Gilliford's answer was: "I am quite ing that this mattergo over for a month not willing to refer it to the Cor

but I am not willing to refer it to the Cor-poration Committee as it is at present com-posed." This cutting remark was passed for the time without notice and the resolution was referred to the Finance Committee. Mr. Wortheliner from the Finance Com-mittee presented an ordinance fixing the clerical force of the Controller's office at one clerk at $1,300 a year, and one clerk at $720. The ordinance was passed. Dr. Gilliford and Mr. Henrick alone voted no.

way franchises be sold to the highest bidder. This met opposition, i ccause, it was said, it would lead to a practical blackmailing of companies who desired to extend their lines. Arthur Kennedy thought that the resolution should not be acted upon at once. To this Dr. Gilliford replied: "I think that the old company had leased its lines to a new company with the increased capital, and therefore it is very donbiful if it can be collected." He said the Anditing Com-mittee, from whose figures he had compiled the information contained in his report, or paper, had put nothing down that they were not positive about. Mr. Kennedy remarked that Dr. Gilliford would not be able to pro-tect the Pittsburg. Allegheny and Man-chester road.

Mr. Wertheimer, who, it will be remem bered, put himself on record by saying that be would not vote for the Arleghen's General Hespitial appropriation so long as the propo-sition to dismiss Miss Patton as head of the training school for nurses was pending, must be convinced that she is to re-main. He offered an ordinance appropriating $10,000 to the institution for the year 1801. and for each succeeding year, on condi-tion that the City Physician shall have power to send any employe or patient who is a charge on the city to the institution

IT WAS MADE PERMANENT.

Mr. Henricks objected to the clause mak ing the appropriation perpetual, and moved that it be amended so as to strike out that portion. He did not believe that Council could bind succeeding Councils. To this roply was made that the ordinance could be repealed at any time. The amondment was lost, and ordinance as submitted was passed, Messrs, Einstein and Henricks voting nay. Resolutions transferring $15.000 from the contingent fund to the water fund and $15, 601 from the water to the water extension fands were passed. Mr. Wertheimer made a detailed statement of the condition of the Unances, show-ing where the famous $100,000 had its origin. The estimated revenues for 1891-92 were $990.-

factories in that section. While here Mr. Henderson concluded contracts for service clocks in the new Ferguson building, which will have 119, and the Vandergrift, which will have 78. There is quite a demand for the time service, and so popular has it become here that this city now ranks second in the estimation of the Western Union Telegraph Company. "It is a big feature in Pittsburg's cap," snid Mr. Henderson, "to be selected as a station for a duplicate astronomical regula tor. When this is established here, and the Washington regulator should fail through a

At present there is no uniform-ity in the time, and anybody there will tell you how the mill whistles blow at dif-ferent times for the same hour. The self-winding clocks are becoming very popular, and especially in the Eastern division. The percentage of increase in one year is very large. The company began to erect a new building in New York, starting out with a two-story and cellar structure. They had to change to three stories, then to four, until now it is five stories high, and not big enough."

