VA., Oct. 9 .- [Special]-It now turns out that $27,328 of West Virginia direct tax money, paid over in pursuance of the act of last Congress on the supposition that it was due to citizens of Jefferson and Berkely counties and not to the State at large, will go into the State Treasury after all. It really stands on the same footing as the $500,000 or so of State direct tax money which the Government refuses to pay this which the Government refuses to pay this State until there is some settlement of ante-bellum claims held by the United States against the old State of Virginia. An ex-haustive search of the records shows that the citizens of Jefferson and Berkely were reimbursed by an act of the Legislature passed in 185, supplemented by the joint resolution of 1869.
