A Pointer in Time.

You hardly evertake a notion to be measared for a suit of clother without doing a little thinking about it, and one of the points in connection with the new suit is where will I go to get it? You will be wise if you visit Nicoll, the Tailor, at 400 Smithfield street, and examine his stock. There you will find everything in season, with the satisfaction of knowing that you can de-pend on all statements made. The fit will be as perfect as you can desire and the workmanship cannot be excelled. The reputation at this house is on a solid basis -too solid to be risked by any neglect.
