CAPT. BINGHAM ON THE GERMAN ARMY.

He Compliments It on Its Marching Abilities-Speak Highly of the Emperor.

[COPYRIGHT, 1881, BY THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATED

BERLIN, Sept. 26.-The Government finds it necessary to explain the policy of permitting German banks to take export Russian loans. The unanimity of the press protests against Germans taking these loans has convinced Chancellor Von Caprivi that a grave political error will be committed if a denial is not made of the rumors circulated by the syndicate interested in the matter that the loans have the tacit sanction of the German Government.

All was held to be incumbent on the question that was heard everywhere, from press and bourse, and the public whether he new departure in German financial policies toward Russia implies the annullment of the prohibition against the Reichsbank lending money on Russian securities. The crusade of the semi-official press against these scentities has been long and persistent. The question was naturally asked what land occurred to cause the Government to reverse the policy that it had formerly fol-

The North German Gazette, the official ocean, publishes a communication to-night. in which it denies that the Government is in any wise departing from the path of political finance which it has trodden. The with further states that no modification is intended in the prohibition against the leichsbank, loaning money on Russian secur-ics. More detailed explanations are given ly the Hamburg Correspondence. This paper absolutely denies that the Government has

The Mendelssohns made confidential in-quiries from the Foreign Office as to the Government's attitude towards the issue. the Foreign Office informed the bankers that the present political situation afforded no occasion for the Government to interfere any form. The Chancellor did not design the reply to convey the slightest idea of proval. The answer was prompted solely the view that the Government was not bound from considerations of foreign policy to take up a decided advisory position for or against German capitalists who took part in a foreign loan every time one is issued. BANKERS HAVE GOOD JUDGMENT.

Bankers, the reply declared, are in most cases perfectly capable of acting upon their own judgment. This semi-official statement wants frankness in suppressing the fact that terman houses before joining the syndicate were led to believe that the foreign office favored the issue of a loan here on political grounds. The public clamor against supplementing the, cash balances of Germany's enemy has obliged Von Caprivi to drop his complacency toward the loan. It will not go here. Probably the Government never intended it to succeed.

Although the terms arranged by the syndicate have been signed the rate of the fashe even now is doubtful, but is believed to be about 7234. The installments were arranged to be distributed over a period of x months. The Committee of the Reichsbank held an unusually prolonged meeting to-day and decided not to increase the bank's rate of discount. The American demand for bullion is in the meantime far below what it was expected it would be.

WILLIAM CALLS ON THE CZAR. It is reported that Emperor William, who is now staying at a shooting lodge near Evolutionen, met the train conveying the Czar on his return to Russia from Den-zuntk, and had a short conversation with could have a course of American pork.

The Past to-night, referring to Count Von Waldersee's restoration to Emperial favor, states that the Emperor has nominated him to the command of the Guard de Corps. The appointment will keep Von Waldersee in berlin, and will give him the ear of the imperor, with whom he will have greater influence than ever. In an interview, Captain Bingham, mili-tary attache of the American Legation here, who has just returned from the German military maneuvers, dilated upon the courtesy he had received from the Bayarian-Prussian authorities. Captain Bingham and that he was greatly impressed by the wooderful uniformity of training which was shown by the soldiers. The marching power of the German army, he declared, was al-

COMPLIMENTS THE FIGHTING GERMANS. Speaking of the fighting qualities of the army. Captain Bingham said the main factor in real war, is the marching quality where he lived. Miss Busch was a proof the men, adding: "When you can count on having your foes always on hand at the right moment you can win by force of num-lers." Captain Bingham spoke in the highest terms of praise of Emperor Will-lam's antiring energies in the saddle. His Majesty, he said, took the field at 4 o'clock in the morning and remained until 3 o'clock

Even the Empress, who attended the reviews, remained in the saddle for four hours, although the heat and dust were stifling. She smilingly saluted the troops as they passed, filling the soldiers with the greatest enthusiasm. In conclusion Captain Bingham said he had learned enough of valuable interest to the American army to compensate him for the fortnight's fatigue and hard riding.

