

BOSTON IN THE LEAD, Anson's Men at Last Take the Second Place in the Tight Race for the Pennant.

PITTSBURGH LOSES ONCE MORE. The Score Was Close Enough, but the Small Balance Was Decidedly on the Wrong Side of the Ledger.

RESULTS OF THE OTHER LEAGUE GAMES.

Table with columns for League, Team, and Score. Includes games from Brooklyn, Philadelphia, and Boston.

INTO FIRST PLACE. The Boston Get Two More Games From the Giants and Step Up.

Boston, Sept. 30.—The Boston wound up their season at Eastern Park, Brooklyn, in the most approved style to-day, defeating the Philadelphia in two games. Attendance, 861. First game:

Table with columns for Brooklyn, Philadelphia, and Score. Includes game details and statistics.

PLAYED A GOOD GAME. The visiting team played a good game, and for once Ebbetts pitched one of his "old time games" here.

The visiting team played a good game, and for once Ebbetts pitched one of his "old time games" here. He was in first-class form, and there was no getting over the fact that he was doing his best to win his last game in Pittsburgh this year.

TO-DAY'S LEAGUE SCHEDULE.

Table listing league games for the day, including Philadelphia, Boston, and Cleveland.

ASSOCIATION GAMES.

Table listing association games, including Philadelphia, Boston, and Cleveland.

TO-DAY'S ASSOCIATION SCHEDULE.

Table listing association game schedules for the day.

HART MAKES A KICK.

The Chicago Club's President Appeals to President Young of League.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—President Hart of the Chicago Baseball Club, to-day telegraphed President Young of the League, asking him to ascertain whether or not the necessary consent of six of the clubs had been secured for the playing of two games at Boston.

LOCAL CLUB AFFAIRS.

Manager McGuinnane Talks About the Prospect of Mr. Hart, of Chicago.

The local ball team will leave for Cleveland to-day morning, when they will play the first game of the season. Galvin will not accompany the team, owing to his thumb being so badly injured.

WILL BE A GREAT ONE. A Race Almost Certain to Take Place Between Smith and Farrell.

MONEY UP FOR THE PITTSBURGER. The Results of the Leading Turf Events on the Eastern and Western Tracks.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY.

Without doubt it will be interesting to the sporting public of Pittsburgh, and also of the entire country, to know that there is a strong probability of a foot race in this city between "Honest" George Smith and Steve Farrell.

THE ABOVE DEFINITE DECLARATION MEANS THAT A RACE WILL TAKE PLACE BETWEEN THE TWO FAMOUS PEDDLERS.

For some time past parties have been talking extensively about Farrell's superiority to Smith in a race of 250 or 300 yards, and now Farrell has found a party who is willing to back the entire gate receipts.

CHICAGO TEAMS TO COME.

It is almost a settled fact that the leading football teams of Chicago will be in this city during the latter part of the season.

NEW YORK. Sept. 30.—Following are the entries for the Jerome Park races to-morrow:

NEW YORK, five furlongs—Aurora, Major Domo, Tormentor, Chesapeake, 12; Helen Rose, Rosa Lee, Corcoran, 11; Retraction, 10; Louisiana, 9.

LIETING COUNTY FAIR RACES.

NEWARK, Sept. 30.—The second day of the Lieting County Fair was well attended. The racing was the main feature.

RACING AT LONDON.

CINCEPAC, Sept. 30.—Following were the results of the races at London to-day: First race, mile and 20 yards—Innocence first, Grandia second, Tenacity third. Time, 1:18.

WINNERS AT GRAVESSEND.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, Sept. 30.—The results of the races here to-day were as follows: First race, six furlongs—Kingston first, Beckon second, Laughing Water third. Time, 1:15.

MATCHED AT LAST.

Albert and Rowell Sign Articles for a Six-Day Pedestrian Contest.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—James A. Albert, of Atlantic City, N. J., and Charles Rowell, of London, England, enter upon a six days' race this winter, if contract goes for anything. Dr. J. A. Dougherty says he has a two years' contract with Rowell, signed for him to-day. Here are the articles of agreement between J. A. Dougherty, of the first party, and James Albert, of the second party.

THE NEWS FROM BELOW.

WHEELING—River 1 foot 6 inches and stationary. Clear and cool.

ALLEGANY—River 10 inches and falling. Clear and pleasant.

