PHILADELPHIA EX-OFFICIALS TO BE SUMMONED

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3 .- Within the next ten days Governor Pattison will issue extradition papers to compel the return of Livsey, to Harrisburg, and the form in which the demand will be made upon the Canadian Government officials at Ottawa is

Governor Pattison has not yet fully decided upon the form of charges upon which the right of extradition will be exercised, but he is fully persuaded that he can not in the premises and bring before the Senate the one material witness, whose testimony about the operations of the State Treasurer's office it is highly important the Senators should hear. The Governor proposes to accommodute them, and Attorney General Hensel is expected to take proper action during the week. The location of ex-Cashier Livsey is known, but the possessors of this valuable secret decline to make

More Important Letters.

It was hinted to-day that there are letters in District Attorney Graham's possession, tending to place State Treasurer Boyer in a very questionable position, and Governor Pattison will request Mr. Graham to surrender them for the use of the Senate, Much curiosity has been manifested in certain city quarters during the past few days why these letters and the series of incrimiace were withheld when Auditor General McCamant and State Treasurer Boyer's statements were given to the public. It will be easily recalled that these letters were nowhere to be found in the several columns of letters published in the newspapers lately at the instance of Mr. Graham. The Governor proposes to have the concealed letters and memoranda if the District Attorney can find them before Octo-Bardsley's Agent to Testify.

Another important witness the Governor proposes to furnish the Senate is H. H. Yard, the Trenton, N. J., gentleman who was deeply concerned with the late John Lucas in the Spring Lake and Sea Girt improvements, and who acted as Bardsley's agent in various financial schemes. Mr. Yard said on the day he was arrested for complicity in working the Keystone Bank: "If my prosecution is pressed I will bring a number of prominent Pennsylvanians to their knees."

Governor Pattison will see that Mr. Yard appears at the bar of the Senate unless he remains outside of the State and that he will have a chance to carry out his threat. A very prominent Democrat said today: "A very pertinent query is this: What prominent Pennsylvania officials profited by the use of the State's money through H. H. Yard and touching whom he alone has the information? Mr. Yard has been somewhat lost to sight. He will have a new introduction when the Senate meets in extra session October 13, if there is power enough in the State to bring him to Harris-

Ouny, Cameron and Magee Witnesser All living ex-City Treasurers of Philadelphin will be summoned to go on the Senate witness stand. Ex-Treasurer Joseph J. Martin, P. A. B. Widener, Irvin and Frank F. Rell are the ex-officials in question. Senators Cameron and Quay and C. L. Magee, the Pittsburg leader, are on the list of witnesses. There will be developments growing out of the extra session of an exciting character. A complete exposure of the system covering the fiscal affairs of the State will be made, and officials past and present must share in the exposures bound to come. While the Legislative Investigating Com mittee has limited the scope of the inquiry and from a partisan view refused to extend the inquiry wherever possible, the Senate cannot entertain such a course simply because it will not dare engage in any abbreviated process of investigation. If that body should do otherwise the Democratic members of the Senate, backed by a Democratic Governor, will make their appeal to public opinion and public sentiment to compel a Republican Senate to make a thorough inquiry.

Charges Made Against the Ohio Grand

Keeper of Records and Seals. CLEVELAND, Oct. 3. -[Special.]-Charges were preferred at a recent meeting of the State Grand Finance Committee against S. A. Court, of Toledo, Grand Keeper of Recards and Seals of the Knights of Pythias, by J. B. Culp. Their full purport is not known, but it is admitted by Edmund Hitchens, Cleveland member of the committee, that they are of a serious nature. One is that he overcharged for traveling expenses, stamps and the like; another, that e was discourteous to other officers. The charges were laid over for future investi-

DEATH IN A MINE.

A TERRIFIC GAS EXPLOSION KILLS PROBABLY A DOZEN MEN.

