lewis Edwards, Chairman of the National Committee. The following organization, which served both as a temporary and permanent, was then effected: F. R. Agnew, of Beaver, Chairman; L. E. Tucker and J. W. Armbrust, Secretaries. The following committees were then appointed: On Platform—Ed Leeper, Lawrence; ex-Senator St. Clair Thompson, of Indiana; L. A. Luse, of Erie; John O. Exley, of Philadelphia; Collis Levey, of Lawrence; G. L. Holton, of Crawford; Permanent Organization—Ed Johnson, of Westmoreland; W. N. Deane, of Crawford, and Frank Baub, of Philadelphia.

A discussion ensued upon the question of credentials, and on motion of St. Clair Thompson it was agreed to admit all who would enroll themselves as members.

The object of the convention as stated in the call signed by R. A. Thompson, F. R. Agnew and Lewis Edwards, all members of the National Committee, Farmers' Alliance, was read, as follows:

To the People of Pennsylvania: We hereby call a conference of all citizens who are tired of old party corruption and find the upbuilding of an Independent Peoples' party on the basis of the Cincinnati platform, or of the St. Louis demands of the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, to be the organization to form a State organization, adopt platform and nominate candidates.

MAJORITY AT THE BEGINNING. The convention during the preliminary session was reasonably harmonious, though inclined to be technical. An adjournment was taken until evening for supper and rest. During the recess there had been much discussion as to the expediency of nominating a ticket and other matters, and upon resuming it was evident that vital issue had arisen. The 35 delegates present at the first session had shrunk to 23, and there were few spectators.

It soon developed that there were 23 errors in the delegation remaining, and they speedily became an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them.

A STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. It was decided to form a State organization of the Peoples' party and then the following officers were elected for the State Executive Committee: R. A. Thompson, President; W. W. Dean, Vice President; F. R. Agnew, Secretary. These officers were instructed, after some discussion, to communicate with the organization by adding one member from each county.

This business out of the way the convention settled down to actual business, and they speedily became an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them.

A RESOLUTION WAS INTRODUCED providing for the nomination of a straight-out Peoples' party ticket, by Mr. Leeper, of Lawrence. He asked how they were ever to know their real strength unless a separate ticket was nominated.

"When the ballots are counted," said he, "how shall we know who are our friends, if they speedily become an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them."

Lewis Edwards, of Jamestown, was opposed to the resolution. "Our party has just been born," said he, "and the State is not organized in the counties. There are many places where the Farmers' Alliance has never been heard of, and we must first organize in the township. It is impossible to elect our ticket, if we decide to put one in the field. It would simply show our weakness."

Mr. Tucker here offered an amendment providing in substance that all members of the new party be instructed to vote for members of labor or farmers' organizations from the Western Union by the old parties. Mr. Tucker gave his reasons at great length for this.

John Eckerly, of Philadelphia, here declared himself. "I am in favor of a State ticket," he declared with dramatic effect. "These men are chosen who want a ticket nominated in their name to go to endorse their men in the old ideas. If this is what they came here for let them go home and vote with the parties to which they belong."

Delegate Drake, of Lawrence, said it was useless to attempt to nominate a ticket.

THE CLIMAX OF THE DEBATE. The chair then read the amendment, and an attempt was made to take a

TRIUMPH OF TAMMANY.

New York's Democratic Convention Ruled by the City Schemers.

FLOWER NAMED FOR GOVERNOR.

The Platform Comes Out Strongly Against Free Silver Coinage.

HILL SECURES A FLATTERING PLANK

QUAKER CITY REFORMERS BOLT.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION BOOMERS MEET WITH A SEVERE REPULSE.

POINTS ON WHICH REFORMERS DIFFER

GREENSBURG, Sept. 16.—The State convention held here to-day for the purpose of organizing the "Peoples' Party" in Pennsylvania for effective political battle was very spectacular.