The workers, on their side, abandoned the demand for an increase in the gatherers' wages of 5 per cent; while the manufacturers relinquished their efforts to obtain phanges in the working rules. Messrs. Chambers, Frazee, Hart, Loeffler, Lewis Keyes and D. McKee composed the manufacturers' committee; the workers menufacturers' committee; the workers being represented by Messrs. John Eberhart, Swearer, Winters, Conoway and three others. The committee will meet again next week to decide upon a date for starting up the fires. Mr. Loefler said after the meeting that fi would be be-tween the ist and 15th of October. The condition of trade is corrected by the manufacturers to be poor. There is no unanimity of sentiment among Pitts-burg manufacturers as to the advisability of their wage committee's action in resum-ing work at the old rate. The child visited by so unnity school chil-dren was the 35, year-old daughter of Mor-gan McDonald, of 2311 Larkins alley. She died on Monday last and was buried Tues-day. Dr. J. Milton Daff was reported to be the attending physician of the child and was seen in regard to the case. He said he had been annoved very much about his re-ported connection with the case. Rumor had it that he failed to report the matter to the Bureau of Health in time, and owing to this those in charge of the schools had no notification of the case so as to warn the pupils. Fitzsimmons is still at large. The only circumstance favorable to his capture is the sudden falling off in wild rumors of his having been located. The police regard this as an evidence that people have recovered from their spasmodic agitation over the escape and are really settling down to intelligent action. As to the whereabouts of the escaped murderer there is no information. There is not even a respectable clew. But Superintendent Weir is nevertheless notification of the case so as to warn the pupils. Dr. Duff says his attention was first called to the case on Saturday evening, but that he did not get to see the child until Sanday on account of being ill hinself. When he visited the child he saw at once that it had diphtheretic croup and that it had but few hours to live. He told Mr. McDonald of the serious nature of the case, but somebow. Dr. Duff says, he was misunderstood and it be-came noised about in the neighborhood that the child was only suffering with croup. For this reason a large number of friends of the family, among them a lot of children, called to see the sick child before its feath, and at its funeral school children acted as pallbearers. In a conversation with Mr. McDonald Dr. Duff says McDonaid admitted that he made a mistake in teiling his neighconfident that the man will come to light. While being careful to follow every clew, no matter how improbable, he places chief confidence in the liberal manner in which Fitzsimmons has been advertised. If the missing man is in Pittsburg, the local officers will get him. If he is elsewhere, he will be readily identified by his photograph and description.

Fitzsimmons is such a peculiar individual that any person of ordinary perception could recognize him after carefully study-ing the documents sent out. Probably no man who ever broke jail has gained such notoriety. During the two days of his liberty over 7,000 circulars containing photograph and description have been sent out over the Unites States and Canada to police and newspapers by Superintendent Weir and Sheriff McCleary. DESCRIPTIONS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

McDonald Dr. Daff says McDonald admitted that he made a mistake in telling his neigh-bors what he did, but said it was caused by not understanding his advice. The facts of the case were not known at the school building until vesterday afternoon, when Principal McClure accidently neard of them. He went through all the school rooms at once, and out of the room in which a brother of the dead child was attending seven pupils were sent home. Altagether there were nearly 40 pupils ordered to leave the school, and a second investigation is to be made to day which, it is thought, wfil result in some more pupils being forced to leave. Accord-ing to law, each pupil sent home will have to remain out of school 30 days before be-ing readmitted. Double that number will leave the Pittsburg postoffice in the next two days. The necessity of this is evidenced by scores of letters received at police headquarters yesterday asking for circulars. As many more were acknowledgements of the receipt of the documents and assurances of every-thing possible being done to put them to good use. They came from all parts of the and be the sense of the sense from all parts of the conntry. About 7:30 o'clock last evening a telegram eame from Chief of Police Delbruzge, of Wheeling, stating that a man answering to the description of Fitzsimmons had been arrested there. He was wired to hold the man and Detective Shore was sent on at once. Superintendent Weir at once made preparations for a special train to Wheeling to Dring the prisoner back, awaiting word from the detective before starting. The answer came to the effect that it was the wrong man. This was the only scare of the day. A smuch interest is centered on the action of the Prison Board as on the search for Fitzsimmons. The Quarterly Committee, consisting of Mayor Gourley, Sheriff McCleary and Commissioner Weir, began their investigation at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. They remained at the jail until 6o'clock. A If certain thieves, not Italian, who have heir habitat between Forest Grove and the Steubenville pike, knew to a dead certainty what a vivid glare of light they stood one night not a great while since while conduct-ing their thieving operations, there would probably be a decrease in population in that in question the locality. On the night in question the villains were loading themselves on the property of Jonathan Phillips, who has suffered considerable loss lately. They were observed by the entire family and several hired people in the house by the vivid light-ning which lighted the firmament as brillning which lighted the firmament as brill-inning which lighted the firmament as brill-inning as noonday at intervals. So perfect was the exposure that the lineaments of cach face were not only fully brought out, but the shade of his hair could be ascerinvestigation at lociock in the afternoon. They remained at the jail until 6 o'clock. A critical examination of the institution was made, especially in that portion where Fitz-simmons operated in making his escape. Every detail was carefully considered and expert testimony was taken as to cutting bars, scaling ropes, etc. Warden Berlin and Deputies Soffel and Marshall were put through a lengthy cross-fire of questions. The result would not be divulged. One of the committee said: but the shade of his hair could be ascer-tained, and the parties were well known to the family. For reasons best known to themselves the family let the thieves continue their depredations, but should any of them he ap-prehended on another charge he will likely find it an uphill business to attempt to set up a good character, as the circumstances in this case are well known in the neighbor-hood and it has been greatly troubled by thieves for some years past. They poison dogs when they interfere, and this season they have been unnsmally troublesone, going so far as to dig up transplanted tomatoes and dig out of the ground seed potatoes, steal poultry, etc. In one case they stole the mother hens with their chicks and took a flock of young ducks.

