

NOT AFRAID OF RAIN.

Thousands Visit the Exposition in Spite of the Bad Weather.

ARCHIMEDE WINS LOUPLAUSSE.

A Treat for the Lovers of Irish Melody Promised To-Night.

CATCHING FEATURES OF THE BIG SHOW

In spite of the wretched weather the people crowded into the Exposition yesterday afternoon was due.

In the evening there was a large attendance, of course. It would be remarkable if there were not.

A 6,000-CANDLE-POWER LIGHT.

The Dazzling Attraction of the Thomson-Houston Electric Exhibit.

The intense brilliancy of this powerful light can only be realized by a visit to Mechanical Hall.

An Enjoyable Feature of the Exposition.

No one questions the popularity of Baker's delicious sugar-coated pop corn.

NATURAL GAS IS EVERY HOME.

A Stove that Generates Carbon Oil Into Gas.

J. D. Cameron, who owns the Seymour patents, has on exhibition at 140 Fifth avenue, stoves fitted up with one of the new gas generating devices.

Light, Warmth and Pure Air.

Beinecke & Co., 300 Wood Street, Pittsburg is indebted to this firm for the introduction of the Garney Hot Water Heater.

WASHINGTON-KEYSTONE-ARION.

These makes lead all the rest. Klebers' Keystone rosewood guitar costs only $12 but is guaranteed the equal of any $20 guitar made.

The Fine Furniture Exhibit.

Notice the trend of the crowds in north gallery, follow, and you will find yourself at the superb display of Hopper Bros. & Co., 307 Wood Street.

Pittsburg Wire and Railing Works.

There seems to be no limit to the forms in which Taylor & Deon have employed heavy iron. Bank, jail and vault work, fences and railings, stable fixtures, brass and iron grill work for partitions, crests and grilles, fire escapes, staircases, cellar doors, iron beds, are all manufactured by them.

If You Are Buying a Piano or Organ

Call and examine Chickering & Sons, Kautzman & Co., Allen, and the Chickering & Sons Pianos, and Taber & Crown

Organs They are all leaders. Our prices are lower and our terms easier than other houses. Second hand pianos and organs in stock and can be purchased at almost your own figure.

Kleber Takes the Lead in Music, as Ever. In addition to the numberless Steinway, Conover and Opera pianos and other musical instruments sold daily at this popular old-time establishment, the Messrs. Kleber have also disposed of quite a number of Vocalion church organs.

People Who Are Averse

To asking the prices of the exquisite articles displayed by Cavitt & Pollock at the Exposition can readily obtain information by visiting the store, 535 Penn avenue, where they will find not only numerous duplications of the exhibit, but any quantity of other desirable wares in china, glass and crockery.

The H. J. Heinz Company's Exhibit.

Looking at exhibits is calculated to make people hungry, but that does not begin to express the feeling created by tasting the delicious fruit butters and pickles manufactured by the Keystone Pickling and Preserving Company.

Dabbis in Art Gallery.

Not even do the oil paintings attract more attention than the familiar faces of our Pittsburg notables which have been so truthfully and intelligently transferred to these frames by the dabbis.

An Enjoyable Feature of the Exposition.

No one questions the popularity of Baker's delicious sugar-coated pop corn. Anyone doubting the fascination of its influence would be convinced of the hold it has obtained upon the thousands who visit the Exposition by calculating the amount which is consumed by young and old daily.