Two Taken Out Dead, Six Others Fatally Burned and Six More Imprisoned Be hind a Wall of Rock-A Terrible Disaster at Mahoney City.

MAHONEY CITY, Pa., Oct. 3 .- [Special.] -By a terrific explosion in the Richardson Colliery, owned and operated by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, to-day, probably a dozen lives were Winfield Mack and another man were taken out dead, and J. F. Brennan, Thomas Conville, Michael Grant and three others perhaps fatally injured. The following are closed in: John Salmon, Michael Welsh, John Purcell, John Lawlor, Joseph Shields, Thomas Clamey, and others whose names are not known.

Shortly before quitting time this evening gas accumulated in one of the gangways, and without a moment's warning a loud report was heard, followed by the falling of an immense quantity of coal, which entombed 14 men and cut off all means of escape. As soon as the explosion occurred the men in all parts of the mine hastened to the spot, but were powerless to render any assistance. They were thunderstruck when they realized the perilous position that their companions were placed in and at once sent word to the surface, and the company's officials were notified of the disaster.

A rescuing party at once set to work and not until late this evening did they find any of the men. After digging through coal ex-Cashier of the State Treasury, William and rock for a distance of 50 yards eight of the men were reached, two of whom had been orushed to death by the falling debris. The other six were satally burned. There are still six men imprisoned and they cannot be reached until to-morrow, when life will doubtless be extinct.

BEN BUTLER'S BOOK

The General Is Charged With Breaking Faith With His Publishers.

Boston, Oct. 3.-[Special.]-General Ben F. Butler is charged with breaking a contract with the C. F. Jewett Publishing Company and giving to a rival firm, A. M. Thaver & Co., the publication of his autobiography. The former company asks that an injunction be placed on the issuance of the new work by the latter. They allege that General Butler contracted to have the book published by them. By the terms of the agreement General Butler was to receive 75 cents for each book printed and sold. General Butler was seen immediately after the document was filed, but he refused to say anthing until the matter had been brought before him thoroughly.

Mr. Elder, the lawyer for the plaintiff, said that he had had a conversation with General Butler about the matter, and that the General alleges that Mr. Jewett, who is low in financial difficulty, had broken faith with him, and that was the reason he had taken the publication out of the firm's bands. Judge Lathrope fixed Tuesday, October 20, as the date for hearing the

BOSTON'S DRESS REFORM

Only Two Ladies Are Having the Rainy

Weather Costumes Made Boston, Oct. 3 .- [Special.]-Had it rained to-day two women, not 200 as had been said, would have donned dresses, the like of which have never before been worn by civilized women, and sauntered across streets without fear of muddy skirts. The alleged leader in the so-called dress reform movement is a very retiring woman who had little desire for such prominence as has been forced upon her. Her name is Mrs. Evelyn Shaw Ingersoll.

"This reform talk is utterly absurd," said she to-day. "I have not spoken a word to convert any one to my way of thinking. I am having a costume made of waterpr cloth with which I shall wear stout walking boots, with long tops like a riding boot. When the suit is ready I shall wear it, but I have no intention of keeping it for rainy weather alone, as it will be much too pretty. One of my friends is having made a suit like mine, but I know of nobody else who is doing so."

UNITED MINE WORKERS.

The National Board Meets, but Adjour Over Until Monday.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 3 .- [Special.]-All the State Presidents did not arrive to attend the meeting of the National Board of United Mine Workers to-day, and an adjournment was taken to Monday, when it is expected all will be here and the consideration of the eight-hour day will be resumed. The subject was under discussion to-day, and it was developed, as learned from a private source, that Mr. Jones, the President of the Ohio association, is thoroughly opposed to the movement at the present time, or on October 15, as has been sug-

Without the Ohio President in favor of the move, it is not believed that much can be accomplished. The indications are that the subject will be thoroughly gone over at this meeting, and an understanding reached as to the disposition of the several States, and at a subsequent meeting there may be something developed.

