BOYCOTTED TO DEATH.

One Who Incurred the Hate of a Community Commits Suicide.

HIS BARBER WOULDN'T SHAVE HIM

So He Bought His Own Razor and Gashed

His Throat Open With It. MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

STRUCTAL TRUNCHAM TO THE DISPATOR ! ZANESVILLE Sept. 21 -McConnellsville. the county seat of Morgan county, was the scene of a sensational suicide at noon today. John E. Thomas, aged 84 years, cut his throat with a razor, purchased for that purpose, and died this evening. A year ago Mr. Thomas retired from his farm and purchased a residence fronting on the ublic parade grounds, where for 20 years the McConnellsville boys have indulged in the national game unmolested. Mr. Thomas was not accustomed to the noise attending an exciting game, and his residence and property suffered considerable damage from foul tips. The annovance led to an injunction which put a stop to ball-playing. This aroused public indignaon to such a pitch that life has been a burden to him. He has been boy-cotted by old friends and hooted by the young people. This morning he went down street to get shaved and so intense has the feeling become that the burber refused to accommodate him. He then purchased : razor, went home and cut his throat from ear to ear, severing his windpipe. He was the wealthiest resident of the county.

EX-CONGRESSMAN SCOTT'S MILLIONS. Much Auxiety Over His Will, Which Was to attend the funeral. Ex-President Cleve-land, a close friend of Scott; Governor Pat-tison and a number of distinguished railway magnates have signified their intention of being present at the funeral.

There is great public interest expressed in the will of the deceased millionaire, which document is said to lie in the vaults of the Second National bank. It is known that will making was one of the principal labors second National bank. It is known that will-making was one of the principal labors of the latter years of the deceased, who evidently believed he was liable to die at any time. It is said that every Supreme court decision on contested wills caused him to make changes in his last testament as fast as they occurred. The most eminent legal counsel in the county was often consulted inpon the document, which is probably very elaborate in disposing of his odd $20,000,000. One peculiarity of Mr. Scott's bequests was that they were never given to any public library, or to the founding of any institution which would live after him; but, on the coutrary, he devoted his magnificent on the coutrary, he devoted his magnificent gifts to cancelling church debts, endowing cophan asylums, or assisting needy individ-unis.

ANOTHER REQUEST DAY.

n Excellent Musical Programme at the Exposition-A Number of Theater Parties Present-To-Day for Old Erin-Some

The Firemen's Tournament to be held at Atlantic City on September 29 and 30, and October 1 and 2, promises to be one of the most interesting events of its kind ever held in this country. Invitations have been sent to all the permanent fire companies of the East to be present and enter the lists, and the number of entries already registered assures a brilliant success. The programme of events is a most elaborate one, and includes everything that pertains to the fireman's art. Hose races, team races, steamer trials, prize drills and other firemen's contests, together with concerts, torchlight procession, and a grand parade. Besides this, the arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors are very elaborate. Yesterday was "request day" at the Exposition. The musical programme was made up in accordance with requests from the audience, and the result was a variety of works such as very few directors would think of arranging in one evening It was an entire success, however, as was proved by the frequent applause and the disposition on the part of the listeners to encore everything. In the evening the most notable selection was the "Inflammatus," played on the cornet by Mr. Walter Rogers. There were a number of theater parties last night, most of them, it was understood, expressly to hear this beautiful

For the better accommodation of visitors and contestants the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Atcomposition.

To-day the Exposition will be carried on for the express benefit of the Irish. There will be a distinctively Irish musical programme, and the glorious songs of Tom Moore and other Irish minstrels will be rendered by Colonel Cappa's full orchestra. There will doubtless be a very large attendance, for the Irish are noted for their patriotism, and they never lose an opportunity to do honor to the land of their birth. lantic City from all principal stations on its system at a single fare for the round trip. The tickets will be sold September 25 to October 2, valid for return until October 6, 1891. The facilities presented by the Penn-sylvania Railroad for reaching Atlantic City quickly and comfortably are too well known to need comment.

We want every gentleman within a hundred miles of this city to see our grand exhibit of Fine Fall Suits. You'll not find its equal in the State. This is tall talk, but unlike much talk of this kind indulged in by some of our competitors it is amply covered by facts. We've made, in days that are gone, some splendid showings of this class of goods, but none that will quite come up to the present one. The stock is larger by at least $100,000 than ever before. and we know it to be the largest, finest and best selected stock of this class of goods that this city will hold this fall.

In Business Suits we are showing a daisy line, by which we mean several thousand suits, at prices between $8 and $14. In the better grades at $16, $18, $20 and $22 we have no competition outside of custom work, and then it has to be custom work infinitely better than much of the trash made-to-measure garments for which big prices are demanded. We would like you to take a look at some of the suits of which we are speaking and tell us how you think they could be improved in either fit or finish. We think we've got it down very fine, but we're open to conviction. Are you?
