Commissioner Mercer, it is said, plays a trump card in holding a strong tollowing on the south side of the river; indeed, it is held that when fears were entertained preceding the last Mavoralty election that Gourley could not carry the Southside wards, Mercer was strongly urged as the one particular man who could defeat Judge Bailey.

ONCE NEARLY & CANDIDATE.

As for the ex-Sheriff, while somewhat younger than Mercer, it may be said that he was cradled in politics, and from ward school director on up to County Treasurer Sheriff, he has managed not only to hold old friends but to make many new ones, and it is related by some of his friends that about three weeks previous to the election which resulted in the success of Mayor Gourley. Mr. Gourley himself had coucluded the fight was getting too hot, and even gone so far as to write a letter of withdrawal from the candidacy. This became known to some of the more ardent admirers of the Sheriff, and they at once urged that he be put orward and made the Repub-fcan candidate for Mayor. Politicall legends have it that the leaders of the party were only prevented from putting up Me Candless by the fact that to pull down down Gourley at that time would be such a frank admission of weakness as to invite certain deteat. So influences were brought to hear on the candidate to remain firm, while Mc-Candless' friends were assured that his claims would be considered before another election would transpire. Notwithstanding the objections of the local leaders of the party, it is not certain but McCandless would have been nominated had it not been for the fact that he had at that time a year to serve as Sheriff, and it would seem a great capacity for office if a man sought the suffrages of the people for Mayor before he had yet this hed serving them in some other capacity, where he had been placed by capitrity, where we had been pinced by their votes, and so it happened that Mc-Candless was held off receiving almost positive promises from many of the pillars of the party that he would be the next andard bearer for the mayorality.

BOTH MEN'S FRIENDS AT WORK.

At present the friends of both Mercer and McCandless are working actively, and uless the horizon changes very much and a new luminary comes out from behind that greatest of all mysteries, the political sky, one of these gentlemen will be the nominec.

As for the Democrats, it is generally con-ceded that Magistrate B. F. McKenna will - nomination w sppo:

THE SILENT SENATOR IN THE CITY.

He Visits Pittsburg on His Way to His Home in Beaver.

United States Scuntor Quay arrived in Pittsburg from the East early yesterday morning. He speat most of the day in his room at the Seventh Avenue Hotel. During the morning Senator Flinn, Collector Warmcastle, Chief Brown, ex-Senator Hood, of Indiana, and others called upon Mr. Quay. At noon Senator Quay, his wife, laughter and nicce were guests of United States Marshal Harrah at dinner. At 1:45 in the afternoon the Senator left for his home in Beaver, where he contemplates staving until after the election. He says Pennsylvania will go Republican in November and he aclieves that McKinley will be elected in Ohio, although he thinks the contest in the Buckeye State is a decidedly hot one.

Senator Quay believes, he says, that Governor Pattison was netuated by political motives in calling the extra session, but he is content in the pellef that the Republican party will not suffer by the propsoed in-The Senator had nothing to say on quiry. The S local politics,

Republican Candidates to Attend a Soldiere Mass Meeting.

The war veterans of Allegheny county who have organized in the interest of the Republican State candidates will open headquarters in the Hamilton building this morning. It was arranged yesterday that a meeting of the veterans will be held in Old City Hall on the evening of October 21. Both the Rupublican candidate and Colonel Stewart, Secretary of Internal Affairs, will deliver addresses. Efforts are being made to have soldiers from every part of the State attend the meeting.