Drunken Negroes Fight on a Train and Young Lady Is Shot. LOUISVILLE, Oct. 3 .- [Special.] -- Miss Tenie McEwan, of Frankfort, was shot on a Louisville and Nashville train on Friday night by Wes Watson, a drunken negro There was a party of drunken negroes on the train, one of whom sat down in a seat beside a lady, whose company had left her for a few minntes. When asked to vacate the seat, the negro flew into a rage. His companions took his part and a row en-sued, in which one of the darkies drew a pistol and fired.

The ball struck Miss McEwan just below the left eye and ranged downward, missing the brain and lodging in the muscles of her neck. She was removed to her home and may die. The man who fired the shot and his companion were arrested.

Raum Says He Did Not Resign. CHICAGO, Oct. 3.-General Green B. Raum had the following to say regarding his reported resignation: "It is not true that I tendered my resignation to the President at that conference. I did say, however, that I did not wish in any way to embarrass his administration, and that if my conduct of the Pension Department has not en satisfactory to him, or if he credited the vague charges brought against the de-partment, I was willing that my manage-ment should cease. DILL ARRESTED AGAIN.

ENTIRELY NEW ACTION AGAINST THE BANKER.

United States District Attorney Lyon Says the First Ones Were Wrong - Public Sentiment Changing in the President's Fayor-In the Jail Parlor.

CLEARFIELD, Oct, B .- [Special.]-This city enjoyed another genuine sensation today regarding the arrest of President Dill, of the Clearfield and Houtzdale Banks, when United States District Attorney Lyon arrived from Pittsburg and calmly stated that all proceedings against Dill were illegal, and if the depositors expect to hold him they must begin proceedings anew. The first exclamation made by Walter Lyon, when told of the situation, was: "Why, Miller must have lost his head," referring to the action of Bank Examine. Miller in having Dill arrested. It was then remembered by the more sober citizens that during the excitement of yesterday many lawyers claimed that Bank Examiner Miller and District Attorney Wilson were wrong and acting hastily.

Upon learning the exact state of affairs, Mr.
Miller, acting upon Mr. Lyon's advice, at once made out another information before Commissioner Ambrose. A warrant was issued to T. E. Clark, who went at once to the jail and placed Mr. Dill under arrest. The Commissioner was with him and he was bound over in $20,000 bail to appear before him at Clearfield on Friday, October 9, at 11 o'clock. There were plenty of people ready to go his bail to-day, but his lawyers and friends and standard to-day, but his lawyers reany to go his bail to-day, but his lawyers and friends advised in favor of his remaining in jail until the day of the hearing.

Public sentiment has changed greatly since yesterday, many believing that the prosecution has developed into a persecution, and that Dill's side of the story should be heard before final judgment is brought by his former friends and neighbors. The false entry has been explained to several by his former friends and neighbors. The false entry has been explained to several bankers, and they say there is nothing criminal in it, as it is done every day in the banks, and that if that is all there is in the charges he will be released at the hearing.

Mr. Dill is confined in the parlor of the jail in the custody of Captain Clark, and is enjoying all the comforts and conveniences. joying all the comforts and conveniences possible. His estimable wife and family are with him nearly all the time. All other proceedings against Dill have been stopped, and everyone will await the result of the

Big Contract Rain Wigard Melbourne I

Talking About Just Now. TOPEKA, Oct. 3 .- [Special.]-A dispatch from Goodland says that Frank Melbourne has temporarily given up his experiments on account of the high winds. This morning a general rain, including in its scope all of Kansas and parts of Colorado and Nebraska, began to fall, but Melbourne did not claim the $500 he was to receive in case rain fell, and entered into a new contract by which he is to continue his experiments when the weather has settled.