SOCIALISTS ACKNOWLEDGE FAILURE. The Strike Committee Reports That the

Struggle Will Be Revived. BEHLIN, Sept. 26.-The report of the Sogialist Strike Committee discloses the entire failure of the organizations which were being arranged to bring about strikes in all the trades. There has been an extraordinary eneral exhaustion of the Socialists' funds. Within a year the trades unions have lost half their members, the leading masons' and carpenters' unions, owing partly to inscention, are in a state of collapse sluce the formation of the strike committee 31 strikes have been organized, and in every case the labor party was defeated. The committee complained of a want of oreign support. The committee was prom-ed nothing, but received from America and rance 1,000 marks, and from England 20,-000 marks. The strikers at first got 20 marks weekly, the employers protracted the struggle and the funds dwindled away until they were not sufficient to give the men 6 marks weekly. When this point was cached the men were unable to exist, and were compelled to capitulate. When the strikes were over the masters refused to reemploy many of their old hands. The multiess that they have been defented. They propose, however, that a trades union congress be held in March next to arrange for a revival of the struggle. Emperor Francis Joseph's Trip. VIENNA, Sept. 26.-Emperor Francis Joseph, upon arriving to-day at Prague, was accorded a splendid reception. The Emperor praised the Bohemians for their

RUSSIA DEFENDED.

THIZE WITH HIS PEOPLE,

He Says the Exiles Courted Their Fate by Open Violations of a Known Law-Baron Hirsch's Scheme Runs Against Numerous Difficulties.

LONDON, Sept. 26.-"In Darkest Russia" points out that Baron Hirsch's scheme, if successful, can only provide for about three per cent of the Russian Hebrews. A letter which first appeared in the Anti-Jacobin, which was signed "An Israelite Wanderer," has been republished in the afternoon newspapers, and is attracting considerable attention. It strongly defends Russia, and declares that the laws relating to the Hebrews are by no means so bad as imagined. Referring to the domicile law. this letter says it has never been altered, but has been operated with so little rigor that one-third of the Hebrews reside to-day in governments from which they were excluded a generation ago. This, he says, is a sign of gradual improvement, which is the best to be expected from a semi-civilized country like Russia. Continuing the writer says that 20 200 Hebrays.

a semi-civilized country like Russia. Continuing, the writer says that 20,000 Hebrews reside in St. Petersburg, and that a similar number reside in Moscow.

"Expulsions," he adds, "are entirely due to violations of the law. Ever since Russia opened her cities to Hebrew traders they have been recognized by the guilds of professional men and mechanics. It has been the aim of the Hebrews, who are excluded from that privilege, to obtain a settlement from that privilege, to obtain a settlement in the central provinces. The Guild of Me-chanics' certificates have been forged, fraudulent policies have been printed and a regular trade in them has been prosecuted

"Certificates have also been used long after the original grantee was dead, and thus thousands of Hebrews without means or a trade have settled in Russia, where they had no more right to be than a pauper emigrant has to land in New York. Numbers of mechanics also have forsaken their regular occupation and have taken to ped-filing, thus violating the conditions under which they were allowed to settle. Others left the town where they ought to have re-

"Between 150,000 and 200,000 Hebrews now reside in Russia in open violation of the law on fraudulent permit, or by bribing officials. Being undisturbed they have be-come more confident and have invested money in houses, which is against the law, and then when orders are left to enforce the domicile law the expulsions are often ac-companied by brutality, But every Hebrew so expelled courted his own fate. They all know what they are doing when they pass the vale of their domicile.

"Poor Hebrews suffer the most from the "Poor Hebrews suffer the most from the rigor of the law, being, as peddlers, porters and such like, at the mercy of every petty official, by whom they are hounded from pillar to post. If Baron Hirsch's scheme includes these poor Hebrews it takes up the most unpromising material it is possible to deal with. They have neither physique for field work nor resource of any kind. They and their families must be supported from and their families must be supported from the moment they leave Russia until an indefinite date when they can maintain themselves unaided. The Government will not allow the capable, sturdy better class, who are all military reservists, to leave the Pretty Emma Busch Is Dead, and Her Murderer Soon Will Be Also.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 .- [Special.]-Pretty Emma Busch, of Newark, is dead, poisoned in the dark, late on Thursday night by her lover, Ernst Lehmann, who took some of the poison himself, and is at St. Michael's Hospital praying for death to relieve him from his agony. Lehmann is 18 years old, nounced brunette, also 18. She was the daughter of Frederick Busch, a blacksmith. Two weeks ago Lehmann had been devoted to her; visited her, and she told him she did not care for him and wanted him to cease his attentions.

