INTERESTING SERMON ON DREAMS

Dr. Sutherland on the Folly of Sneering at Leaders of Men.

OTHER SEPTEMBER SERMON TOPICS

The corner stone of the new St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, corner of Main and Butler streets, was laid vesterday afternoon in the presence of 5,000 people. The ceremonies, conducted according to the Masonic ritual by members of McCandless Lodge, F. and A. M., were solemn and impressive in the extreme, as the members of the ancient order, with badges and regalia sparkling in the sunshine, marched slowly | DETECTIVES CHARGED WITH BEING upon the platform which had been laid on the foundation and formed a hollow square Rev. W. N. Webb, rector of the church and also a Mason, stood in the center attired in priestly robes and Masonic insignia. and intoned the first part of the prescribed form

James W. Brown, acting Right Worship ful Grand Master of Pennslyvania and Deputy for this district, laid the stone. Other members of McCandless Lodge and invited members from other lodges, fliciated in the Masonie ritual; Right Worshipful Grand Secretary Lockhart read the list of articles deposited in the box and Colonel Hudson, Grand Persivant, made the proclamation to the West, South and East that the cornerstone of the church had been Inid by J. W. Brown, Acting Right Worshipful Grand Master of Pennsylvania;

At the conclusion of the Masonic ceremony the religious exercises were begun. Rev. J. C. White, D. D., rector of St. An-drew's Church, Ninth street, made an interesting address and gave a history of the church and enumerated many of the good works it had undertaken and accomplished. The box of the cornerstone contained a number of coins of the United States, the names of the Building Committee, builder, architect and rector, the names of the memers of McCandless Lodge, and copies of Pittsburg Sunday papers. The Buildi Committee consists of Dr. Macfarlane The Building H. Sawrer, C. R. Miller; a rehitect, William Kaufman; builder, Francis Tinker. The cost of the church will be $25,000, and it is expected that it will be finished April 1,

THE FOLLY OF SNEERING

At the World's Great Leaders Shown Up by Dr. Sutherland Last Evening.

Rev. Dr. Sutherland, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Inst night preached on "The Folly and Danger of Sneering at the World's Great Leaders." His text was taken from Numbers xii., 2: "Hath the Lord indeed spoken only by Moses? Hath He not spoken also by us?" After refer-ring to the occasion of this remark, he said among other things: "In itself there was nothing wrong in this question. The sin lay in the tone and spirit in which it wits asked. It was asked with a contemptous sneer, and the sneer was rewarded with throw. The text is a good illustration of the difference which the tone and speech may give to the same works. What Miriam here vas only stating a fact, but it was stating it in a mean, envious spirit. It is a easy thing, and, alas! a very common hing, to call in question the work of an-ther. paper publishes in many columns a story, in the form of an affidavit, from Langdon W. Moore, the once notorious bank robber and general crook, in which he gives in detail the history of the crimes he has committed, and in which he was concerned in New England from 1867 to 1880, barring a senson of six years spent in enforced retirement in the Maine State Prison. The most startling part of the revelations is found in charges made by Moore against certain detectives, who, he alleges "stood in" with the criminals in many of their jobs. One in particular he singles out, George W. Chapman, of Boston, who, Moore says, was active in putting up schemes and "steering" crooks upon "good grafts," sharing in their ill-gotien gains. Moore says: "If I wished I might tell of deeds all over the United States, and my story would be an interesting one. "I believe I could open the eyes of a good many persons, especially those who have the utmost faith in the men they appoint to guard their lives and their property. I do not mean all of them. I refer particularly to three or four black sheep, which invariably get into the flock of detectives on every big city's force. Men who aid and profit b erring ones white apparently doing their best to ferret them out." Moore had already, it is said, told this story to Superintendent Small, of the Bos-ton police, expecting that his charges would ton police, expecting that his charges would be investigated; but nothing coming of it, he concluded to give them to a newspaper man. Chapman, though not regularly on the force, still holds a detective ticense from the city, and is an ex-Sergeant of Po-lice. He was seen last night by a reporter, and denounced Moore's stories as far as they relate to his alleged connection with the crimes therein related as groundless false-hoods. The police authorities say that no charges have been filed against Chapman by Moore.

BIG DRY GOODS FAILURE.

One of New York's Four Hundred Con cludes to make an Assignment.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.-[Special.]-James Harriman made an assignment to-day. Mr. Harriman was for many years a wellknown dry goods importer, and is classed among the "400" in society. In former years he was connected with the Bank of Commerce, but after marrying withdrew from active business matters. About 13 years ago, on the death of his brother Charles, who was a partner in the firm of A. Person, Harriman & Co., dry goods importers James Harriman went into the firm as a partner. They continued business and were succeeded by Harrison, MacLean & Co. The capital of the new firm, it is said, was to be $500,000, of which Mr. Harriman

At s is raised quite hard. "At 4:30 the sky was again clear and Melbourne appeared and promised Gov-ernor Baxter, who was present, another rain at 6 o'clock. The Governor thought it about time to call him off for fear of a deluge. He informed Mr. Melbourne that he and his associates were thoroughly esting the jail yesterday, assisted by a choir from he and his associates were thoroughly satisfied with the experiments." A SECURE FEELING

Guaranteed to Christians Who Know That All Works for Good.

Rev. Robert Hudson supplied the pulpit f Trinity P. E. Church vesterday, He took for his evening text, the 8th chapter of Ronmans, 28th verse: "And we know into the cellar. He could not find the door all things work together for the good of leading to the store above. He was drawn them that love God." He said: "This up. Misfortunes fall on the believers as well as the unbelievers. The Christian man who wishes to avoid early calamities must use the antidotes that experience have discered, otherwise he cannot escape the danger any more than the godless man. In maswer to that, the distinction must be made between temporal security and eternal security. The Bible nowhere confounds temporal with the eternal. Present comfort and eternal bliss are never formed to vether.

A SERMON ON DREAMS.

An Allegheny Pastor's Elimination of Facts From Fancies.

Rev. J. T. Satchell, pastor of the North Avenue M. E. Church, chose for his subloct last night; "Dreams," After reading from the second book of Daniel the story of Nelorchadnezzar's dream, and recounting the sidendars of Babylon, he said: "The words of the text bring us into the presence of this king under very peculiar ettennistances. Surrounded by and believing in the occult and the mystic interpretations of his estrologers and sorcerers, he called one them to explain to him the meaning of and, but the magicians, counselors and wise men reluctantly and tremblingly iduitted their importance.