Melbourne is experimenting with a view to entering into a contract for watering 40 counties in Western Kansas and 20 in Colorado. Southwestern Nebraska could also be included, and citizens in Red Cloud and other towns in that State have undertaken to have the experiments made there. The

The Attorney General of this State has been requested to give an opinion on the irrigation law enacted last winter with special reference to a clause which permits County Commissioners to call elections for voting bonds for irrigating purposes. If no such power is vested in the Commissioners the Governor will be petitioned to call abling act. In Colorado, the irrigation laws vest sufficient authority in the County Commissioners for the proposed scheme.

What the Sailors of the Schooner Edward I Webster Have to Say.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.-The sealing schooner Edward E. Webster, Captain Mc-Lean, arrived in port to-day after an absence of seven months. According to the story told by some of the sailors, the Webster was joined off Copper Island on July 24 by the schooner Hamilton Lewis, commanded by a brother of Captain McLean. and a joint raid was made on the Rookeries. The sailors killed a large number of seals. when the Russian authorities opened fire on them, firing volley after volley. The Captain of the Webster, nevertheless, ordered the crew out again on the following day; and when they refused to go some of them were put in irons and fed on bread and water for a number of days.

The sailors allege that they received harsh treatment during the whole homeward trip. The mate of the vessel says the scho was not warned against entering Bering Sea, but the men state that the schoone Lily L. was spoken June 20, and that she announced she had been ordered out of the sea by a revenue cutter. Captain McLean declared, so the sailors say, that he enter the sea despite revenue vessels. The Webster brings back 1,300 skins.

irrest of a Sailor Charged With Assisting to Burn a Ship.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 .- [Special.]-Thomas Suttie, a seaman on the American ship Fannie Tucker, which was burned at sea off the coast of Brazil on August 30, and who, together with the second officer and four other sailors of the ship, was brought to this port last week by the steamship Advance from Bahia, was arrested to-day on a warrant charging him with having con-spired with Captain Frost, of the Fanny Tucker, to burn the vessel.

The warrant was issued on a complaint of the Chief Inspector of the National Board of Marine Underwriters, who alleges that Suttie has admitted his part in the conspiracy. Upon examination before conspiracy. Upon examination before United States Commissioner Hitchcock today Suttie waived examination, and was committed to Ludlow Street Jail in default

It Is Something New and Has Already Stoo a Successful Test,

BOSTON, Oct. 3 .- [Special.]-An incubator for prematurely born infants is the latest Boston invention which has been successfully utilized. Dr. George R. Southwick is the inventor. The apparatus is a simple box, in the upper part of which the child is laid, while underneath are placed cans of heated water with proper arrangements for ventilation.

A child of Bernard Fritz is a living witness of the success of this method of treat-ment. It was born three months before time and was as unpromising a subject as could be selected. The child lived and throve in the box for three months. It is now 9 months old. It weighed less than three pounds at birth and now weighs 16

Thieving Officials Rob a New York State Bank of $460,000.

WORKING AN ORIGINAL SYSTEM

The Treasurer and His Assistant Strongly Guarded in Jail

TO PREVENT THEIR BEING LIECKED

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR) KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 3-This city was brown into a panic to-day by the announce nent that the Ulster County Savings Instiution had closed its doors. The bank has always been considered one of the strongest in the State, and its failure is therefore a great financial shock. Bank Superintendent Charles M. Preston is in charge of the bank and expert examiners have been at work since Tuesday last, As a result of the examiner's labors it is found that Treasurer Ostrander and Assistant Treasurer Matthew T. Trumpbour have stolen the immense sum of $463,000 between them. Superintendent Preston swore to a complaint charging Trumpbour with perjury in swearing to false statements contained in the July report of the bank to the banking department and Trumphour was arrested. He had his clothes all packed up and was preparing to fly from town. He was locked up in fail.

OSTRANDER ALSO JAILED. Ostrander was arrested about two weeks ago for embezzling $75,000, and was under bonds for $20,000. His bondsmen last night turned him over to Sheriff Dill, and he was locked up in jail. When Ostrander was arrested there was a great run on the bank for three days, but the other banks came to the rescue of the Ulster County Savings Insti-ution, and the trustees made a statement that there was a surplus of $247,000. that there was a surplus of $247,000.

