Judge Stowe Decides He Can Refuse to Pay a Bill if He Sees Fit.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR MR. GRIER.

The Grand Jury Gives Evidence of Doing Considerable Work.

TESTERDAY'S WORK OF COUNTY COURTS

Judge Stowe yesterday handed down an opinion in the case of Clerk of Courts Mc-Gunnegle against Controller Grier. The case was an application for a writ of mandamus to compel the Controller to grant a church was crowded. warrant for a month's salary for Alexander McGunnegle, a clerk in the office of the Clerk of Courts. The Controller refused to ssue the warrant because the Clerk, be claimed, had not worked during the month. Judge Stowe, in his opinion, decided that under the law the Controller could refuse to pay the bill if he saw fit to do so; it was within his discretionary power. If the claimant saw fit he had a remedy by an ordinary action at law. The petition for a

Work of the Monongahela Presbytery of the U. P. Church. The regular quarterly meeting of the Monongahela Presbytery was held in the thirty cents. Shadyside United Presbyterian Church yesterday. A motion to have the preachers ex change pulpits and try to raise money was laid on the table. In the afternoon a call was extended to the Synod to hold its regular meeting, which occurs on the third Tuesday in October, to meet in the Sixth Church. It had previously been definitely settled that the Synod was to meet in Pittsburg, out no church had been selected. Rev. M. Samson received and accepted a call from the Homestead church. Rev. Mr. Samson will be installed next month.

The evening session was devoted to the installation of Rev. J. K. McClurkin as pastor of the Shadyside church. The services were under the charge of Moderator Elliott. Rev. A. P. Duncan preached the sermon. Bev. R. M. Russell charged the pastor and Rev. Dr. Reid charged the people. The church was crowded. It had previously been definitely settled