MORGANTOWN—River 4 feet and stationary. Clear. Temperature 42 to 53. S. W. wind. Rain below low water mark. Clear and cool.

THE NEWS FROM ABOVE. Gossip Along the Wharves. NAVIGATION is still entirely suspended between here and Cheatland. Below the dam there is but 1 foot of water and no immediate prospect for more.

ALLEGANY—River 10 inches and falling. Clear and cool.

MORGANTOWN—River 4 feet and stationary. Clear. Temperature 42 to 53. S. W. wind. Rain below low water mark. Clear and cool.

THE NEWS FROM ABOVE. Gossip Along the Wharves. NAVIGATION is still entirely suspended between here and Cheatland. Below the dam there is but 1 foot of water and no immediate prospect for more.

ALLEGANY—River 10 inches and falling. Clear and cool.

A YEAR OF PROGRESS. Outlined by Presiding Elders at the Pittsburgh Conference.

Outlined by Presiding Elders at the Pittsburgh Conference. A Dangerous Female Moonshiner Caught by U. S. Marshals.

FACTS ABOUT LOCAL CHURCHES.

A Dangerous Female Moonshiner Caught by U. S. Marshals. The names of the members of the church are as follows: Rev. M. M. Sweeney, Rev. M. D. Lichliter, Rev. J. J. Hornor, etc.

MINOR NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES.

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 30.—The town abounds with black-coated, white-necked gentlemen, the secret of their presence being the fact that the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its sixty-eighth annual session here.

AT 9 o'clock this morning the presiding officer, Bishop C. H. Fowler, of San Francisco, took the chair. Rev. N. P. Kelly was re-elected Secretary. Rev. M. M. Sweeney, the Statistical Secretary for several years past, was nominated for reelection, but declined the honor and nominated his first assistant, Rev. M. D. Lichliter, who was elected. The Conference Treasurer, Rev. D. J. Hornor, was re-elected.

STRIKERS RECEIVE THEIR WAGES.

The Arrival of the Pay Car Cuts Short a Very Serious Railroad Strike. NEW CASTLE, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The pay car of the Pittsburgh and Western Railroad arrived at New Castle this evening, and the striking employees of the Western division of the road are receiving the pay for the month of August.

A GO FOR GORMAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—The Pacific Club has succeeded in catching Harry Martin, the Australian middle weight. The box for the purpose of $10,000, which was to be used for the purpose of the latter part of October. The men are to weigh in at 150 pounds.

IN FAVOR OF WOMEN DELEGATES.

In the vote on the admission of women to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the vote was 745 in favor and 502 against. Reference was made to the fact that the women delegates were not present at the original conference, and Dr. S. H. Nesbit, pastor at New Brighton.

A HUGE REAL ESTATE CLAIM.

The Title of $3,000,000 Worth of East Liverpool Property to be Contested. EAST LIVERPOOL, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The property holders of this place are all greatly interested in a suit brought to-day, which involves the ownership of the best and most crowded portion of the city, the title of which is worth $3,000,000.

FROM THE PITTSBURGH DISTRICT.

The Presiding Elder of the Pittsburgh district, Dr. J. W. Miles, reported that during the year a new church had been organized in the city of Erie, Pa., and that handsome buildings were being erected at Homewood, Ben Venue, South street, Haven and Wilkinsburg. Repairs had been made in the churches at Bicknell street, St. Paul, Ames and Carson street. Reference was made to the destruction of Christ's Church by fire, and that this congregation would eventually put up two handsome new churches.

THE WEATHER.

For Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. Warmer, Fair, Easterly to Southerly Winds.

COMPARATIVE TEMPERATURE.

Table comparing temperatures for Sept. 29, 1921 and Sept. 30, 1921.

TEMPERATURE AND RAINFALL.

Table showing temperature and rainfall for Sept. 29, 1921 and Sept. 30, 1921.

RIVER NEWS AND NOTES.

LOUISVILLE ITEMS—The Stage of Water and the Movements of Boats. LOUISVILLE, Sept. 30.—Weather clear. River falling with 1 foot in the fall, 1 foot 2 inches in the canal and 5 feet 8 inches below. The New Era, for the low line of the river, left for that place last night.

THE NEWS FROM BELOW. WHEELING—River 1 foot 6 inches and stationary. Clear and cool.

ALLEGANY—River 10 inches and falling. Clear and pleasant.

MORGANTOWN—River 4 feet and stationary. Clear. Temperature 42 to 53. S. W. wind. Rain below low water mark. Clear and cool.