The statement, being signed by such well-known men as Judge Alton B. Parker, General George H. Sharpe, Judge William S. Kenyon, Postmaster Noah Wolven, John W. Searing and other reputable citizens, had a reassuring effect, and the depositors who drew out their money brought it back.

The system adopted by Ostrander and Trumpbour was most ingenious, and for 20

Trumpbour was most ingenious, and for 20 years has baffled the skill of expert examiners in the employ of the State. In carrying it out deceit and perjury have been fre-quently and effectively employed.

THE EXAMINER'S REPORT. Albert C. Judson, of the Banking Department, made the following statement to reporters:

The examination into the condition and affairs of the bank has been going on since Monday of this week. The examination is yet incomplete. It has already developed the fact that about $400,000 of the funds of the bank have been abstracted. The stealing has been going on for over 20 years, and during all that time Assistant Treasurer W. T. Trumpbour has had charge of the cash, it being his duty to receive the deposits and pay the checks of depositors. It has also been his duty to take the trial balances of the depositors' ledgers twice a year, and he has also, when he felt disposed, done a little posting to the depositors' accounts.

disposed, done a little posting to the depositors' accounts.

He has thus taken upon himself to do that portion of the work of the bank which afforded an opportunity to falsify its accounts without detection, and he has done it in this way. It is the rule of the bank in receiving deposits to make a ticket memorandum containing the name of the depositor, the number of the book and the amount of the deposit.

HOW MONEY WAS STOLEN. sum of money is abstracted Mr. Trumpbour retains in his possession depositors' tickets representing the amount taken, and then posts the amount to the depositor's credit the ledger without a like entry in the cash book. This wrong doing couldn't be discovered except by a very thorough and discovered except by a very thorough and exhaustive examination, covering many days, which the trustees, not being experts, are not competent to make. The methods adopted by the assistant treasurer to rob the bank were thoroughly ingenious, and have never before been encountered by the banks of this State to my knowledge. Ostrander and Trumphour were arranged

They asked for an examination, which was set down for Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The trustees of the Kingston Savings Bank whose banking house is almost opposite the closed bank, had a meeting early this evening and took precautionary measures to meet any run which, might be made upon them. The run was quite heavy all the morning, there being a long line of depositors who were paid as fast as possible. THE TRUSTEES' STATEMENT.

The trustees of the bank make the follow.

ing statement: A comparison of 550 passbooks from every part of the country with the depositors' ledger at the time of the run on the bank falled to show any discrepancy between the passbooks and the records of the bank. This proboration of statements of Mr. satisfied us that the gene edger accurately stated the amount due lepositors and determined us to so inform the public. Our statement, therefore, of Soptember 19 was made upon evidence then

The majority of the depositors are poor people, many of them old men and women dependent on the interest on the few thousands of dollars they had in the bank, incontroverted. and such men and women, with tears in thei eyes, can be seen everywhere about the city, they fearing the loss of their savings

The feeling against the trustees who signed the statement is bitter in the extreme.

The city officials, fearing that threats to burn the jall where Ostrander and Trumpbour are confined would be executed, summoned the Fire Department, who are now watching the Court House and jail.

A Girl Tortured to Death, but Nihilists Take an Awful Revenge. BOSTON, Oct. 3 .- [Special.] -- Beril Sintzki, Russian Hebrew, who arrived with his family on the steamship Kansas yesterday, tells a frightful story of the brutality of Russian officials. He and his family were condemned to exile for a trivial offense and out for the mines under a guard of 19 soldiers. The office in charge became enamored with Sintzki's 16-year-old daughter, and offered-to release the family if the girl were yielded up to him. When his advances were repulsed he tied the girl up by the arms, and tortured her so she died the next day. When the mother lamer whipped by order of the officer. When the mother lamented she was

MYSTERY OF THE BAY.