At the opening there were about 30 delegates present, among whom were the following: C. H. Allen, A. Han, W. W. Dean, and G. L. Holton, of the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, of Crawford county; L. A. Tucker, editor of the Pennsylvania Farmer; L. A. Luse, of Erie, Secretary and State Organizer of the Farmers' Alliance, of Pennsylvania; J. W. Edwards, of Jamestown, a member of the State Committee; Frank Douth, John O. Exley, and D. Carr, of Philadelphia, and Peter Wise, Master Workman, K. of L., Scottsdale, of the Farmers' Alliance.

The convention was called to order by Lewis Edwards, Chairman of the National Committee. The following organization, which served both as a temporary and permanent, was then effected: F. R. Agnew, of Beaver, Chairman; L. E. Tucker and J. W. Armbrust, Secretaries. The following committees were then appointed: On Platform—Ed Leeper, Lawrence; ex-Senator St. Clair Thompson, of Indiana; L. A. Luse, of Erie; John O. Exley, of Philadelphia; Collis Levey, of Lawrence; G. L. Holton, of Crawford; Permanent Organization—Ed Johnson, of Westmoreland; W. N. Deane, of Crawford, and Frank Baub, of Philadelphia.

A discussion ensued upon the question of credentials, and on motion of St. Clair Thompson it was agreed to admit all who would enroll themselves as members.

The object of the convention as stated in the call signed by R. A. Thompson, F. R. Agnew and Lewis Edwards, all members of the National Committee, Farmers' Alliance, was read, as follows:

To the People of Pennsylvania: We hereby call a conference of all citizens who are tired of old party corruption and find the upbuilding of an Independent Peoples' party on the basis of the Cincinnati platform, or of the St. Louis demands of the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, to be the organization to form a State organization, adopt platform and nominate candidates.

MAJORITY AT THE BEGINNING. The convention during the preliminary session was reasonably harmonious, though inclined to be technical. An adjournment was taken until evening for supper and rest. During the recess there had been much discussion as to the expediency of nominating a ticket and other matters, and upon resuming it was evident that vital issue had arisen. The 35 delegates present at the first session had shrunk to 23, and there were few spectators.

It soon developed that there were 23 errors in the delegation remaining, and they speedily became an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them.

A STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. It was decided to form a State organization of the Peoples' party and then the following officers were elected for the State Executive Committee: R. A. Thompson, President; W. W. Dean, Vice President; F. R. Agnew, Secretary. These officers were instructed, after some discussion, to communicate with the organization by adding one member from each county.

This business out of the way the convention settled down to actual business, and they speedily became an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them.

A RESOLUTION WAS INTRODUCED providing for the nomination of a straight-out Peoples' party ticket, by Mr. Leeper, of Lawrence. He asked how they were ever to know their real strength unless a separate ticket was nominated.

"When the ballots are counted," said he, "how shall we know who are our friends, if they speedily become an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them."

Lewis Edwards, of Jamestown, was opposed to the resolution. "Our party has just been born," said he, "and the State is not organized in the counties. There are many places where the Farmers' Alliance has never been heard of, and we must first organize in the township. It is impossible to elect our ticket, if we decide to put one in the field. It would simply show our weakness."

Mr. Tucker here offered an amendment providing in substance that all members of the new party be instructed to vote for members of labor or farmers' organizations from the Western Union by the old parties. Mr. Tucker gave his reasons at great length for this.

John Eckerly, of Philadelphia, here declared himself. "I am in favor of a State ticket," he declared with dramatic effect. "These men are chosen who want a ticket nominated in their name to go to endorse their men in the old ideas. If this is what they came here for let them go home and vote with the parties to which they belong."

Delegate Drake, of Lawrence, said it was useless to attempt to nominate a ticket.

THE CLIMAX OF THE DEBATE. The chair then read the amendment, and an attempt was made to take a

TRIUMPH OF TAMMANY.

New York's Democratic Convention Ruled by the City Schemers.

FLOWER NAMED FOR GOVERNOR.

The Platform Comes Out Strongly Against Free Silver Coinage.

HILL SECURES A FLATTERING PLANK

QUAKER CITY REFORMERS BOLT.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION BOOMERS MEET WITH A SEVERE REPULSE.