THE NEWS FROM ABOVE. Gossip Along the Wharves. NAVIGATION is still entirely suspended between here and Cheatland. Below the dam there is but 1 foot of water and no immediate prospect for more.

ALLEGANY—River 10 inches and falling. Clear and cool.

MORGANTOWN—River 4 feet and stationary. Clear. Temperature 42 to 53. S. W. wind. Rain below low water mark. Clear and cool.

A FEMININE OUTLAW CAPTURED. She Was One of the Most Dangerous of West Virginia Moonshiners.

PARKERSBURG, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Lucy McClure, aged 24, a handsome young woman of excellent parentage but herself somewhat romantic and daring, after eluding the United States deputy marshals for over a year, has at last been captured, and this morning was placed in the Kanawha county jail.

A TERRIFIC BOILER EXPLOSION.

FREDON, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—A boiler exploded at the Freedom Oil Company Works this afternoon, injuring the engineer, Peter Klein, of St. Clair, and completely wrecking the boiler house. The boiler was inspected last week by the inspector, who said that 90 pounds of steam could be carried. Klein, the engineer, was killed by the explosion.

FUNERAL OF KEMBLE.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES HELD OVER THE DEAD FINANCIER. Touching Eulogies by the Officiating Clergyman—A Large Number of Prominent People in Attendance at the Last Rites—Old Associates as Pall Bearers.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The funeral of William H. Kemble to-day stood prominently among the post mortem eulogies of Philadelphia in the matter of impressive attendance. The gathering included the most honored representatives of the circles of finance, commerce and politics. The services at the Kemble country seat, "Maryland," in the morning were attended by a multitude of people.

UNTRIMMED HATS.

No so interesting a sight as the trimmed hats, are they? Some day they'll all be trimmed, too. We can show you the very latest on felt hats, or in buckram or wire shams. You can have them trimmed to suit yourself.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

New millinery arriving every day. A constantly changing and shifting panorama of all that is newest and best in Fall and winter millinery. If you want to see the newest designs, from foreign and home millinery artists pay this attention to our millinery.

RIBBONS AND TRIMMINGS.

Words cannot convey any idea of our immense variety of plain and fancy ribbons, trimmings, laces, veils, feathers, etc., etc. In fact, everything you would expect to find in a perfectly complete Millinery Department.

COAT DEPARTMENT.

We try to make hay while the sun shines. During this warm spell we offer all our made-to-order coats, frocks, and Capes at a reduction of from 25 to 50 per cent. Not quite heavy enough for winter, but will do nicely until the middle of November.

ASTRACHAN TRIMMED REEFER, $8.75.

This is the cheapest fur-trimmed Reever in the two States. Wear a Kabo Corset, etc. Real Astrachan trimmed collar and deeproll. Your choice of two colors, black or tan. Frog fastenings. The price is only $8.75.

FUR-TRIMMED REEFER, $12.50.

Here is another Reever that is special value at the price. Fur or beaver mixture, reversible collar, long sleeves, with seams. Wool seal collar and long roll. A really stylish and jaunty Reever. These are only two items. This department is crowded with some wonderful bargains in Jackets, Wraps, Capes, Newmarkets, etc.

CORSET DEPARTMENT.

Have you ever reflected how much depends on the corset you wear? Health, comfort, and beauty. All these qualities are helped by good corsets. They are all destroyed by bad ones. Here are two makes of corsets that will please you.

TURPENTINE MARKETS.

WILMINGTON—Spirits of turpentine steady at 34 1/2c. Rosin steady; strained, 15 0/10c; gum, 11 1/2c. Tar, 11 1/2c. Crude turpentine, 11 1/2c. Yellow, 11 1/2c. Virgin, 11 1/2c.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Pres Mullins, a deputy moonshiner, has been captured by Deputy Marshal Cunningham. He has been the leader of a gang of moonshiners who have been operating in the mountains for the last 15 years, and is known as a very desperate character.

DEATHS ON THE RAILROAD TRACK.

PARKERSBURG, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—R. E. Wayman, a young man from Cameron, was killed last night on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad near Burton, and John O'Neil, while walking near the same place, was also killed. Wayman's body was badly mutilated, and his leg was driven into a switch frog so that it had to be pried out.

TEXAS SPLENDED FEVER EPIDEMIC.

HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The disease supposed to be Texas splenic fever that appeared among the cattle in this county about two weeks ago, is spreading rapidly and threatens to become epidemic. The State Board of Agriculture, through their veterinary surgeon, Francis Budge, is making an investigation.

NO DIVIDEND ON MISSOURI PACIFIC.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The directors of the Missouri Pacific Railway Company at their meeting to-day formally passed the Missouri Pacific dividend.

KILLED AT THE CARNEGIE FURNACE.

BRADDOCK, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—William...

THE PEOPLE'S STORE. FIFTH AVE., Pittsburgh.

You pay a visit. The visit will pay you.

From Shoes to Millinery, Underwear to Jackets, Every Conceivable Description.

Ladies' Wearing Apparel. Money-Saving Prices.

SHOE DEPARTMENT.

Our stock of shoes for Fall and Winter wear is now full and complete. For excellence of quality and lowness of price we invite comparison with any shoe house in Pennsylvania. Ladies', Misses', Children's, Boys' and Youths' Shoes only.

Cork-Sole Shoes.

We are sole agents in Pittsburgh for the patent, hand-turn, cork-sole shoes. Stylish, durable, comfortable and healthful. No catching cold from damp feet. The very shoe for autumn.

School Shoes.

An immense stock of school shoes for Misses, Children, Boys and Youths. All widths, sizes and kinds. Shoes that stand hard wear. That's the sort of shoe you want for school wear. That's the kind we're prepared to sell you.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

New millinery arriving every day. A constantly changing and shifting panorama of all that is newest and best in Fall and winter millinery. If you want to see the newest designs, from foreign and home millinery artists pay this attention to our millinery.

RIBBONS AND TRIMMINGS.

Words cannot convey any idea of our immense variety of plain and fancy ribbons, trimmings, laces, veils, feathers, etc., etc. In fact, everything you would expect to find in a perfectly complete Millinery Department.

COAT DEPARTMENT.

We try to make hay while the sun shines. During this warm spell we offer all our made-to-order coats, frocks, and Capes at a reduction of from 25 to 50 per cent. Not quite heavy enough for winter, but will do nicely until the middle of November.

ASTRACHAN TRIMMED REEFER, $8.75.

This is the cheapest fur-trimmed Reever in the two States. Wear a Kabo Corset, etc. Real Astrachan trimmed collar and deeproll. Your choice of two colors, black or tan. Frog fastenings. The price is only $8.75.

FUR-TRIMMED REEFER, $12.50.

Here is another Reever that is special value at the price. Fur or beaver mixture, reversible collar, long sleeves, with seams. Wool seal collar and long roll. A really stylish and jaunty Reever. These are only two items. This department is crowded with some wonderful bargains in Jackets, Wraps, Capes, Newmarkets, etc.

CORSET DEPARTMENT.

Have you ever reflected how much depends on the corset you wear? Health, comfort, and beauty. All these qualities are helped by good corsets. They are all destroyed by bad ones. Here are two makes of corsets that will please you.

TURPENTINE MARKETS.

WILMINGTON—Spirits of turpentine steady at 34 1/2c. Rosin steady; strained, 15 0/10c; gum, 11 1/2c. Tar, 11 1/2c. Crude turpentine, 11 1/2c. Yellow, 11 1/2c. Virgin, 11 1/2c.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Sept. 30.—[Special.]—Pres Mullins, a deputy moonshiner, has been captured by Deputy Marshal Cunningham. He has been the leader of a gang of moonshiners who have been operating in the mountains for the last 15 years, and is known as a very desperate character.

DEATHS ON THE RAILROAD TRACK.

PARKERSBURG, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—R. E. Wayman, a young man from Cameron, was killed last night on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad near Burton, and John O'Neil, while walking near the same place, was also killed. Wayman's body was badly mutilated, and his leg was driven into a switch frog so that it had to be pried out.

TEXAS SPLENDED FEVER EPIDEMIC.

HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The disease supposed to be Texas splenic fever that appeared among the cattle in this county about two weeks ago, is spreading rapidly and threatens to become epidemic. The State Board of Agriculture, through their veterinary surgeon, Francis Budge, is making an investigation.

NO DIVIDEND ON MISSOURI PACIFIC.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The directors of the Missouri Pacific Railway Company at their meeting to-day formally passed the Missouri Pacific dividend.

KILLED AT THE CARNEGIE FURNACE. BRADDOCK, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—William...

THE LEAGUE RECORD. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 30.—[Special.]—The...