DROWNING OF A MAN AND THREE CHILDREN AT CORPUS CHRISTL

A Father Takes His Little Flock for a Morning Walk and None Are Seen Again Alive-Three Bodies Recovered-The Mother's Grief,

CORPUS CHRISTI, Oct. 3.—This city was thrown into excitement this morning by the finding of the body of a girl 11 years old floating in Corpus Christi Bay. It proved to be that of Rowena Hamlin. Horace Hamlin, father of the girl, had left his residence at 5 o'clock this morning for a walk, accompanied by his 2-year-old son and two daughters, aged 11 and 13 years respectively.

After the finding of the first body thou-sands of people assembled at the wharf and watched the dragging of the bay. One hour was spent this way when the inanimate form of pretty Helen was brought to the surface. The bodies of the two young girls were taken to their home where the mother swooned. Further search resulted in the recovery of the body of the father. An examination of the body revealed nothing to clear away the mystery.

When asked how her husband left the house this morning, Mrs. Hamlin said: "He arose early for a walk with our two daughters, and asked me to go along. I told him I was not feeling well, and preferred not to go. He replied that if that was my reason he would not leave. I told him to go, and he assured me that he would remain away but a short time. NEW YORK, Oct. 3.-Five or ten minutes fter midnight this morning-the doorkeeper, who gave out the information, thought it was just 12:06-Mrs. Grover Cleveland, wife of the ex-President, gave birth to a girl baby, and the reporters who were awaiting news of such an event at the time got no news at all. The news did not get out, indeed, until noon to-day. The event had been expected from day to day ever since Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland returned omewhat hastily on September 22 from

The Cleveland house was besieged by a flock of inquirers this afternoon. The doorkeeper hadn't much to tell. "All there is," he said, "is that Mrs. Cleveland gave birth to a daughter about six minutes after midnight this morning. Dr. Joseph D. Bryant attended her, and the only other person who was present was her mother, Mrs. Per-rine Folsom. I think they said the baby weighed eight pounds, but I am not sure. Both Mrs. Cleveland and the child are do-ing well."

In the afternoon Miss Jeannette Gilder came to the house to spend Sunday with Mrs. Cleveland and the baby.

A dispatch from Atchison, Kan., says:
The Democratic County Convention this afternoon sent the following telegram to
Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland: The Democracy of Atchison convention assembled, congratupon the birth of your daughter. tehison county, in congratulate you

Grover Cleveland and Frances Folsom were married in the Blue Room of the White House on Wednesday, June 2, 1886, Public interest in the event had been heightened by attempts to keep the engage ment and the preparations for the marriag secret until almost the last moment. Rumors that the President was about to wed got into the newspapers early in the year, and the speculation that followed as to the of the bride settled down a month or more before the wedding into a conviction that she was to be the daughter of the President's deceased friend and law partner,

Oscar Folsom. KNEW HIM PROM BARVHOOD Miss Folsom had known Mr. Cleveland from her babyhood up. He was a constant visitor at her father's house in Buffalo until 1875, when Mr. Folsom having died, the family removed to Medina, N. Y. They returned to Buffalo later, in order that Mis Folsom might attend Mme. Brecher's school