He went again on Thursday night and they sat on the stoop together. Again he pleaded with her and again she repulsed him. He proposed a parting drink and brought out a bottle of soda water. He dropped something in both glasses when her back was turned. The girl was found alone later in a terrible condition. He was captered and is now in the homited. CATCHING A POACHER

The American Cruiser Mohican Brings Her to With a Shot.

AN ENGLISH WARSHIP LOOKS ON.

Vankee Vessels Forced to Tie Up Because of Having No Coal.

SUPPLIED BY A BRITISH COMMANDER

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 26 .- The peacher Otto was captured on Monday, September 21, by United States steamer Mohican, in sight of an English cruiser. She was in company of another sealer-Oscar and Hattie. After an exciting chase of an hour and a quarter a blank charge fired by the Mohican brought her to. She was boarded by a boat from the Mohican with two officers, who examined the papers and indorsed the registry, which was found irregular, having the master's and owner's names incorrect. Upon Ensign Beale reporting the same to Captain Cotton, the latter seized the Otto and put a prize crew, with Ensign McDonald in charge, on board, with orders to take the Otto to Ounalaska to be turned over and dealt with by the British authorities.

The Mohican at once went in pursuit of the Oscar and Hattie, now ten miles off, but she was saved by the darkness, and ran into land when within two miles of her. The captain of the Otto had never been officially warned but she was saved by Captain Co. warned, but she was seized by Captain Cot-ton. of the Mohican, at the request of Com-mander Turner, of H. M. S. Nymphe, the senior British naval officer, who informed Captain Cotton, as senior American officer, that before the Nymphe left Esquimault he (Turner) had requested the Collector of Customs of Victoria to warn the Otto, then lying in port and about the sail to Bering.

A CODFISHING EXCUSE. Commander Turner said he considered her Commander Turner said he considered her a warned vessel and requested Captain Cotton, as senior American officer, to have her seized wherever seen. Captain Reilly, the master of the Otto, says he was never warned by Collector Milne, of Victoria, and Lieutenant Cately, commanding H. M. S. Pheasant, who took the order to Collector Milne, says the latter told him the Otto was going codfishing, not sealing. In spite of this the Otto's clearance papers are for Bering Sea for hunting, signed by Milne. He must either have been grossly careless. He must either have been grossly careless or wilfully deceived Lieutenant Cately. On the morning of September 2 the Mo-hican overtook the Otto and towed her into Ounalaska, where she was handed over to Lieutenant Cately, of the Pheasant, as the only British officer present. He took all her papers away and gave her orders to proceed to Victoria to be dealt with. Captain Cotton, the senior officer in command, who arranged the plan of the cruise against the seal poachers, has displayed marked executive ability throughout, as his work shows. One hundred and sixteen vessels were reported to him as having cleared for the sea. Or these 89 were known to be sealers, 53 having sailed from British Columbia, an increase of 20 from thence over last year. Of the 89, 74 have been warned, two reported lost and six seized, leaving only 20 unaccounted for.

NO COAL FOR YANKEE SHIPS. On the evening of September 15 steamer St. Paul arrived at Ounalaska with orders St. Paul arrived at Ounalaska with orders to Captain Cotton to dispatch the Marion at once to China and the Alert as soon as possible: Captain Cotton immediately coaled the Marion from the Thetis, taking 50 tons, and she left for China via Honolulu on the 7th. He then applied to the North American Commercial Company for coal for the Alert, they having 200 tons ashore at the time, but G. R. Tingle, agent for the company, who are the present lessees of the Seal Islands, had given instructions that none was to be supplied to the American men of war, so there was nothing for Captain Cotton to do but wait the arrival of the Nymphe and get permission from Com-Nymphe and get permission from Com-mander Turner to coal from the British sup-ply on board the Costa Rica.

In the meantime all the American men-ofwar were tied up at Ounalaska waiting coal. On the 8th the Nymphe arrived, and Commander Jurner at once gave Captain Cotton permission. The Alert immediately coaled; taking 50 tons, and left for China on the 10th. H. M. S. Porpoise left for China on August 26, and the Pheasant for Victoria on September 14. At present only the Marion, Thetis, Nymphe and cutter Rush are in the sea. Captain Cotton had to keep the Mo-hican and Thetis in harbor together so as to be able in case of emergency to get enough coal together to make one vessel at all events