POINTS ON WHICH REFORMERS DIFFER

GREENSBURG, Sept. 16.—The State convention held here to-day for the purpose of organizing the "Peoples' Party" in Pennsylvania for effective political battle was very spectacular.

At the opening there were about 30 delegates present, among whom were the following: C. H. Allen, A. Han, W. W. Dean, and G. L. Holton, of the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, of Crawford county; L. A. Tucker, editor of the Pennsylvania Farmer; L. A. Luse, of Erie, Secretary and State Organizer of the Farmers' Alliance, of Pennsylvania; J. W. Edwards, of Jamestown, a member of the State Committee; Frank Douth, John O. Exley, and D. Carr, of Philadelphia, and Peter Wise, Master Workman, K. of L., Scottsdale, of the Farmers' Alliance.

The convention was called to order by Lewis Edwards, Chairman of the National Committee. The following organization, which served both as a temporary and permanent, was then effected: F. R. Agnew, of Beaver, Chairman; L. E. Tucker and J. W. Armbrust, Secretaries. The following committees were then appointed: On Platform—Ed Leeper, Lawrence; ex-Senator St. Clair Thompson, of Indiana; L. A. Luse, of Erie; John O. Exley, of Philadelphia; Collis Levey, of Lawrence; G. L. Holton, of Crawford; Permanent Organization—Ed Johnson, of Westmoreland; W. N. Deane, of Crawford, and Frank Baub, of Philadelphia.

A discussion ensued upon the question of credentials, and on motion of St. Clair Thompson it was agreed to admit all who would enroll themselves as members.

The object of the convention as stated in the call signed by R. A. Thompson, F. R. Agnew and Lewis Edwards, all members of the National Committee, Farmers' Alliance, was read, as follows:

To the People of Pennsylvania: We hereby call a conference of all citizens who are tired of old party corruption and find the upbuilding of an Independent Peoples' party on the basis of the Cincinnati platform, or of the St. Louis demands of the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, to be the organization to form a State organization, adopt platform and nominate candidates.

MAJORITY AT THE BEGINNING. The convention during the preliminary session was reasonably harmonious, though inclined to be technical. An adjournment was taken until evening for supper and rest. During the recess there had been much discussion as to the expediency of nominating a ticket and other matters, and upon resuming it was evident that vital issue had arisen. The 35 delegates present at the first session had shrunk to 23, and there were few spectators.

It soon developed that there were 23 errors in the delegation remaining, and they speedily became an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them.

A STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. It was decided to form a State organization of the Peoples' party and then the following officers were elected for the State Executive Committee: R. A. Thompson, President; W. W. Dean, Vice President; F. R. Agnew, Secretary. These officers were instructed, after some discussion, to communicate with the organization by adding one member from each county.

This business out of the way the convention settled down to actual business, and they speedily became an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them.

A RESOLUTION WAS INTRODUCED providing for the nomination of a straight-out Peoples' party ticket, by Mr. Leeper, of Lawrence. He asked how they were ever to know their real strength unless a separate ticket was nominated.

"When the ballots are counted," said he, "how shall we know who are our friends, if they speedily become an independent party in a mass of complicated parliamentary questions from which Tom Reed and his famous gravel could not have extricated them."

Lewis Edwards, of Jamestown, was opposed to the resolution. "Our party has just been born," said he, "and the State is not organized in the counties. There are many places where the Farmers' Alliance has never been heard of, and we must first organize in the township. It is impossible to elect our ticket, if we decide to put one in the field. It would simply show our weakness."

Mr. Tucker here offered an amendment providing in substance that all members of the new party be instructed to vote for members of labor or farmers' organizations from the Western Union by the old parties. Mr. Tucker gave his reasons at great length for this.

John Eckerly, of Philadelphia, here declared himself. "I am in favor of a State ticket," he declared with dramatic effect. "These men are chosen who want a ticket nominated in their name to go to endorse their men in the old ideas. If this is what they came here for let them go home and vote with the parties to which they belong."