While the country was discussing the ap proaching marriage and the identity of the bride, Miss Folsom was in Europe with her mother and her cousin, Ben Folsom. Every effort was made to keep her return secret. When the party embarked on the steamship Nordland at Antwerp, no an-nouncement of the fact was made in the ouncement of the fact was newspapers here. On the night of May 27 the Nordland arrived at quarantine, and the President's bride-elect and her companions were taken off in the revenue cutter Char dler, in which Colonel Dan Lamont, the President's private secretary, had gone down to meet them. The Folsoms went to the Gilsey House, and President Cleveland who came to New York to review the Dec oration Day parade and to meet his bride, first saw her at the hotel on the Sunday after her arrival. READY FOR THE WEDDING. He returned to Washington on Monday night, and the next evening Miss Folson and her companions followed. The wedding took place on Wednesday in the presence of a few close friends of the bride and groom and the members of the Cabinet and their families, except Attorney General Garland, whose aversion to social functions of any kind kept him away. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Byron Sunderand, of Batavia, N. Y. The honeymoon was spent at Deer Park, in the Allegheny Mountains, in a cottage owned by Robert Garrett, of Baltimore, Mr Cleveland was the only President who had married in the White House, and Mrs. Cleveland, in her 23d year, was the youngest lady of the White House who had sided as a President's wife. She became also immensely popular. When Mr. Cleve-land's term of office expired in 1889 he came to New York to practice law, and took his wife to live in the house at Madison ave-The past summer Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland spent at Gray Gables, Buzzard's Bay, their country place.

SECRETARY FOSTER MOVES ON THE DEPARTMENT SCOURGES.

Clerks Rescued From the Clutches of Grasping Money-Lenders-Weekly Payments Ordered by Him Hereafter-This Will Be a Boon to Needy Employes. PRPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH !

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.-Secretary Foster has just issued an order that employes of the departments shall be paid weekly instead of semi-monthly, as has been the practice for some time. It is thought that this will in some measure do away with the business of the usurers, who make a fat living out of needy clerks by loaning money at from 4 to 10 per cent a month. This has become a great abuse. It began with the more thrifty clerks losning at big interest to their fellow clerks, who were always bee lenders were generally pro-

It is only within recent years that the propriety of dismissing a clerk for not being prompt in his payments to usurers has been questioned, and men who had paid in interest three times over the sum borrowed were dismissed for ceasing the regular monthly contributions.

Recently when a usurer complained to the Secretary of War that a clerk would not repay borrowed money, and it was dis-covered that the clerk had already paid $260 interest on $100 and still owed $80, the Secretary recommended the clerk to pay the $80 at his couvenience, but to pay no more interest. To still further relieve the some time of permitting them to draw money between pay days occasionally, on recommendation of the chief of the divis-Mr. Foster's new order will do away with this and will permit all employes to

An Irate Colored Woman Takes Possessie of the Beaver Falls School, BEAVER FALLS, Oct. 3. - [Special.] -- Mrs.

Gertie Hollen, a colored woman, of some little police court notoriety, raised a commotion in the Eleventh Street Public School resterday afternoon. One of the teachers had chastised a son of Mrs. Hollen and the latter took umbrage at it. Arming herself she started for the school. Prof. Reed made himself scarce. She marched into his private room, drew her revolver and striking a tragic attitude, exclaimed: "Where is Prof. Reed. If I find him, he'll be dead in less han a minute and I'll be in jail to-mor-Several teachers in the room ran out screaming and notified the other teachers. Doors were locked, and while the irate colored woman cavorted through the hall ways, teachers and pupils huddled together with fright in their rooms. In the mean-time the janitor, who had fied to the cellar at the first intimation of danger, slipped out and went for the police. The directo

FIVE CENTS. TIN IN CALIFORNIA,

A Large Plate Factory to be Started Soon in San Francisco.

ABOUT 1,000 MEN TO BE EMPLOYED.

The Visit of a Capitalist to Wales Satisfied Him of the Profit.

ONE RESULT OF THE M'KINLEY LAW

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR 1 SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3 .- American tinplate is not a campaign myth. Major Mo-Kinley may look to this city for a substantial argument on the tariff and Governor Campbell need not dispute him, for there is no doubt of the facts. One of the most prominent and wealthy manufacturers of this city is soon to engage in the manufacture of tin plate on a large scale. For the present he wishes his name withheld from the public, because, he says, he is soon to purchase a site for the factory and does not wish to be besieged by real estate agents or to have the price of property which he desires to secure increased. The gentleman alluded to said that four ceks ago he returned from Wales, where se found the tin-making industry stagnant on account of the McKinley act.