When it is submitted the public will, I have no doubt, be made acquainted with its con-tents." Assistant Deputy Warden Robb, of the county jail, returned to duty yesterday aft-ernoon, and was naturally surprised that any suspicion had been caused by his being away on a leave of absence. He expects to be called before the Prison Board Investi-gating Committee today." A valuable aid to those searching for Fitz-simmons has been secured in the United States Secret Servie. At Joseph Horne's the talk was of the tenor that business was greater than at this time last year, but that it was regarded as a mat-ter of course. He said they were doing more business, but had expected to do more and had enlarged quarters in anticipation so as to be able to handle more trade. W. M. Laird said he had done less whole-said the said the has not regarded it as a year for forcing trade. He said it was an easy matter to sell goods, but his language intimated that he did not consider it the best policy at all times, evidently having in view the conditions noted in the preface. He reported trade in the retail line good, and said the Exposition made it more active than it would otherwise be. At Rosenbaum & Co.'s business was re-ported good, but it was stated that they had not yet noted any expectional effect of con-sequence, and did not expect it until later. They said the extension of time of the Expo-sition would make the rush later in the sea-son, many farmers being yet engaged in caring for their erops. BEIGHTENS UP A DULL MONTH.

BRIGHTENS UP A DULL MONTH. Mr. Austin, of Hugus & Hacke, said the Exposition was a great thing for Pittsburg business, as it came in September, the dull-est month in the year. He regarded it as very vitalizing so far as their establishment is concerned. He further stated that much of the paralysis felt of late had been caused by importers flooding the market with all kinds of goods affected by the McKinley tariff law. Credits had extended, and not only had people been induced to buy beyond the requirements of trade, but a further effect was the burdening of the money mar-ket. Mr. Austin said they have a good trade, and it was all cash or its equivalent. Mr. Biber, of Biber & Easton, reported business very satisfactory with his firm, and said that the exposition had brought many new faces.

PORTIERES.

The estimated revenues for 1801.42 were $20, 107.50, but up to September 1 the receipts have been $59,431.71, a much inrger sum than was expected, but all of it from regu-lar sources. The revenue anticipated to February 25, 182, the end of the fixed year, is $16.405, which will make total receipts of the year amount to $1,011,076.71. The appropriations for the year were $1,366.003, of which $677,004 25 has been ex-pended, leaving $159,883.75 unexpended, but appropriated. From this must be taken $50, 000 of appropriation No. 18, a bond finid, which is not needed, while $33,915 49 must be added for repaying Federai and Rebecca streets, and $5,000 for sums due contractors. This makes a net estimated expenditure yet to be made of $479,814.24. There is now in the treasury $470,514 69. This, with the $116,405 to come in, gives $357,009.06 at the call 116.495 to come in, gives $587,009 08 at the cal if the city, and leaves over $100,000 that is not appropriated for any particular purpose

ALL THE ORDINANCES SENT BACK.

At this juncture the street railway ordi nances were presented by Mr. Kennedy, though he recommended that they all be referred back until the question of indebted ness is settled. It was settled after ness is sottled. If was settled after a lengthy debate, in which personalities were used, that no netion be taken. #### Secret of the Rapid Increase in the Value of Lands.

The sites upon which Birmingham, Ala., Roanoke, Va., and many of the large Mo-nongahela river manufacturing towns are ocated were a few years ago ordinary farm ands. The establishment of great factories at these points caused a quick change. Va cant lands were transformed into busy towns, in which a single lot is now worth more than several acres a short time ago, Blaine is destined to make a record equal to; any of them. The great safe works under construction there guarantees rapid progress for the new town.