Delegate Drake, of Lawrence, said it was useless to attempt to nominate a ticket.

THE CLIMAX OF THE DEBATE. The chair then read the amendment, and an attempt was made to take a

RIOTING AT AN OPERA.

The Outside Mob at the Production of Wagner's Lohengrin

VERY NOISY, BUT NOT DANGEROUS.

Police and Military Make 350 Arrests Before the Opera House.

THE AUDIENCE INSIDE IS PLEASED

PARIS, Sept. 16.—The performance of "Lohengrin" commenced at 8 o'clock this evening. The precincts of the Opera House were crowded, but up to that time only a slight attempt had been made to create disorder, which the police easily suppressed.

The "Claque" seats were occupied by detectives. All the first and second floor boxes were occupied by police, and an inspector stood by each check-table to scrutinize incoming. Mounted Republican Guards kept the streets clear.

ORKESTED WITH APPLAUSE. The house was crowded. The overture was listened to in profound silence, the audience breaking into rapturous applause at the conclusion. Van Dyk and other artists were recalled several times and applauded to the echo.

There was a noisy demonstration outside the Opera House during the performance. By 9 o'clock the pavement was almost impassable, and there was a sprinkling of Anarchists and other rough characters in the crowd. A band of students sang the "Marseillaise," the crowd responding with cries of "Vive la France," and "A bas Wagner."

Police of the mob continually made rushes against the police cordon, and the police, whenever these incursions became formidable, assumed the offensive and charged the mob which would take to flight in hot haste. Then the singing and shouting would soon be renewed and the rushes and charges repeated.

THE MOB ROUGHLY HANDLED. In some cases the zeal of the police seemed to outrun their discretion. In several instances respectable workmen were roughly handled and arrested on the slightest provocation, and then cuffed if they ventured to make the mildest protest. Fully 350 persons had been arrested by 10 o'clock, and the police were still on duty.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

RIOTING AT AN OPERA.

The Outside Mob at the Production of Wagner's Lohengrin

VERY NOISY, BUT NOT DANGEROUS.

Police and Military Make 350 Arrests Before the Opera House.

THE AUDIENCE INSIDE IS PLEASED

PARIS, Sept. 16.—The performance of "Lohengrin" commenced at 8 o'clock this evening. The precincts of the Opera House were crowded, but up to that time only a slight attempt had been made to create disorder, which the police easily suppressed.

The "Claque" seats were occupied by detectives. All the first and second floor boxes were occupied by police, and an inspector stood by each check-table to scrutinize incoming. Mounted Republican Guards kept the streets clear.

ORKESTED WITH APPLAUSE. The house was crowded. The overture was listened to in profound silence, the audience breaking into rapturous applause at the conclusion. Van Dyk and other artists were recalled several times and applauded to the echo.

There was a noisy demonstration outside the Opera House during the performance. By 9 o'clock the pavement was almost impassable, and there was a sprinkling of Anarchists and other rough characters in the crowd. A band of students sang the "Marseillaise," the crowd responding with cries of "Vive la France," and "A bas Wagner."

Police of the mob continually made rushes against the police cordon, and the police, whenever these incursions became formidable, assumed the offensive and charged the mob which would take to flight in hot haste. Then the singing and shouting would soon be renewed and the rushes and charges repeated.

THE MOB ROUGHLY HANDLED. In some cases the zeal of the police seemed to outrun their discretion. In several instances respectable workmen were roughly handled and arrested on the slightest provocation, and then cuffed if they ventured to make the mildest protest. Fully 350 persons had been arrested by 10 o'clock, and the police were still on duty.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly cause a row.

The following are the most significant features of the platform adopted: The Republican party initiated a hostile move against the right of nomination of the State by depriving New York of the right of nominating its own candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

TAMMANY GETS EVERYTHING. The preamble and resolutions of the Committee on Credentials recite the irregular action of the County Democracy and declare the right of Tammany Hall to nominate all the inspectors of elections, poll clerks and ballot clerks to which the Democratic party may be entitled by the City of New York. This action will undoubtedly