EMPTY FURNACES AT SWANSEA. "In Swansea, the chief tin-making city of the world," he said, "there were about 69 factories turning out tin plate when the new tariff act was passed. These factories now stand with motionless wheels and empty furnaces, with the exception of a few that are turning out orders for the local

"I went to Wales with a view to obtain information on the subject of tin manufacture, for I saw a promising field for it in San Francisco. I managed to gain a knowledge of the latest improvements in the art, and purchased some of the new machines invent-ed by T. S. Edwards, which can be operated by a laborer, and by the use of which there is a great saving of time and material. The patentee will send mechanics to this city to put up these machines, and give instructions to the hands employed in the factory. In Wales the tin-maker earns $15 per week and works about eight hours per day, and as our workmen are more intelligent they should earn from $20 to $25 per week. We intend to employ about 200 hands as soon as our building is erected, and hope to have from 800 to 1,000 at work before the end of the first year."

"Where will you obtain your material?" THE SUPPLY OF TIN.

"From Australia, San Bernardino or the Black Hills. Most of the tin used in Wales now comes from Australia. It will cost much less to bring it here, and in spite of the tariff we can manufacture to advantage, for we save the cost of transportation over the continent, the cost of boxing our product in air-tight cases to prevent it from rusting, and the insurance. Then the manu-factured tin from abroad often comes in bad condition, for which the Government makes no allowance, and is taxed at the rate of

we are compelled to import ore from Australia and pay the duty upon it we will still be able to realize a good profit. I believe, however, that we will be able to obtain all the ore we want within the United States and will thus be able to reap the benefit of the duty imposed on imported tin by the 'Our market is right here. Fully 1,000,

000 boxes of tin are annually consumed in California and our tin would be preferred

$2 50 per box. All this is in our favor.

"Remember that tin forms not a small part of what is known as tin plate, that is sheet-iron, or steel casted with tin, and if because it would be bright and made to suit the wants of our purchasers.

TIN PLATE IS A GO. The Son of the Largest Welsh Manufacturer

Says McKinley Is Right. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.-E. G. Edwards, son of Daniel Edwards, the largest individual tin plate manufacturer in Wales, was at the Lafayette last night. In speaking of the effect of the McKinley bill on the old Welsh and the new American tin plate industry, Mr. Edwards candidly admitted that he could not help but see that the American manu facturers are bound to make the industry a go. "While the tin plate industry in Wales is over a hundred years old," said Mr. Edwards, "it is really only during the past 30 years that it has developed to such large proportions. The cause of this develop-ment is, candidly speaking, the American market, and when we are deprived of the American market, I must confess that I don't know what the Welsh manufacturers are going to do. That the American manufacturers are getting in good shape cannot be denied, and I do not think it is a difficult thing that many of the Welsh manufacturers claim for the American manufacturers to be able before long to meet the demands of the American market. There are many old tin plate workers now employed in iron sheet mills in this country who are simply waiting for a chance to resume their old trade in an American tin plate mill. Then, of course, there are many Welsh workmen who are willing to come over here, as the American manufact-urers are offering skilled workmen just double the money they receive in the Welsh factories. The Welsh manufacturer, too, will have to look around him, and perhaps come to America. "Your American manufacturers," said he, "have every requisite for success. You're mining tin, you are making your own steel plates and iron sheets, and you have lots of cash, and cash will get you all the help you want."

Mr. Edwards is going to Pittsburg, and some of the Western manufacturers and experts expect to take back to Wales some strong, plain facts regarding the growing importance of the timplate industry in this

THE TIN PLATE PRESENT Sent Governor Campbell Reaches Him

at His Columbus Home. COLUMBUS, Oct. 3.-[Special.]-Governor Campbell to-day received by the Baltimore and Ohio express 100 pounds of tin plate from the United States Iron and Tin Manufacturing Company, of Demmler, Pa., the charges being prepaid.
